

"UNCLE JOE" CANNON DIES FRIDAY

PRESIDENT'S SPEECH GETS BRITISH APPROVAL

GREAT BRITAIN NOT SURPRISED BY VIEW UPON WORLD COURT

Politicians Find No Objection To Talk On Armistice Day

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Despite its nationalistic tone and sharp, caustic comments on European affairs, the speech of President Coolidge at the dedication of the liberty war memorial at Kansas City yesterday has met with general approval and comparatively little criticism in British government circles.

One prominent government official, who preferred that his name be not used, characterized the speech as follows:

"President Coolidge's address is essentially an extremely sensible utterance made by a patriotic American. There is nothing in the speech to which we could legitimately object as a government."

President Coolidge's remarks
about the armistice ending the war are eminently just. We agree perfectly with him regarding the necessity of dropping recriminations between nations.

"As to America's part in the war,
Mr. Coolidge is perfectly right in taking the attitude he has adopted,
while his criticisms upon the old-time 'armed camp' of Europe are unanswerable."

Great Britain is not surprised by President Coolidge's announcement that America is through with the world court unless the senate's reservations are adhered to.

"His announcement regarding the world court does not take us by surprise," the official said. "We have known his attitude for months. The only point where the president does step on open and debatable ground is in his reference to American prosperity and his indirect reference to debts."

President Coolidge urged the American people, in his address, not to be ashamed of their prosperity
and ascribed the alleged unpopularity of Americans abroad to the fact that America was a creditor nation.

"Every Englishman is suffering from a burden of grinding taxation,
accentuated by American wealth and comparative freedom. We merely note this fact and are prepared to face the prospects as they exist.
Europe has now to work its way out of the morass of war. We believe we can always count upon the sympathy of America."

The British press took varying views of the president's speech.
The London Chronicle thought the speech was "not happily inspired" but was sure that Mr. Coolidge's intention was pacific.

"The president has a perfect right to be firm regarding the payment of war debts," this journal said, "but nothing is to be gained by debating the ethics of the matter. We know, and many ethics agree with us, that the more statesmen make speeches upon this subject, the more the creditors are apt to look like duffers and the debtors like defaulting scamps. The sooner these business matters can be settled and the talk concerning them dropped, the sooner will mutual respect between nations be restored."

The only comment made by the Times was on the fact that the Coolidge speech destroyed Europe's expectation that the United States would eventually adhere to the world court tribunal.

"The general regret which this prospect inspire will only be sharpened by the reflection that the United States has always professed devotion to the principles of international arbitration," said the Times.

A former cabinet minister, who declined to have his name used,
said the speech was "bombastic, showing Mr. Coolidge is ignorant of conditions in Europe."

INCENDIARY BLAZE DESTROYS CAMP

WELLSBURG, W. Va., Nov. 12.—
Several persons narrowly escaped with their lives here early this morning when fire, believed to have been of incendiary origin, destroyed Bellevue health camp, including ten cottages, entailing a loss of approximately $10,000.

Dr. H. G. Prentiss, of Baltimore, and his valet fled from their cottage just before it collapsed in flames.

As no fire-fighting apparatus was available, all but a few remote cottages were destroyed.

SALE DATES RESERVED.
Nov. 16.—Rev. G. G. Atkins.
Nov. 1.—Evan O. Bogan.
Dec. 1.—H. O. Beatty.

UNCLE JOE DIES

"Uncle Joe" Cannon
Sixty years a member of the house of representatives and speaker for that body, died Friday at his home at Danville, Ill., at the age of 90.

PRESIDENT'S TRIP WEST AWARDED HIM GREATEST TRIUMPH

Crowd Estimated at 150,-
000 Heard Speech
Thursday

ABOARD THE PRESIDENTIAL SPECIAL EN ROUTE TO WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Numerically, at least, President Coolidge was returning to the national capital today from the scene of his greatest public triumphs. Gauged
by extent of vocal demonstration, Minneapolis and St. Paul, which he visited in June, 1925, still hold
the call in the matter of presidential receptions, but never has
Mr. Coolidge—nor any other executive—addressed such a vast throne as was assembled Armistice Day in Kansas City, Mo.

Behind the president was a memory of massed humanity aggregating at least 150,000 individuals. They had jammed together in a solid blanket on all sides of the $2,000,000 liberty memorial from which the president spoke and, despite the chill of a winter
wind, they had listened attentively
to his mild but, nevertheless, positive denunciation of European politics insofar as relations with the United States are concerned.

This estimate of the crowd was not taken on the word of partisan citizens but, curiously enough, was arrived at in comparison with the throne that witnessed the Dempsey-Tunney fight in Philadelphia, where the exact number of seats
was known and where the people were crowded into a space which the vision could determine and remember.

The president's return trip thus far has been as eventful as the outgoing journey. Missouri and Illinois were left behind during the night. Today the special train crosses Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania. A quiet day was in prospect.

In the private car housing the executive and Mrs. Coolidge is a phonograph machine of the latest type, wherever they may amuse themselves. In the evening before the 11:30 arrival at Washington—they can look forward to other of the movie features placed aboard by Jack Connolly, personal representative of Will Hays.

HOG PRICES TAKE TUMBLE ON MARKET

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 12.—Hog prices on the local livestock market tumbled to a new low price for 1926 today when quotations were issued showing a reduction of 25c to 50c for choice porkers. The top was officially placed at $12.50 but buyers declared that few animals brought more than $12.25.

Government experts attribute the steady decline in the past few weeks to heavy receipts and the seasonal decline.

INTERPRET SPEECH AS BARRING U. S.

GENEVA, Nov. 12.—In authoritative League of Nations circles here, President Coolidge's Armistice Day speech at Kansas City yesterday is interpreted as definitely barring the United States from membership in the world court.

It was declared that the present members of the world court can not graciously make more concessions to the United States than those made at the Geneva signatory conference in September.

COOLIDGE ADDRESS BELIEVED TO SOUND COURT DEATH KNEEL

Armistice Day Speech
Removes Issue From Politics

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—
President Coolidge's ultimatum to Europe that the United States will enter the world court on its own terms or not at all was accepted here today as sounding a death knell to the project and signifying the removal of the issue for the time being at least from the realm of politics.

The political powers of Europe
have already agreed the senate's reservations are not acceptable.
The president has said the reservations will not be changed.
There the matter rests. There,
apparently, it will continue to rest until the powers change their attitude.

The irreconcilables are jubilant
and even some of those who reluctantly voted for the court last January under pressure from the White House were relieved today
over the turn of events.

One effect of the president's speech may be to forestall the introduction in the senate next month of a resolution to recall the favorable vote of last session, although an opposite opinion is not unanimous on it. Some of them believe that such anticourt opinion is not unanimous on it. Some of them believe that such a resolution should be introduced and passed while the temper of the senate and the White House is aroused over the matter. Others believe that Mr. Coolidge gave a coup de grace to the whole project at Kansas City yesterday and that no good purpose would be served in stirring up the issue again.

Now of Mr. Coolidge's speeches have been received with such universal senate approbation as that of yesterday. Even the Democrats who assisted in passing the adherence resolution praised the president's stand.

Senator Walsh (D), of Montana,
who was one of the court leaders in the fight last winter, said the president had "accurately reflected the attitude of the senate."

Senator Johnson (R), of California, an original irreconcilable, said, "Apparently, with a sigh of relief, the president has kissed the League of Nations good bye."

Senator Wm. E. Borah, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, said "the speech was fine, as far as it went," meaning he thought Mr. Coolidge should have gone even further and recommended the recall of last January's action.

Only a handful of the ardent proleagues and procourt senators found fault with Mr. Coolidge's expressed attitude. Senator Bruce (D), of Maryland, said the court will outlive the president's valdictory.

STRIKE SETTLEMENT HOPES SHATTERED

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Hopes of an immediate settlement of the coal strike received a setback today by the announcement of the colliery owners that the government's plan of settlement does not represent an agreement to which the owners would become a party.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—A settlement of England's coal strike before midnight was considered a strong possibility today.

The issuance of the government's plan of settlement at 3:10 o'clock this morning, following conferences lasting throughout yesterday and most of last night, in which the conference dealt separately with the miners and coal owners, opened the way for a prompt settlement of the strike.

The government's terms will become effective immediately if they are accepted by the miners' delegate conference today.

LOS ANGELES WILL LEAVE LAKEHURST

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The drillable Los Angeles will fly to Hampton Roads today and moor to the mast of the U. S. S. Patoka, according to a message to the navy department this morning from Lakehurst.

The message did not state what time the ship would leave Lakehurst.

CHLOROFORM THIEF
MARION, O., Nov. 12.—Marion has a chloroform burglar. He uses chloroform to overpower his victims, two of them have reported to police. The latest is Miss Charlotte Willoughby, school teacher, who awakened to find the man. Her screams frightened him away.

Cyclone Crushes Life Out of 13 Children

Ruins of a school at La Plata, Md., were searched after a cyclone leveled the building, crushing out the lives of thirteen pupils.

MAIL PLANE OBSERVER IS KILLED

Air Mail Pilot Lands Safely In Parachute Before
Ship Crashes In California—Probe
Is Started

VAN NUYS, Calif., Nov. 12.—
The observer on a southbound government mail airplane was killed early today
when the ship crashed to earth on the grounds of the Whitley country club, according to reports to police here.

The name and address of the observed was withheld pending
an investigation of the accident.
He is said to be Donald Rossiter,
21, Los Angeles. The pilot of the plane landed safely in a parachute.
The wrecked plane was on the Seattle-Los Angeles segment.

QUEEN MARIE NARROWLY MISSED BEING MOBBED IN KANSAS CITY

Zealous Curious Pound On Glass Of Royal Auto—
Queen Hopes To Visit Chicago
Home Incognito

ABOARD QUEEN MARIE'S
SPECIAL TRAIN, Nov. 12.—Barely recovered from a narrow escape from being mobbed by over-enthusiastic crowds in Kansas
City, Queen Marie of Roumania
City, Queen Marie of Roumania
arrived today in St. Louis, gateway of the Mississippi valley.

The day's schedule called for a drive through the city in the morning, an exclusive luncheon
and greeting of Roumanian residents at Washington University in the afternoon and a banquet and horse show in the evening. The royal party will leave tomorrow
for Chicago, where the battle between the high hats and the low hats will be decided.

This issue, which is gaining in intensity as her majesty moves eastward, flared for but a moment in Kansas City. The visit of a president and a queen on the same day gave victory to the slitten tie faction and there was not a high hat in garret or store left un-worn.

Those who could not wear them pushed; they jostled the Roumanian attaches out of recognition by the police; they surrounded the royal automobile and pounded the glass. The police were helpless or else busy themselves looking at a queen.

"I thought of telegraphing you folks and asking you not to come,"
said Mayor A. I. Beach to one of the officials in the royal party.

An exclusive supper and reception was given the royal party at the home of Mrs. Jacob Loose, formerly of Chicago, widow of the cracker and candy millionaire. It was only the third private reception her majesty has attended.

Mrs. Loose gave her majesty a four-foot box of crackers and candy as a memento of the occasion.

Queen Marie is looking forward to visiting "incognito" a typical American home. She plans in Chicago or some other city along the way to drop in uninvited on a middle-class domicile and hopes that she may be able to make her visit unrecognized.

MAIL CHRISTMAS PRESENTS EARLY

Deadline dates for dispatching
Christmas presents including letters, packages and all mail matter to certain foreign countries to insure delivery by Christmas Day,
are being announced by Postmaster C. S. Frazer as follows:

China, November 25 to 29;
England, December 15; France,
December 15; Germany, December
15; Greece, December 11; India,
November 24; Ireland, December
11; Italy, December 11; Holland,
December 15; Scotland, December
15; South Africa, November 24.

REFUSES COMMENT ON "HANKY" FOUND

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—(By I. N. S.)
Mrs. Paul Rader, wife of the Chicago evangelist, flatly refused today to permit him to explain to newspapermen how it happened his handkerchief got into Kenneth Ormon's trunk along with a collection of feminine wearing apparel said to fit Aimee Semple
McPherson.

Rader arrived today from an evangelistic tour of the East.
Closeted in his home, the evangelist was closely guarded from questioners by Mrs. Rader, who also declined to discuss the handkerchief.

WILL GET CONTROL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The Reading system will be permitted to acquire control by lease of the Lehigh and New England railroad
if the interstate commerce commission adopts recommendations made today by Examiner Burnside. If this lease is approved by the commission, it should be conditioned upon the maintenance of the Lehigh and
New England as an open route.

CHICAGO POLICE IN SEARCH FOR MANIAC WHO ATTACKS GIRLS

Second Attack On Young Girl Doubles Police
Efforts

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—(By I. N. S.)
A maniac killer who has shot two school girls within the last 48 hours, killing one and probably fatally injuring the second, was being hunted by the authorities
here today.

Victoria Delmata, 16, was the first victim. She was shot and instantly killed Wednesday night while returning home from a music lesson. Twenty hours later, Esther Haas, 13, was shot as she walked home from school. Her condition is critical.

Circumstances surrounding both shootings were identical. The same calibre pistol was used in each instance. The fact that both shootings occurred in the same section of the city led investigators to believe that one person committed both crimes.

A former inmate of the Kankakee state insane hospital living in the neighborhood is being sought for questioning. The absence of any motive for the strange attacks suggests the theory that a maniac with a penchant for killing young girls is abroad.

Residents of Chicago Heights,
where both shootings occurred,
are terrified. Many parents have refused to allow their children to leave the house pending solution of the mystery. Others are sending their children to and from school under heavy guard.

Citizens have organized vigilance committees and are assisting police in the search for the slayer.

FIVE BANDITS GET $50,000 AT BANK

LAPORTE, Ind., Nov. 12.—(By
I. N. S.)—Five unmasked bandits, armed with revolvers and sawed-off shotguns, swooped down on the People's Trust and Savings bank here just before noon today, forced ten bank employees and four customers to line up against the wall and scooped up $40,000
in cash and $10,000 in negotiables.
They escaped in a large touring car.

ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT DENIED

ROME, Nov. 12.—The government
today denied absolutely that there were any grounds for reports circulated in the United States yesterday that a new attempt had been made to assassinate Premier Mussolini.

SUED FOR GAS TAX

POWHATAN, O., Nov. 12.—A. L.
Van Dyne is defendant today in a suit for $587.20 gasoline taxes. The state of Ohio alleges Van Dyne failed to pay the two-cents-a-gallon
levy on 29,860 gallons of gasoline.

PERSHING TO ROOT CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—General John J. Pershing will be an en- thusiastic rooter at the Army- Navy football game here Novem- ber 27, according to his own ad- mission today.

He will witness the famous service classic from the box of his good friend, Vice President Charles G. Dawes, another ardent
Army fan.

"Dawes and I will be in there rootin' for old Army, you can bet," smiled the famous "Black Jack."

FAMOUS 'PIG WOMAN' OPERATED UPON; IS DANGEROUSLY SICK

Mrs. Hall's Personal Maid
Testifies At Murder
Trial

COURT HOUSE, Somerville, N.
J., Nov. 12.—Barbara Tough, the chatty Scotswoman who for seven years was Mrs. Frances Stevens
Hall's personal maid, was recalled
to the witness stand when the Hall-Mills murder trial was resumed today.

She had previously told in her drawing manner that Mrs. Hall was out of the Hall home at 10 o'clock on the night four years ago when the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills were slain. The time of the crime has been fixed at 10:20 p. m.

Miss Tough looked directly at Prosecutor Alexander Simpson as he began to shoot questions at her.
Simpson asked her the name of the "guilt girls" who were gossiping about Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills
in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, of New Brunswick.

The defense objected to testimony
regarding gossip.

After a long wrangle, Simpson
withdrew the question, saying:
"I will get the information else where—that's all."

Senator Clarence Case, of defense counsel, then took the witness over for cross-examination.

Watching the proceedings for the first time was "Danny" Mills, 16-year-old son of James Mills, who sat next to his sister Charlotte.

Mrs. Hall sat pale and quiet and garbed in black, in the prisoner's dock. Henry Stevens looked fresher than other days, in a new blue suit. Willie was dressed, as usual, in a gray suit.

Pearl Brahmer, who had been subpoenaed by the defense to appear in court today, was not among the early arrivals. The defense plans, it is said, to use the girl to batter down the state's theory of the crime.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Nov. 12.— Mrs. Jane Gibson underwent a blood-transfusion operation this morning in the Jersey City hospital.

The star witness for the prosecution in the Hall-Mills murder case was placed on an operating table beside Fireman Thomas Kent, from whom the blood was drawn.

Dr. Charles B. Kelley, one of the attending physicians, denied reports that Mrs. Gibson had suffered a re-lapse.

"A blood transfusion was made to correct the condition of moderately severe secondary anemia," he stated.

ARREST 1,200 IN BIG TRAFFIC DRIVE

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 12.—The greatest traffic drive in the history of Cleveland came to temporary halt early today, after more than 1,200 motorists had been handed summonses or jailed for minor traffic infractions and speeding.

Spurred by the high death rate among pedestrians during the year, crowned by an unusually bad record during the past few weeks, city authorities ordered the drive last night. Thirty motorcycle police men worked all night, arresting hundreds.

The drive will continue until Cleveland motor-car owners learn to obey the traffic laws and cease driving recklessly," declared Traffic Commissioner Edward L. Don-chue.

VETERAN AMERICAN STATESMAN CALLED AT DANVILLE HOME

Retired Speaker Of House Passes At Age Of 90.

DANVILLE, Ill., Nov. 12.—
"Uncle Joe" Cannon is dead.
The veteran American statesman, who for forty-six years was a member of the house of representatives, passed away at his home here today at the age of ninety.

Death came quietly, with members of his family by his bed.

With him were his two daughters, Mrs. Ernest Le
Seure and Miss Helen Cannon.

For the past several days
"Uncle Joe" had been failing.
He experienced great difficulty in swallowing and, while his pulse continued comparatively strong, his general condition was such that members of his family were hurriedly summoned by Dr. Charles L.
Wilkinson.

Cannon's death marked the passing of one of America's most brilliant politicians.
While speaker of the house,
Cannon ruled that body with an iron hand. He was known as "Czar Joe" at times, for the manner in which he held the house in order.

REPUBLICANS PLAN COUNTER ATTACK ON DEMOCRATIC SEATS

Hope To Overcome Feared Majority By Similar Methods

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—
An unique defense against the Democratic threat to bar senators-elect William S. Vare, of Pennsylvania, and Frank L.
Smith, of Illinois, from taking their seats in the senate was being considered today by administration leaders.

Fearing the Democrats may gain control of the senate in the seventh congress by disbarring Smith and Vare, on the opening day, administration chiefs are considering a move to mete out
the same treatment to at least two newly-elected Democrats.

If the Democrats carry out their threat and the Republicans are able to retaliate, the latter would still retain control of the new senate by the single-vote margin.

The line-up then would be forty-six Republicans, forty-five Democrats and one Farmer-Laborite.

The Republicans, however, face stiff opposition before they can retaliate. First they must establish contests against several Democratic senators-elect and, second, they must command sufficient votes in the new senate to bar those newcomers until the Smith and Vares cases are disposed of finally.

As the Democrats have control of the "hold-over" senate—which is that portion of the membership not up for re-election this year, plus the short-term senators elec-ed last Tuesday—who take office at once—the Republicans have all the odds against them. The "hold-over" senate lines up with thirty-four Democrats, twenty-nine Republicans and one Farmer-Laborite.

This Democratic majority of "hold-overs" might spell the doom of Smith and Vare. If the two are summoned to take their oaths of office under the "call of the alphabet," as has been their traditional custom for a hundred years, the Democrats will retain a party plurality of three votes when Smith's name is called and a 46-41 plurality when Vare's name is called. As Shipstead (F.L.) favors the exclusion of both men, there appears little likelihood of their being seated unless the Republicans can retaliate.

The Republican outlook will be even more gloomy if Republican insurgents are persuaded to vote with the Democrats in blocking Smith and Vare from being seated. This procedure consists of sending their credentials to the senate elections committee without permitting them to take their oaths of office. Consequently, neither can vote, enter debate or serve on committees until their cases are finally decided and the Democrats now boast of a majority of the senate ready to declare their elections null and void.

Thus, both men may never serve a day in the senate.

To block this action, the Republican defense plan must include some precedent-shattering arrangement by which all uncontested Republican senators-elect —eighteen in number—can be seated before the incoming Democrats are admitted.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 12.—The Queen of Roumania and the "Queen of song" are scheduled in Cincinnati on November 19.

Her majesty, Queen Marie, will be the guest of Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink when the famous contralto makes her farewell appearance here, a week from tonight in Music hall.

CO-EDS MAKE CONSPICUOUS SUCCESS AS "MOTHERS" OF PRACTICE INFANT

ELEANOR CASS, STUDENT, WITH LEWIS INSTITUTE'S "PRACTICE BABY"

Exclusive Dispatch Copyright, 1926
CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—While ten roads at Lake Forest university were backing out of an announced plan to adopt a "practice baby," girl students at Lewis Institute, Chicago, were revealed as the successful foster mothers of two infants.

"George Practice House" was graduated from the institute last autumn at the age of 16 months—a chubby, pink, healthy boy.

This year the institute girls are rearing "Lucille Home Management House," 13 months old, and in every respect, they allow, she is a credit to her foster mothers.

In groups of three, the girls take turns in caring for "Lucille," under the direction of Miss Lemo Den- nis, resident instructor in home economics. Each girl is "mother" to the baby for two weeks at a time, with two deputies to relieve her during class hours. The "mother" washes and bathes the baby and every girl in the institute is required to take the "baby course" before graduating.

The plan is not original with Lewis Institute, but at this school its success has been conspicuous. Various other colleges in which home economics are taught, also use "practice babies" for instruction. The children are either borrowed from their own mothers, or taken from orphanages.

ROSS TOWNSHIP

Mr. Wm. Klotz and wife spent Sunday with their son, Mr. Florence Klotz and family near South Charleston.

Mr. Wm. E. Sheely and Mr. Gordon Barker left November 1 for a motor trip through the South. They expect to be gone until the middle of February.

The four children of Mr. J. J. Sullivan were going to church last Sunday morning when their machine hit a rut in the road and went down a steep embankment at the bridge north of the central- ized school building. The all- escaped injury but Mary, who had her shoulder cap dislocated. The top of the machine was wrecked. This is a bad place. There ought to be a railing built to the top of the hill. There have been five machines gone down this place in the past two years.

Mr. Guy Brock and wife and mother moved to the Straley place north of Gladstone, from South Solon last week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fields, of James- town is spending the week with Mrs. J. H. Ritenour.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowe Scott and little daughter, Janet, of Spring- field, spent Saturday evening with Mrs. Wm. Sheeley and son, George.

Revival services began at Grape Grove last Tuesday evening and will be continued throughout the month.

Rev. M. L. Buckley, of Marion, Ohio, has charge of these services.

Mrs. Albert Dewitt, of South Charleston, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Stitts- worth and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Decker spent Sun- day with relatives at Latham, O.

NEW BURLINGTON

The Dorcas Society, of the M. E. Church met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Harry Nickerson.

Mrs. Stanley Stephens and Har- old spent Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Rachel Miller and family.

Mrs. Jennie M. Reeves returned with her to her home at South Charleston for a week's visit.

Miss Pearl Palmer and Mrs. Em- ma Williams, of Wilmington, spent a few days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mann.

There will be a Christian En- deavor Rally at the Friends Church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Clyde Watson, of Wilmington, will give the address.

Mrs. Howard McClure and chil- dren spent the week-end recently at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harriett Weaver and family near Centerville.

Mr. White and daughters, of Bowersville, moved Wednesday into the Reeves property. Mr.

Reeves is teaching in the school here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson received word Wednesday of the death by drowning of their small grandchild at the home of its parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lane, Orland, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Rob- inson and son, John Robinson left at once for their daughter's home.

Goofer Dust

HELP YOURSELF TO HEALTH

Lagging feet and longing hearts

The third dance . . . and tired, utterly tired . . . sinking into the first chair—there per- haps to spend the rest of the evening. This was not the vivacious girl she had been a few years ago. Then thirty dances would have been her portion. What tragedy was this, that she, so young, should seem so old.

What tragedy indeed is constipation—one of the worst diseases to afflict the human race. It saps strength. It thieves beauty. It poisons. It ages its victims long before their time. But the hopeful part of it is—constipation can be safely and per- manently relieved without the use of habit- forming pills and drugs. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is the answer.

No matter if constipation has become chronic, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN will bring permanent relief. This is why: Bran—ALL-BRAN—goes completely through the system without changing fiber. It is what doctors call a bulk food, a necessary aid to regular elimination.

Eat at least two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN every day—in chronic cases, with every meal. If eaten regularly, it is guaranteed to bring perma- nent relief, or your grocer returns the pur- chase price. Its delightful nutty flavor makes it good as a cereal. Serve with milk or cream alone or with fresh or preserved fruit; with other cereals or cook in hot cereals; use in soups, or in the recipes given on every package.

Don't take chances. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is ALL-BRAN—100% bran. That's why doctors recommend it. Sold by all grocers and served in hotels and restaurants.

Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek, Michigan

Kellogg's
ALL-BRAN

The original ALL-BRAN—ready-to-eat

Most Every Person Likes To Possess One Or

more items of attractive Jewelry. Some prefer Diamonds and other brilliant stones. Others like a good Watch or Ring.

Then too, there are so many occasions during the year—Birthdays, Anniversaries, etc—when Jew- elry is most appreciated as a Gift. It's the "gift that lasts!"

So let us call your attention to these offerings:

- Ladies' and men's Wrist Watches,
- 6 jewel ----- $11.80, up
- Men's Watches, 7 to 21 jewel ---- $15.00 up
- Ladies' and men's Diamond Rings, $15.00 up
- Ingraham Mahogany Mantel Clocks,
- $16.50

We Welcome Charge Accounts

Xenia Mercantile Company

12-14 East Second St.

NEW STORE

NEW STOCK

No waste of time. No loss of materials. No worry. No danger of bakings falling due to jar of oven door when you use Calumet. It's double acting. Contains two leavening units—one begins to work when the dough is mixed, the other waits for the heat of oven, then both units work together. A sure way to bake-day success, bake-day savings and superior results.

CALUMET
THE WORLD'S GREATEST BAKING POWDER

SALES 2 1/2 TIMES THOSE OF ANY OTHER BRAND

KROGER'S

BEEF Choice Tender Beef 19c
CHUCK ROAST, lb
Short Ribs, Lb. 15c. Hamberger, lb. 18c. Salt Rib, Per Lb. 12c

Pork CHOPS 27c Pork ROAST 20c
Neck Cuts, lb. Fresh Calles,

BACON Sugar Cured, 3 Pound Piece 25c
or more, lb.

Jowl Bacon Lb 15c

Bulk Sausage, lb 25c Fresh Bulk Oysters ----- Pt. 35c., Qt. 70c

PURE LEAF LARD, 2lb PAIL 39, 4lb PAIL 75c

SMOKED REGULAR HAMS Sugar Cured 20c
Half or Whole Per Lb.

Oranges Floridas Sweet and Juicy. 40c
Large 200 Size, Dozen
Extra large 176 size doz. 49c.

Apples Rome Beauty 10 35c
Fine Cookers
Box Jonathans
4 Lbs. 25c. lbs

Bananas Firm Yellow 3 lbs 25c
Ripe Fruit

Celery Young Tender 9c Lettuce Ice Berg 25c Stalks 3 for

Onions Yellow 3 lbs 10c
Dry

Cabbage Solid 4 lbs 10c
Heads

Potatoes Round Whites 15 Lb 52c
U. S. No. 1 Peck
Sweet's, 5 lbs. 17c.

Corn Country Club 3 for 39c
Country Gentleman
Can—15c.

Peas Country Club, Small 3 for 50c
Size Early Variety
Sifted 17c Can.

Peaches Country Club Luscious 3 for 69c
Halves or sliced in heavy
Sugar Syrup, Can, 25c.

Pineapple Delmonte Grated or 3 for 55c
Avondale Sliced or Grated, No. 2 can...

Campbell's Beans or 12 cans 97c
Tomato Soup

Oleo Churngold, 32c Eatmore 22c
Per lb. Per lb.

Eggs AVONDALE Wholesome Cold Storage, Dozen 39c

Butter Country Club Two one half pound 49c
pieces in carton, lbz.

Bread Country Club Twin or split top 1 1-2 lb. loaf 9c
Pound loaf 6c. Rye 1 1-2 lb. 9c.

Dates, Golden Hollowi, lb. 12c Country Club, package 15c

Fruit Cakes, 2 lbs. in fancy box, each 85c. 3 lbs. in fancy tin box, $1.35

Rice Blue Rose 2 lb 15c
New Crop

FOR QUICK SALE AT AN ATTRACTIVE PRICE

About 17 1-2 acres, 1 mile north of the Court House on paved highway. Ideal for chicken or truck farm and could be laid out in lots and sold to a good advantage.

Improvements consist of a good modern frame house with furnace, electricity and city water. Gas is within about 100 yards from the premises.

Price is most attractive and property can be sold with one-third down and the balance in payments. For price and terms address

HARRY C. STOWE,
7 East Second St., Dayton, Ohio.

Know Your Cleaner Know His Service Know His Work

AND YOU—KNOW YOUR CLEANING WILL BE DONE CORRECTLY

Phone 1084
VALET PRESS SHOP
C. M. Ervin, Prop.

BIJOU THEATER

TONIGHT

Come and see a good show and help and P. T. A. Benefit.

Reginald Denny

In
"SKINNERS DRESS SUIT"

And FELIX THE CAT COMEDY

SATURDAY

"THE FAMILY UPSTAIRS"

Based on the play by Harry Delf

With Virginia Valli, Allan Simpson

J. Farrell MacDonald

Plenty of comedy in this one

Also Fox News and Felix The Cat

Society-Personal-Clubs

THE NICEST courtesy you can show your guests is to have their visits mentioned on this page. The nicest courtesy you can show your friends is to let them learn of your visits through this page whenever you go away. The Gazette and Republican consider it a courtesy whenever you turn in an item of any kind. PHONE 70.

JINGLE ANNOUNCEMENTS

P. T. A. LUNCHEON
Mrs. Charles Adair, president of Central Parent-Teacher Association and her committee have issued clever little "jingles" to members of the association, reading as follows:
"Put aside the family wash
This Monday next at noon
And with our Central P. T. A.
Find restfulness a boon.
We've managed a most interesting Program to entertain
A splendid talk, a luscious lunch
And in pennies twenty-five."
Reservations for the luncheon, which will be served at one o'clock, confined to members of the society, can be made with Mrs. Charles Adair or Mrs. Adair. The luncheon will be served at the Elks' Club dining room.

SOUTH SIDE W. C. T. U.

Held at Hagler Home
Mrs. M. A. Hagler was hostess and program leader when South Side W. C. T. U., met at her home on E. Market St., Thursday afternoon. Twenty members were received. Mrs. Hagler read a paper on "Sabbath Observance" and other members read articles on the subject.

CARD CLUB MEMBERS

AND HUSBAND GUESTS
Covers for twenty-four guests were laid when Mrs. G. W. Kuhn entertained members of her card club and their husbands, at her home on N. King St., Thursday evening.

A delectable dinner was served at 6 o'clock followed by cards. Mrs. Elwood Dunkel received high score prize and Mrs. F. L. Johnson, Mrs. Fred Fisher and Mrs. J. R. Stout also received prizes. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Pendry were guests of the evening.

SURPRISE PARTY

GIVEN ON BIRTHDAY
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Polk, Yellow Springs, was the scene of a hilarious party Thursday evening, when twenty-five friends of Mr. Polk surprised him in celebration of his birthday.

Games and contests were enjoyed, the most amusing being a "treasure hunt" when the guests were paired. Old clothing found at the end of the search was worn by the guests to supper causing much merriment. A delicious buffet luncheon was served. The guests of the evening presented Mr. Polk, hose, tie and flowers.

Mrs. Frank Antram, Dayton, has been spending the week with Mrs. C. S. McDaniel, near Xenia.

Lawrence Gill, six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gill, Bellbrook Pike, underwent an operation for appendicitis, at McClellan Hospital Wednesday. He is recovering as well as could be expected.

McGervy Bible Class, Trinity M. E. Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Howard Lighthiser, 527 S. Monroe St., Monday, November 15 at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Devoe, near Port William, are the parents of an eight-pound son, born Friday morning.

An eight-pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Francis Devoe, near Paintersville, Friday morning.

Mrs. Ralph Haines, near Paintersville, has been severely ill with septic sore throat.

Mrs. Mary E. Fudge and Mrs. Donald Finlay are spending several days in Spring Valley, the guests of Miss Alice Powers and Miss Flo Keiter.

The Misses Aletta Gorham, Katherine Kellie, Helen and Kathryn Graham will spend the week end in Columbus, the guests of Miss Betty Dent, and attend the State-Michigan game.

Seven year old daughter of Mr. C. W. Riley, Lake St., received cuts and bruises when she was knocked down by a machine, near her home, Friday afternoon. Her injuries were only of a minor nature.

Mrs. William Byers had an artery in her finger severed when the member was caught in a clothes wringer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fudge, N. Galloway St., Thursday.

Jack Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kennedy, S. Detroit St., has been ill several days but is recovering.

Dr. Frank M. Chambliss entertained several friends at his cottage, near Old Town, Thursday evening. An informal social time was enjoyed and refreshments served at a late hour.

Mr. Isadore Hyman, E. Market St., is spending the week end in Columbus, and attending the Ohio State-Michigan game.

Mr. M. W. Anderson, S. Detroit St., who has been severely ill with a complication of ailments, remains unimproved. He continues to suffer intense pain.

The Rev. W. H. Tilford, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, delivered the Armistice Day talk at Cedarville High School, Thursday morning. He spoke on "Armistice Day, Eight Years Ago and After" making a plea for remembrance of the day and expressing a hope for future world peace.

The meeting, under the Greene County Council of Religious Education, which was announced for Mount Zion Church, Sunday, has been changed to Zimmerman Church, it was announced Friday.

Mrs. H. E. Hembling, Emporia, Kan., has been the guest this week of Mrs. W. O. Custis, S. Detroit St. Mrs. Hembling was a delegate to the National Anti-Cigarette Alliance, at Columbus. Mrs. Fannie Fries, Dayton, president of Montgomery County W. C. T. U., has also been a guest at the Custis home.

Mrs. Nora Heathcock, Hivesing St., who has been ill for some time, is in a serious condition.

Miss Lucille Beatty entertained a company of twelve young women at a charmingly appointed dinner at her home on N. Detroit St., Thursday evening. A delicious menu was served and following the dinner palm-reading and various amusing stunts furnished entertainment.

Calendar of Events

(Notices of coming events in social or fraternal circles, lodge meetings, club gatherings, etc., will be published in this column free of charge. Phone notices not more than ten days preceding the event itself.)

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12:
Eagles.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 13:
G. A. R.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 15:
Xenia S. P. O.

D. of P.
Phi Delta Kappa.

B. P. O. E.
D. of V.

Shawnee I. O. O. F.
Delphian Society.

TUESDAY, NOV. 16:
Obedient Council D. of A.

Xenia I. O. O. F.
Rotary.

K. of C.
WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 17:
R. O. U. A. M.

Ivanhoe Lodge, K. of P.
Church Prayer Meetings.

L. O. O. M.
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 18:
Red Men.

P. of X. D. of A.
Rebekahs.

CAST WORKING HARD FOR 'BANDBOX REVUE'

Cast of "The Bandbox Revue" is not letting any time be wasted in rehearsing to insure success of the production at City Hall Theater Tuesday and Wednesday nights of next week.

Under the direction of Bob Owens, author of the piece, co-directing with Elwood Smith, choruses and other participants in the show are working hard to make the production the best ever seen in Xenia.

The latest song hits, dances and novelty sketches have been chosen for the event and the picked talent is using its best efforts to satisfy the large two-night audience. Several "treats" are in store for the "Bandbox" patrons and tickets are selling rapidly. Reserves will be open at Sohn's Drug Store, Friday evening at 6 o'clock.

RELEASE SUSPECT IN ATTACK CASE

JEFFERSONVILLE, O., Nov. 12.—The man held for investigation in connection with the alleged criminal assault case last Friday night, in which Mrs. William Porter was the victim, was given his freedom by Sheriff Ramsay, Monday evening, after various phases of the situation had been investigated by the Sheriff and Prosecutor R. M. Madox.

The man, it was announced, was able to produce friends in Columbus who told Sheriff Ramsay that the man who had been held temporarily while investigation was made, was at their home until around nine to nine thirty o'clock, eastern time, the night of the assault.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.
Morning worship, 10:30 a. m.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. W. H. O'Neal will preach. His theme will be "Our Religious Influence."

There will be no evening service this week.

Colds

The $1,000,000 way

There's a way to end colds so quick, efficient and complete that we paid $1,000,000 for it. That way is HILL'S. It stops colds in twenty-four hours, checks fever, opens the bowels, tones the entire system. The millions who know it always rely on it. Go start it now.

HILL'S Cacao-Bromide-Quinine
Be sure you get HILL'S, in the red box with portrait. At all druggists—30c.

NOTICE

In pursuance of an order of the Probate Court of Greene County, Ohio, the undersigned, assignee for the benefit of creditors of Jacob Colp, will on the 19th day of November, 1926, at his office at Room No. 2, Allen Building, Xenia, Ohio, pay upon the valid claims presented against said assignor a dividend of 12 1/2 per cent.

Dated 12th day of November 1926.

J. A. FINNEY, Assignee.

(Nov. 12)

PIQUA WILL DECIDE ON NEW GOVERNMENT

PIQUA, Nov. 12.—An election November 23 will give Piqua citizens the chance to decide whether they wish to investigate the commission-manager form of government and find out just what it will do for the city.

The special election has nothing to do with naming a city manager or changing at once the present form of government. It is one of three steps laid down by the amendment to the state constitution for municipalities desiring better government.

TOLEDO CLUBBER IS BLAMED FOR ATTACK

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 12.—The Toledo clubber is being sought by a posse today, after having attacked and seriously injured a school girl.

The brute, believed responsible for the death of six women and criminal attacks upon at least a half score others, jumped from a clump of bushes, Woodville, near here, late yesterday afternoon and clubbed Miss Lucille Hummel, 16, into unconsciousness.

EAST HIGH NOTES

The faculty and student body of East High School assembled at 8 o'clock, Thursday morning in observance of Armistice Day.

Led by Miss Helen Ferguson, the student body sang "America," after which the salute to the flag was given. Miss Eleanor Gaines read a passage of scripture and led the Lord's Prayer. The student body sang the hymn, "Every time I feel the Spirit," after which Principal Arthur Taylor presented the speaker of the occasion, Mr. E. T. Banks, of Dayton, Ohio.

During the World War, Mr. Banks was an active participant in the front warfare, being known over there as the "Lighting Secretary of the Y. M. C. A."

In his talk to the student body, Mr. Banks recounted some of the war scenes, painting in vivid pictures of the war torn battle front, the booming of the great German guns, the bursting of the death laden shrapnel, the efficient way in which a row of soldiers with fixed bayonets moved repel a cavalry charge, throwing men and horses over their shoulders by means of the bayonet as levers.

Mr. Banks added reality to his talk by the use of a large map locating the prominent war section, the city of Metz, the districts of the Argonne, St. Mihiel and others. A varied assortment of trophies were also shown, including a German boy-soldier's helmet, rifle and cartridge belt. A Bavarian officer's helmet was also shown, along with a hand grenade and a "75 mm." shell.

The talk was highly interesting from start to finish and was highly appreciated by the audience. At eleven o'clock, the entire school body ceased operation and remained silent for two minutes in mute recognition of the heroes dead and alive, of the World War.

RHEUMATISM, NEURITIS, PAIN

"Heet" Relieves Instantly

With applicator attached to cork, just brush "Heet" over the pain area, whether in knees, feet, legs, hands, shoulders, back, neck or body. Instantly you feel this harmless, glorious, penetrating heat draw the pain, soreness and stiffness right out of the aching or swollen joint, muscle or nerve. Besides, "Heet" scatters the congestion and establishes a cure.

"Heet" contains two soothing, penetrating ingredients, too expensive to use in ordinary liniments or analgesics. "Heet" is a clean, pleasant liquid; doesn't stain, blister or irritate the skin and costs only sixty cents at any drug store.

—Adv.

Swift sure death to rats only

K-R-O kills rats only, kills them quickly, and safely. In severe tests poultry, dogs, cats and other domestic animals were fed heavy doses, without injury. Made from squill bulbs as advised by U. S. Government chemists. A 10% mixture does the work. Many local farmers and merchants have used it. All are surprised at quick results. Not a poison. Money back guarantee. Sold in 2-oz. tins; 75c at your druggist's. K-R-O Company, Springfield, Ohio

K-R-O KILLS-RATS-ONLY

—Adv.

CLIFTON

Mr. and Mrs. George Iliff and daughters, have moved to Yellow Springs, where they are employed at Antioch College.

Miss Emma Blair, of Georgetown, Ohio, called on old friends here last Sunday. She made the trip by motor. She and her mother resided here when she was a teacher in the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Huff have moved into the Iliff property from Clyde Clark's house.

Mr. Bert Hopping has purchased the Shafer home on North St. The Shafer family will move to Springfield.

Mrs. Pearl McCann entertained the ladies of the Presbyterian 1st Auxiliary at noon dinner last Wednesday.

Misses Bertha Knott, Olive Co and Prof. Eckman attended the Teachers' Meeting at Columbus last week.

Mrs. Walter B. Corry and his mother, Mrs. H. R. Corry motored to Cincinnati last Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Broomall has had her house wired for electric lights.

Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Spahr, of Xenia, were guests of Miss Florence White last Thursday.

—Adv.

EAST END NEWS

MRS. JAMES HARRIS
Correspondent

TEL. 91-R

Mrs. Laura Koss, Orchard St., is very ill at her home, suffering with the quinsy.

Mrs. Belle Tibbs, E. Main St., received word Monday from the Rev. C. M. Smith, her son, who is pastoring in Sandusky, O., that he was suffering from appendicitis, but his physician thought that he might not have to undergo an operation.

Miss Amanda Porter, E. Main St., who has been suffering from a bad leg sprained ankle, was able to resume her studies Thursday at Wilberforce University.

Victoria Ware entertained the Blackbird Social Club, with a four-course six o'clock dinner Thursday evening.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. A. L. Dooley, Pastor

George Gaines, Supt.

9:30 a. m., Sabbath School.

10:30 a. m., preaching, "Stripping For The Race."

7:00 p. m., subject: "The City of God." B. Y. P. U., 6 p. m.

Mrs. A. C. Hawkins, president.

Program Group No. 2. Leader, Mr. William Johnson.

Program for B. Y. P. U. "In-door Track Meet" Zion Baptist Church, Sunday evening, November 14, 1926 at 6 o'clock. "Recreations For Youth." First Corinthians, 9:24-27. Opening hymn by B. Y. P. U. Prayer, appointment of judges, reading the Rule Book, hymn elimination contest, scripture relay race, vocal high jump, pole vault (high standards), tree-for-all race, hurdle race, three-legged race, appearance of "Wreck-Creation and Re-Creation," announcement of judges, roll call and collection, closing prayer.

—Adv.

CUT FLOWERS

Chrysanthemums

Yellow, Pink and White

Floral work and baskets.

Deliveries made.

R. O. Douglas

Phone 549-W.

Cor. Washington & Monroe

Tales Off The Reel

VOL. 1. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1926. NO. 6

How would you divide 999 eggs among 1000 soldiers? The answer is easy—shoot one soldier.

Don't forget our suggestion to delay your purchase of Oyster Shells. It will pay you well when we receive our car.

Have you any good dryweather for sale? The price is fairly good now. Let us quote you. We also are in the market for clover, mixed, alfalfa and timothy hay. If you have any straw it will pay you to call us.

We are unloading another car of Pioneer Island Creek Coal. It is full of heat and empty of clinkers.

Among the early tragedies of life is to take up all the leaves in the neighborhood for an evening bonfire, and then have some other kids come along during the supper hour and set 'em a fire.

"Bill" Dudley of Cottage Grove Ave. says our Miller's Creek Coal simply can't be beat.

Faris Porter, James Campbell, Dave Brown, Art Starling, Mary Alexander, Sandy Ewing, Al Wheeler, Charles Lawson, Sarah Jamison, Henry Gales, Gus Ronn, Carrie Curl, Mrs. Chas. Peacock, Georgia Tucker, Wm. Thomas, Albert Thomas, George Jamison are a few East End residents who are satisfied users of our coals! Ask any of them how they like them.

—Adv.

ELECTRO-VAPORIZED MINERAL FUME BATHS RELIEVE

Asthma

Bright's Disease

Diabetes

Catarrahs

High Blood Pressure

Nervousness

Neuritis

Pimples

Rheumatism

And is especially successful in promoting the health and beauty of the skin. Call for appointments.

MRS. JULIA WHITTINGTON

Phone 430 W.

VOICES OF THE PAST

By JOSEPH BENNETT

Voices of the past are calling.—

Calling me;

Shadows forms are beckoning

Silently.

Some are living, some are dead

Sleeping in their lowly bed,

Willows weeping overhead

Mournfully.

Memories are rushing on me,—

Crowding fast,

Scenes of yore sweet faces bringing

From the past;

Memories of by-gone days—

Hearts so light and youth so gay,

Scenes so dear to me always

Could not last.

But they hang on memory's walls,

Living still—

Pictures I can not erase,

If I will,

I would not blot out the scenes

Of those radiant childish dreams,

Ere life changed to what it seems—

Fancy's thrill.

In the firelight's glow they linger,

Dusk of eve;

As I sit with silent memory

On her knees,

Bringing thoughts of other days,

Stirring up a song of praise—

Would they could have stayed always

Such as these.

CARRIERS WILL GET ONLY HALF HOLIDAY

Because Christmas Day this year falls on Saturday when the volume of mail matter is at its peak, employees of the Xenia Post-office must forego their annual full holiday, Postmaster C. S. Frazer reveals.

City carriers will make one delivery in the morning but no rural deliveries will be made. Substitute carriers will make morning and evening collections as usual.

The entire force of clerks must work Saturday until 12 o'clock noon, but the afternoon is their own.

When Christmas comes on any other week day except Saturday it is the new policy of the postal department to grant employees a full day of liberty.

TRAIN MAKES TIME

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 12.—Running fifteen minutes ahead of schedule, the president's train passed through here today on the return trip to Washington.

SUES RAILROAD

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 12.—Mrs. Emma Butcher, of Marion, today filed suit in federal court here for $50,000 damages against the Hocking Valley Railroad Company in connection with the death of her husband, James Butcher.

The suit alleges that Butcher, a track walker for the company, was run down and killed December 11, 1925, at Morral, Ohio.

ARMISTICE DAY IS PROGRAM SUBJECT

Xenians took part in and attended the Armistice Day program, staged by the Memorial Society at Spring Valley, Thursday night. About twenty Xenians attended the program, held in the Town Hall.

Featuring the program was an amateur play, "For the Sake of Liberty," presented by the following cast: W. E. Crites, "Charles Gray," Mrs. J. R. McCorkle, "Mrs. Gray," Professor Drewess, "Charles Gray," Miss Helen Kyne, "Nellie Gray," Ernest Reeves, "Howard Chase," William Scarff, "Gene Fisher," Mrs. Max Barnard, "Ruth Sherrod," Mrs. Carl Copey, "The Spirit of Democracy," Miss Louise Fixx, "The Spirit of Liberty," and Miss Helen Pennewit, as "The Spirit of Peace."

Several musical numbers, recitations and dialogues, were given by Spring Valley school pupils. Miss Hazel Gallagher, this city, gave a violin solo, accompanied by Miss Ruth Gallagher, Katherine Hibbert, and Katherine Mangum, this city, gave a piano duet and Miss Mildred Mason gave a group of readings. Guido Pesavento gave a violin solo.

SUGGESTS HI-Y CLUB AT CENTRAL

W. G. Coxhead, Columbus, representative of the State Association of the Y. M. C. A., conferred with Principal Spencer Shank, of Central High School Thursday, regarding the possibility of establishing a Hi-Y Club here.

Principal Shank announces that while the suggestion will be given consideration by school officials, it is uncertain at this time whether the club will be founded.

The Columbus representative also extended an invitation to students of upper classes to attend the twenty-third annual Older Boys' Conference at Y. M. C. A. headquarters in Lima, November 26-27, 28.

Purpose of the conference is to bring together a selected group of older boys who are seeking leadership training.

RILEY HAMMER IS CALLED BY DEATH

Riley Hammer, 80, died at his home in Yellow Springs, Friday morning at 11:30 o'clock. He had been bedfast two weeks and had been in failing health a

EAST HIGH DEFEATS BEAVERCREEK HIGH GRIDMEN THURSDAY

Administer Second Drubbing To Rural School In Xenia

Exhibiting unexpected strength in the second half after the first two periods had passed scoreless, East High School gridriders defeated Beaver Creek High for the second time this season 19 to 0 at Cox Memorial Athletic Field Thursday afternoon.

First two scores coming in the third periods were from similar causes, a Beaver back fumbling punts within his ten-yard line. On the first occasion Hamilton bucked the ball across and soon after Buffalo duplicated and then drop-kicked for the extra point.

In the fourth period a forty-yard end run by Thomas took the ball to the six-yard line from where Hamilton went across for the final touchdown.

Beaver played its opponents to a standstill in the first half but loose handling of the ball contributed to the second half rout.

East revealed a galaxy of backfield stars in Thomas and Buford at the halves, Smith at fullback and Hamilton at quarter. This quartet gained ground consistently.

East had won from Beaver 7 to 0 earlier in the season. The local school is considering an offer to meet the O. S. and S. O. Home eleven Saturday afternoon.

Score by periods:
East 9 0 13 6-19
Beaver 0 0 0 0-0

BIG CROWDS ATTEND SERVICES; SPRING VALLEY NEWS NOTES

Good crowds are attending the meetings at the Friends' church conducted by Harry L. Leasure.

Deep and strong sermons are being delivered. Those not able to attend are missing a great deal.

The Methodist Quarterly conference of this circuit will be held in the Methodist church next Sunday evening, Dr. Swank will preach.

Regret has been expressed that this meeting comes at the time of the meeting at Friends' church, but thirty years ago through lack of knowledge of times arranged for, revival meetings were held at both churches at the same time with good attendance, both places.

There are enough people in and near the village to fill both churches at one time. Let us rally and do what the older generation did, fill both churches. We can do it if we try.

Mrs. Ellis Smith who was so ill last week, is recovering slowly.

The teachers of this township attend the teachers' meeting in Columbus this week-end.

Mrs. Mary Copey, Mrs. William Copey and Mrs. Arch Copey attended the funeral of a relative at Midpoint the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cline of Dayton were calling on friends here Sunday afternoon.

An Armistice Day program was planned for Thursday night. Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Young entertained at dinner Thursday evening. Rev. and Mrs. H. O. Collins and Mrs. Oren Collins.

Mrs. Emma Bayless of West Union is spending a few weeks with Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Young.

FOOTBALL AND AUTO POLO WILL PROVIDE THRILLS FOR FANS

Refusing to allow themselves to become resigned to repeated defeats, Tilton's "Thirty-threes" are grimly determined to atone for a long string of reverses this season by turning a victory over the Kessler-Hollen football team, of Dayton, Sunday afternoon at Ringar's Cincinnati Ave. Park.

From the time play is called at 2 o'clock it will be determined eleven men in the game fighting every minute instead of the rather listless performers of heretofore—eleven men with but a single thought—a victory.

The eleven showed some signs of shaking off its lethargy last week and if preparation counts for anything the locals should be victorious for nothing is being neglected in practice sessions.

The visiting team, if anything, has a more imposing reputation and record than the Dayton Shamrocks and the "Thirty-threes" have their work cut out for them.

A novelty feature will be introduced during the Sunday contest that is expected to be an attraction. Between halves a game of auto polo will be played for diversion of fans. This sport, as far as is known, is foreign to Xenia, and is expected to prove interesting.

For Colds, Grip or Influenza and as a Preventive, take Laxative BROMO QUININE Tablets. A Safe and Proven Remedy. The box bears the signature of E. W. Grove. 30c. —Adv.

No Hunting

On premises of
Members of Spring Valley
Protective Association
Without a written permit.

ASHLAND STAGES TRACK MEET AT EXPENSE OF ANTIOCH ELEVEN

Ashland College staged a track meet at the expense of Antioch College's Division B. football team at Ashland Friday, swamping Coach Kennedy's charges under an avalanche of forward passes to finally win 54 to 0.

With the exception of the forward pass style of play to which Antioch presented a pitifully weak defense, the rival eleven were more evenly matched than the score would indicate.

Antioch held its own at straight football tactics even gaining more yardage than its opponents. The invaders rushed the ball to the one-foot line at one stage of the proceedings only to lose the ball.

It was the aerial game that turned the contest into a rout. Ashland backs hurled the pigskin into the waiting arms of ends with incredible accuracy and all scores were directly due to passes.

The Ashland game brought to a close Antioch's 1926 football season. The college celebrated its return to the fall sport after three years by winning one game losing one and tying one. Division A played a scoreless tie with Cedarville, the Division B eleven nosed out Cedarville 7 to 6 and then was buried by Ashland Friday.

The showing of the two divisions on the whole is considered good.

BOWLING

Greene County Lumber Co. bowlers succeeded in taking two out of three games from McCurran Bros. in an interesting Xenia Bowling League match Thursday night. Peterson with a series of 594, and Arch Jeffries with a three game total of 582, were high for their respective teams. Box score: Greene County Lumber Co.,

Swindler	187	153	176
Brickley	191	148	149
Peterson	163	236	195
Sachs	201	139	151
Murphy	181	193	155
Totals	923	869	826

McCurran Bros.	201	183	198
Jeffries	145	132	136
St. John	124	169	154
Jordan	196	184	145
L. Regan	170	243	135
Totals	836	911	765

ZIMMERMAN

The hospitable home of Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Treharne was the scene of a merry week-end house party when Miss Louise Treharne entertained four girl friends from Denison university, and her brother Thomas Treharne was host to six college boy friends, all of whom came o Dayton to attend the Denison-Miami football game, returning to Denison Sunday.

Mrs. F. E. Johnson is visiting her sister in Maryland.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Belt and her son, Leroy, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bailey and attended services at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rosell are now at home in the Melzer-Havestick property which they recently purchased.

Mrs. C. C. Stevenson and Mrs. Louise Whiting of Yellow Springs called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Havestick Sunday afternoon.

Miss Mary Havestick visited Miss Mildred Hawker and attended the jolly masquerade party at Miss Dorothy Lyon's.

The Community club reports a profit of almost $35.00 on the lunch served at Ralph Shoup's sale.

The Aid Society cleared $32.00 on their lunch at Wm. Huffman's sale.

The annual Communion service was held Saturday night at the church on Xenia pike. Rev. V. O. F. Reeves, pastor of the New Carlisle church of the Brethren officiated, making the service unusually impressive and effective. He was assisted by Rev. J. A. Robinson, of Pleasant Hill, O. The pastor, Rev. Eldemiller remarked that the number of communicants represented the greatest percentage of members of the church present at any communion service during his six years' pastorate here.

A large number of visitors were present. Among them were: Clifford Trubee of Osborn; Mrs. Ed. Marshall, of Dayton; Mr. and Mrs. Amos Rottzong of near Miamisburg; Miss Mary Mirandy, Mrs. Russell Moler, Mrs. Sam McCray, Mrs. Loy, Mrs. Yoder.

Rev. Robinson gave a very interesting talk to the children, followed by a review of the Sunday School lesson by Rev. Elliott Bookwalter, during the Sunday School hour.

A splendid address by the Rev. Robinson completed the service. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wenrick entertained at dinner Sunday Rev. Eldemiller and family, Louis Stewart and family; J. A. R. Couser, Mr. and Mrs. Friend Couser and daughter Paye, and Mary Havestick.

Miss Dot Koogler had as her guests at Sunday dinner at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koogler, the Misses Vinnie, and Orpha Barnhardt of New Carlisle, and three Misses Shroyer, of Dayton.

A District Sunday School conference will be held at the church in Zimmerman Sunday afternoon, Nov. 14 at 2:00 o'clock. All persons interested in Sunday School and church work are urged to be present. The meeting is in charge of the county board.

Mr. George Welmer of Dayton, visited at the home of Mr. H. J. Christopher last week.

Mr. O. F. Reeves and family spent Sunday at Athens with their daughter, Miss Frances, who is a student of the Ohio university.

"The Come Join Us" class of the Church of Christ, held their monthly business and social meeting with Floyd Badgley, on Friday evening. After the routine of business was transacted, games and contests were enjoyed. A refreshment course was served by Mrs. Badgley, assisted by Floyd Raider, Mr. and Mrs. Rader being guests of the class. Twenty-eight were present.

Mrs. O. F. Reeves was in Marion, Ohio, last week attending a three day session of the Home Missionary society of the West Ohio conference of the M. E. Church, which includes eight districts of the Home Society. Mrs. Reeves was a delegate representing the local society.

Miss Margaret Gilcrest, who was in Columbus, on Friday and Saturday attending the Teachers Association, spent Saturday evening and Sunday with her brother, John Gilcrest and family in Newark.

Miss Ruth Smith who is a student at the O. S. U. at Columbus, was home over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Braden Smith.

Mr. Milton Snyder, Milton, Ky., has been visiting with his brother, Mr. Hubert S. Snyder and family. Mr. Snyder will also visit with relatives in Dayton and Columbus.

Jamestown friends of Dr. Fred Williams of Wilmington, have received cards announcing the marriage of his youngest daughter, Miss Winnifred to Mr. Marx Marion, of Tucson, Arizona. The wedding took place on Saturday, October 30th at El Paso,

LEARN OF DEATH

Word was received Friday by Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ledbetter, this city, of the death of their cousin, Mrs. W. H. Williams, who passed away at her home in Tarkenton, Ind., Thursday evening. Funeral services will be held at the home Sunday morning at 10:45 o'clock.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. Clara Hatch of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

Texas, in the First Baptist Church of that city, the pastor, Rev. T. V. Neal officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Mason left at once by motor for Tucson, where they will reside in a home already furnished by the groom. They stopped in New Mexico, enroute. Mrs. Mason spent her early girlhood in Jamestown, Dr. and the late Mrs. Fred Williams moving here from Wilmington, where Dr. Williams engaged in the practice of dentistry, and later removed to Wilmington where Mrs. Williams resided.

Mr. Mason is also an Ohioan, is the son of Mrs. Edith Mason Christy of Oberlin, his birthplace. Mr. and Mrs. Mason will spend next summer in Alaska, where he is interested in large salmon fisheries.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. McDorman, of Xenia, and Mrs. Clara Hatch of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who of Xenia, and Mrs. O. McDorman, of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vanniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the former.

school girl's classes of the M. E. church, will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Althea Little.

Attorney and Mrs. Stanley Paxson and two children were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Paxson.

Mrs. A. G. Carpenter had for her guests on Sunday Dr. and Mr. Harry Penfield, of Dayton, and Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Beal, of Port Williams.

Miss Marjorie Galvin spent the week-end in Dayton with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harcourt.

Mrs. Roy J. Moorman and two sons, Robert and Ralph, spent Sunday and Monday in Cincinnati with Mrs. Moorman's mother, Mrs. Louise Grimes.

DAILY MARKETS

LIVE STOCK

CINCINNATI
Hogs—Receipts, 3,300; hold overs 1,863; market, averages over 110 lbs., 25c lower; light weights, 50c lower; 250-350 lbs., $11.50@12.15; 200-250 lbs., $12@12.15; 150-200 lbs., $11.75@12.15; 120-150 lbs., $11.50@11.75; 90-120 lbs., $9.75@10.75; packing sows, $9.75@10.75.

Cattle—Receipts, 1,550; calves, 500; market, mostly steady; veal, steady; top, $13; beef steers, $6@9; light yearling steers and heifers, $6.25@10.50; heavy calves, $5@9; bulk stock and feeder steers, $6@7.

Sheep—Receipts, 500; market, steady; top fat lambs, $13.75; bulk fat lambs, $11@13.75; bulk cull lambs, $5@7; bulk fat ewes, $3.25@6.

PITTSBURGH
Cattle—Supply, light; market, steady; choice, $9.25@9.75; prime, $8.50@9; good, $8.75@9.25; tidy butchers, $7.50@8; fair, $7.25@7.75; common, $6@7; common to good fat bulls, $5@7.25; common to good fat cows, $3@5.50; heifers, $6.25@7.25; fresh cows and springers, $5@10; veal calves, $15.

Sheep and Lamb—Supply, 1,800; market, lower; good, $7.75; lambs, $14.

Hogs—Receipts, 2,000; market, lower; prime heavy hogs, $12.50@12.60; heavy mixed, $12.50@12.60; mediums

"YES, I SOLD IT," HE REPLIED:
"I USED AN AD IN THE CLASSIFIED."

Classified Advertising Page

THE EVENING GAZETTE, XENIA, OHIO, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1926

"I FOUND JUST WHAT I WANT."
"ED," SAID HE; "A CLASSIFIED
AD BROUGHT IT TO ME."

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RATES

Daily Rate Per Line for Consecutive Insertions:
Cash Charge
Six days $1.00
Three days $1.00
One day $1.00
Advertisements are restricted to proper classification, style and type. The right is reserved by the publishers to edit or reject any advertising.
The Xenia Gazette and Republican maintain a staff of clerks ever ready to perform service and render advice on all kinds of advertising.
Advertisements ordered for irregular insertions will be charged for at the one-time rate. No advertisement will be taken for less than the cost of three lines. Special rates for yearly advertising upon request.
The publishers will be responsible only for one incorrect insertion of any advertisement. Classified ads will be received until 5:00 a. m. for publication the same day.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Card of Thanks.
In Memoriam.
Funeral Announcements.
Notices, Meetings.
Personal.
Lost and Found.

BUSINESS CARDS

Cleaning, Pressing, Laundering.
Dressmaking, Millinery.
Beauty Culture.
Professional Services.
Printing, Stationery, Heating.
Electricians, Wiring.
Building, Contracting.
Painting, Papering.
Refrigerating, Refinishing.
Moving, Packing, Storage.

EMPLOYMENT

Help Wanted—Male.
Help Wanted—Female.
Help Wanted—Male or Female.
Help Wanted—Agents—Salesmen.
Situations Wanted.
Live Stock—Instruction.

LIVE STOCK—POULTRY—PETS

Dogs—Canaries—Pigs.
Horses—Cattle—Hogs.
Miscellaneous.

MISCELLANEOUS

Wanted To Buy.
Miscellaneous for Sale.
Musical Instruments—Radio.
Household Goods.
Wearing Apparel—Shoes.
Miscellaneous.

RENTALS

Where To Eat.
Rooms—Villa Board.
Rooms for Rent—Furnished.
Rooms for Rent—Unfurnished.
Rooms—Furnished.
Vacation and Look Ahead.
Miscellaneous for Rent.
Wanted To Rent.

REAL ESTATE

Houses for Sale.
Lots for Sale.
Real Estate for Exchange.
Business Opportunities.
Wanted—Real Estate.

AUTOMOTIVE

Automobile Insurance.
Auto Laundering, Painting.
Auto Repairs—Mechanics.
Parts—Service—Repairing.
Auto Agencies—Dealers.
Used Cars for Sale.

PUBLIC SALES

Auctioneers.
Auction Sales.

FLORIST, MOVEMENTS

Cut Flowers—Chrysanthemums.
Pink, white, yellow, etc.
C. O. Jones, phone 443W.

LOST AND FOUND

LOST SMALL PURSE—Containing $10.00 and change. Reward if returned to Gazette office.
LOST WHITE COAT—Wrist watch. Reward. Leave at United Oil Company, 1000 N. W. Main St., Xenia, Ohio. Reward $10.00.
LOST TIME—Book on street. Send to Gazette, Xenia, Ohio. Reward.

ROOFING, PLUMBING, HEATING

ROOF DESTROYER—Box 250. A small article which you can cut. Cleans your roof and pipes without taking them down. One dollar—Box 250.

HEATING THE HOUSE—Is a costly proposition

but you can cut the cost considerably by consulting us. We have all kinds of material and appliances to sell you in this. The Rocketing Co., Xenia, Ohio.

ELECTRICIANS, WIRING

STARTER—generator, magneto service—Xenia Storage battery.

REPAIRING, REFINISHING

WINTER—Is just around the corner. Replace that broken glass now. Numerous stock of glass around at Graham's on S. Whitman.

MOVING, PACKING, STORAGE

STORAGE SPACE—For household goods, furniture, machinery, etc. and stock of automobiles. Phone Leona Cramer, 3304 or 140, Xenia.

HELP WANTED—MALE

COIN HUSKERS—C. A. Reed, R. No. 6, Xenia, Ohio, Call 409F.

TRUCK DRIVER—For Ford truck

Lampert Floral Co.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE

PLAIN SEWING—Earn up to $5 daily. For particulars write Leona Cramer, 3304, Xenia, Ohio.

WOMAN—Experience not necessary

No Sunday work. High hotel.

EXPERIENCED—Waitress

Inter-urban restaurant.

HELP WANTED—MALE OR FEMALE

SALESMEN—Or salesladies for Saturday at Engelman's, W. Main St.

HELP WANTED—AGENTS, SALESMEN

WEEKLY MAN OR WOMAN—Wanted with ambition and industry, to distribute Rawleigh's Household Products to steady users. We train and help you so you can make up to $100 a week or more. No selling experience necessary. Pleasant, profitable, dignified work. Write today. W. T. Rawleigh Co., Dept. OH255, Freeport, N. J.

DOGS, CANARIES, PETS

TRAINED RABBIT HOUNDS—R. W. Peterson, R. No. 2, Xenia.

"Not Possible To Classify"

By Mack Sauer

COLUMBUS, OHIO—A few jottings of the day by Samuel Pepps, Jr.—To my grocer, who is lately dead, but his wife do keep up the trade, and left an order for victuals to be delivered anon; and, while there, saw a rough fellow with a mean stare come to buy tobacco, and I frightened that he was a hold-up man, but he was not, so I away, my poor mind at ease.

For a stroll down High Street, and what should I see crossing High Street at Broad but a truck of the Dadds Granite Company from Xenia, with a pole in the back, and going at a high rate of speed, and I fearful that the driver would get pinched for speeding, but he did not. And, lo! what should I hear but someone calling "Prosperity," and before me was Binder, the picture show owner of Xenia, with a badge on his coat lapel, here to a convention of movie owners, I have it, but he saw me not, being too far away and jolly withal.

In the afternoon saw a great racing of policemen, both on horseback and in motors, going by, so took head and away on their tracks to the state prison, where a crowd gathered and much talk of a jail-break, there being gossip of all kinds about. Saw on the prison walk a pool of blood where one convict shot down, and all about were officers with guns in their hands getting into machines and scattering in every direction. Much mirth with a telephone lineman who at work on a pole across from the prison when the shooting took place, and comical it was to hear him tell of how he went to the top of the pole to escape the bullets. Talked with the warden's daughter, who walked about with a gun in her hand, mighty brave and calm. Many picture men at hand to get photos for the press and had hopes of getting my face in the print but fear they missed me.

In the evening to a great hall to hear Edgar A. Guest and in front of me sat a fat woman with much style and dyed hair, and who turned about in her seat and called out to my wife, poor girl, to keep her feet off her clothes from between the seats, while all the time it was me doing it, and to see the same my wife gave her and to hear the hot words, gave promise of a scene in the hall before the public, but they quieted down much to my relief.

So late home on the trolley, and made the windows and doors tight, scared mightily that some of the escaped convicts would try to get in during the night. And so covered the canopy, and late to bed with prayers.

TERRIBLE THING

Every morning and evening
I sit at ease
Riding the street car
Watching the knees.

Here's a classified ad from the Mexican Journal of Commerce and Industry, Mexico City, Mexico—"Respectable woman to bring lunch to nightworking man in bed and read, preach, pray, sing, or speak in tongues while he is eating. Write, stating accomplishments and price. Box 1732."

NATURALLY

When the furnace grate
Fell on old man Hervey,
He yelled, "Hey, Ma,
This grate's on my nerves."

Hope to see about 65,000 of you up here in Columbus at the Ohio-Michigan game Saturday. Hope to see ads from dozens of you on this page. Phone 111.

POULTRY, EGGS, SUPPLIES 25

WE ARE CULLING—And blood testing flocks. If interested call Leona Cramer, 3304 or 140, Xenia. Hatcheries Co., Xenia, O., R. No. 2, Box 141.

CHOICE S. C. RHODE ISLAND—Red cockerels for sale. Aeryl Stormont, phone Cedarville, 2-161.

HORSES, CATTLE, HOGS 26

Stock Hogs
Well bred native stock hogs from the Iowa Grass belt, 50 to 150 lbs. weight, for sale in carload lots.
J. C. Cleveland
Cynthiana, Ky.

TWO GOOD SHORT HORN—Bulls. 1 roan 1 yrs. old; 1 white 8 months old. Albert Ankney, R. No. 10, Xenia, Ohio.

DUIROCK BOARS—Two years old, good individual and good breeder. Lewis Frye, Xenia.

HOLSTEIN CATTLE—One week old. Phone 1001, Harman Eavey.

DELAINE RAM—Good individual. Also Buff Rock roosters. Phone 4014F-3.

SPOTTED POLAND—China gilts. Must be seen to be appreciated. If interested see them at once. Grover King, Xenia, Route 4.

BIG TYPE POLAND CHINA—Boars "wide," "long," easy feeders; also limited number of gilts. J. H. Lackey, The Poland China Man, Jamestown, Ohio.

FOR SALE—4 feeding steers weighing about 700 lbs. Phone 1162W.

ONE BUICK—J. F. Zimmerman, R. No. 6.

MULES—Wagon and harness. $150.00. John Harbaine, Allen Building.

MISCELLANEOUS FOR SALE 28
COIN HUSKER—For sale. Call 4012R-2.

HAY BALE—International, with engine $104.99. John Harbaine, Allen Bldg.

GAS HEATER $6.50—Base burner large size, $10.00. Baby suiky, $4.00. Roy Hull, Phone 1223R.

WHEN BAD WEATHER—Keeps you indoors, relieve the monotony with an Alway-Kent radio. Buchanan and Miller, W. Main St.

2 USED KING—Clement heating stoves. Huston-Bickett Hardware Co.

U. S. CREAM SEPARATOR—In fine condition will sell for $25.00. C. H. Swogger, R. No. 5, Kinsey Road.

CHINA SAWMILL—In good running condition near Xenia. Write J. A. Flea, 524 Five Oaks, Dayton, Ohio.

ELECTRIC VICTROLA LAMP—With records, $50.00 cash. Cost $150.00, good as new. Inquire Otto Jorck, 22 E. Third St.

WE HAVE EVERYTHING—You need in shot, game and gas at real prices. O. W. Everhart, E. Main St., Phone 625.

RHODE ISLAND—Red cockerels. Mrs. Fred Bales, Xenia, R. No. 3, Phone 4022F-12.

STOVES—Of all kinds. Bought and sold. 113 S. Whitman, Phone 337R. L. A. Judy.

STOVES, STOVES—Heating and cook stoves of all kinds. We've got 'em. Mendelhall Used Furniture, N. King St., Phone 735.

GET IT AT DONGES
STOVES—Beds, tables, bureaus, sideboards, chairs, organs, clocks, computing scales, sewing machines, phonographs. Saturday afternoons only. John Harbaine, Allen Building.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS RADIO
PIANOS—Different kinds, small payments. John Harbaine, Allen Building, Telephone.

PARTS, SERVICE, REPAIRING

MAIN GARAGE—for expert auto repairing. We buy and sell used cars. 202 S. V. Main St.

ALCOHOL—Glycerine and lvo for your radiators. Carroll-Binder Co., E. Main St.

USED CARS FOR SALE 44
FORD TOURING—With close-top, top, 25 model. First class condition. 109 N. West St.

BUICK SIX TOURING—in perfect condition. Good tires, Lucas pump. A bargain $125.00. Phone 366W.

LANG'S USED CARS—1925 Ford coupe. 1923 Buick four, new Duco. 1924 Chevrolet Co., Green St.

GOOD USED FORDS—1924 Ford roadster, like new. 1925 Ford touring. 1925 Ford coupe. 1924 Ford roadster. —Bryant Motor Sales, Xenia, O.

JOHNSTON'S USED CAR DEPT.—1 1925 Star touring. 1 1924 Dodge coupe. 1924 Ford touring. —Johnston Motor Sales, 109 W. Main. Phone 1133.

OLDSMOBILE TOURING—A real bargain at a low dollar price. Xenia Paige-Jewett Co., W. Main St.

LEGAL NOTICE
Pursuance to an order of the Probate Court of Greene County, Ohio, made in Case filed in said Court, July 15, 1926, and now pending in said Court, I do hereby offer at public sale at the front door of the Court House in Xenia, Ohio, on November 27, 1926, beginning at 10 a. m., the following described real estate, each tract hereinafter described, situated in County of Greene, State of Ohio, and in incorporate City of Xenia.

TRACT NO. ONE
Being a part of Military Survey No. 2242, facing on Fayette St. in said City, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at an iron stake at the intersection of Fayette Street and the East line of said City; thence N. 70 degrees 45 minutes W. 66 feet to an iron stake; thence S. 10 degrees 15 minutes W. 19 feet to an iron stake; thence N. 70 degrees 45 minutes W. 26 feet to an iron stake in the North line of the said Fayette Street and corner to James Conscience's eleven foot alley strip; thence N. 10 degrees 15 minutes E. 82 feet to an iron stake, corner to said Conscience in the west line of Walnut St. 9 degrees 15 minutes W. 70 feet to the place of beginning, containing fifteen hundred and thirty square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. TWO
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S. 83 degrees 15 minutes W. 140 feet to the place of beginning, containing 14,000 square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. THREE
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S. 83 degrees 15 minutes W. 140 feet to the place of beginning, containing 14,000 square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. FOUR
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S. 83 degrees 15 minutes W. 140 feet to the place of beginning, containing 14,000 square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. FIVE
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S. 83 degrees 15 minutes W. 140 feet to the place of beginning, containing 14,000 square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. SIX
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S. 83 degrees 15 minutes W. 140 feet to the place of beginning, containing 14,000 square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. SEVEN
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S. 83 degrees 15 minutes W. 140 feet to the place of beginning, containing 14,000 square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. EIGHT
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S. 83 degrees 15 minutes W. 140 feet to the place of beginning, containing 14,000 square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. NINE
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S. 83 degrees 15 minutes W. 140 feet to the place of beginning, containing 14,000 square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. TEN
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S. 83 degrees 15 minutes W. 140 feet to the place of beginning, containing 14,000 square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. ELEVEN
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S. 83 degrees 15 minutes W. 140 feet to the place of beginning, containing 14,000 square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. TWELVE
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S. 83 degrees 15 minutes W. 140 feet to the place of beginning, containing 14,000 square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. THIRTEEN
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S. 83 degrees 15 minutes W. 140 feet to the place of beginning, containing 14,000 square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. FOURTEEN
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S. 83 degrees 15 minutes W. 140 feet to the place of beginning, containing 14,000 square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. FIFTEEN
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S. 83 degrees 15 minutes W. 140 feet to the place of beginning, containing 14,000 square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. SIXTEEN
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S. 83 degrees 15 minutes W. 140 feet to the place of beginning, containing 14,000 square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. SEVENTEEN
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S. 83 degrees 15 minutes W. 140 feet to the place of beginning, containing 14,000 square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. EIGHTEEN
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S. 83 degrees 15 minutes W. 140 feet to the place of beginning, containing 14,000 square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. NINETEEN
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S. 83 degrees 15 minutes W. 140 feet to the place of beginning, containing 14,000 square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. TWENTY
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S. 83 degrees 15 minutes W. 140 feet to the place of beginning, containing 14,000 square feet, being a part of the same premises conveyed to James Conscience by deed dated October 7, 1924, recorded in Vol. 53, page 27, Greene County Deed Records. There is also conveyed hereto a right of way through the eleven foot alley above referred to extending from the South end to the North end. The said tract has been appraised at $1,700.00.

TRACT NO. TWENTY-ONE
Situate in the City, County and State aforesaid, and on the west side of N. Galloway Street, being a part of Military Survey, No. 3095, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point at the intersection of West line of Galloway Street and the South line of Ankeney Mill Road; thence with the line of Galloway Street S. 6 degrees 45 minutes E. 312 feet; thence S.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Copyright 1925
Keyes Religious News Service

Sunday School Lessons

By Franklin Parker
CALEB'S FAITHFULNESS
REWARDED

TIME: B. C. 1444.

PLACE: Gilgal, Israel's first place of camping in Canaan.

PERSONS: Caleb, Caleb's

friends, and Joshua.

GOLDEN TEXT: I wholly followed Jehovah my God.

PRINTED TEXT: Joshua 14:-

6-15.

INTRODUCTION: Israel won

at Jericho but she sinned and lost at Ai. We must keep close to God

if we expect to win continuously.

The covenant was renewed between God and the Israelites at Ebal. They proceeded on their way of victories, at Gibeon Bethorau, and Merom. The nine and a half tribes gathered at Gilgal,

after six years of victorious conquest, for a distribution of the land, since the remaining two and one half tribes had settled on the east side of the Jordan river.

CALEB'S STORY: Here the first individual ownership of land was instituted, since the land was lotted to the people instead of being nationalized and held in common. Caleb requested that they hear his story before the land was lotted by calling attention to the time, forty years ago, when he,

Joshua, with ten faithful spies and himself had gone into that same land to spy it out for God and their people. He had Joshua as a witness that he had wholly followed the Lord, and his ideas, directed and strengthened by God, they had won over these same enemies.

MOSES' PROMISE: "Surely the land whereon thy foot treadeth shall be an inheritance to thee." Moses had promised and so the words of many good men, now come, come back to us fulfilled.

Here was a sure print title to land, which was a sure and solid title.

Christian life must be obtained by the foot print title method, "One thing I know, that whereas I was blind, now I see." John 9:25.

CALEB AT AGE-86: Joshua lived thus forty-five years since the promise but he had faith, and the faithless had died in the wilderness but the Lord had kept him alive, strong and full of faith,

now at the age of eighty-five.

Lust and sin age men before their time. Few things warm the world as a sunny, cheery old age.

The hoary head is a crown of glory if found in the way of righteousness.

CALEB'S CHOICE: Down in the Jordan valley were fat lands, veritable gardens all abloom with olive trees and vineyards, and fields waving with golden grain.

He had a perfect right to take a choice piece of land here but did he? He chose the mountain or hill country around Hebron where only hard labor would produce a living. The choice was a challenge to its owner to perform a great task and would not cause him to be undermined in health

by sitting by and taking it easy.

All of us need a great objective to which to work, and the mountain of God is the greatest objective we can have. The hill country meant difficulty. White collar positions are often treacherous. Roosevelt was threatened with that kind of a life so he took to the West and came back to sit in a president's chair. Let our young men not be afraid of hard places but rather choose them and tackle them, and while they are conquering the mountain, the mountain will conquer their ill-health and mental flabbiness and turn them into strong self reliant men. His choice was good for others also.

His choice was the very best college to which he could hope to send his children, to produce men of strong character. He turned the story ground into olive orchards and wheat fields. Let us choose mountains of difficulty that will be turned into fields of blessing for others. God's mountain will far excel our expectations and this mountain is His kingdom.

CALEB'S BLESSING: "And

Joshua blessed him and gave him

Hebron for an inheritance." On the day forty-five years before when this same Caleb and Joshua made the minority report on what they found in this same land and the other ten spies succeeded in instilling fear into the minds of the Israelites they almost came to stoning him to death. But his day has come. Time rights some wrongs. This was Caleb's day and the other ten spies were buried in the wilderness with all the rest of the faithless. His faith and splendid deeds are heralded before the world to this day. Beware of the man who forges the future,

his day is coming. The Christian is working on that which reaches into the future and lays hold on eternity. Eddies do not turn the river back. Present trials are only stepping stones to triumphs.

The devil may have the believer's past but the future is in Christ's care, with God. The Christian may be resisted and criticized now, but his day is coming and then, when others are shut out through unbelief, he shall hear,

"Come, ye, blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. And that Christian shall enter into the gates of the holy city.

GO YE ALL TO CHURCH AND

WORSHIP IN QUIET AND REVER-

ENCE THE ONE AND ONLY

GOD WHO HAS PERMITTED

HIS ONLY BEGOTTEN SON TO

SUFFER THE AGONY OF THE

CROSS. AND THAT SAME GOD

WHO HAS PERMITTED YOU

AND TO LIVE FROM DAY TO DAY ENJOYING THE MANY

BLESSINGS OF NATURE AND

THOSE THINGS MATERIAL

THAT GO TO BLESS US. TAKE

UP CHURCH IS HOW TO KEEP

HAPPY.

A. J. Gordon met an old man one day going to the place of worship.

"Aged friend," he said, "why should you old a man be so happy and cheerful?" "All are not,"

said he, "Well, then, why should you be so happy?" "Because I belong to the church." "Are none others happy at your time of life?"

"No, not one, my friendly questioner," said he, and his form straightened into that of his former days, and his countenance glowed. "Listen, please, to the truth, from one who knows, and then investigate, and then you will find that no man three score and ten years shall be found to gain say if the devil has no happy

old men." A. C. Morrow.

COMPLETE FAITH

Caleb means all heart. Break a piece of red glass painted 400 years ago and the middle will be found to be as red as the outside;

the color is not only on but in it and through it. Now, A. D.

1660, all art can perform is to fix the red on one side of the glass, and that so faint that it often fades off in a few years.

No doubt a greater mystery is lost in our age, viz: the transmitting of pity entirely through a clean heart that a man may be alike inside as well as outside. Heart perfect: oh—the finest of wares.

All his days: oh—the largest of measures.—Fuller.

EMERSON

Great men are more distinguished by range and extent, than by originality. If we require the originality, which consists in weaving, like a spider, their web from their own bowels; in finding clay, in making bricks, and building the house, no great are original. The greatest genius is the most indebted man.

"The very stone which the builders despised, has now itself become a corner stone. This corner has come from the Lord, and is marvelous in our eyes."

Sermonettes:

OFF WITH A SMILE

The good ship sailed away to the West, Away on the summer sea; And it carried away the best that we had, A royal company.

They went to the wild frontiers of life, To the lands of the living dead; They shed no tear, they felt no fear; "We are off with a smile," they said. Bringers of good tidings, these. To them who wait for light; To jungle land and desert sand; They went to break the night. They gave up home and friends and ease. The things we count worth while. But all this loss they counted dress. And sailed away with a smile.—To the Golden State Missionaries by

Baird.

BIBLE STORY CONTINUED

So Moses came into the house of Jethro, and dwell there. By and by the priest wedded him to his daughter Zipporah, and they had a son whom Moses called

"Gershom," which means "a stranger here," because he knew that Midian was only his shelter for a while, and not his home.

Many a year he who had been a prince in Egypt dwelt as a shepherd in Midian. Day by day he led the flocks of Jethro to the pastures in the narrow valleys that run up among the splintered hills of Sinai. All this time his heart was with his brethren in Egypt, and he thought of their misery and their cruel toil. But a greater than he was thinking of them also; and in his own time He showed

His servant that He remembered the promises which He had made to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Moses had brought the flocks of Jethro to a valley, in the range of Horeb, and, as he sat in the sunlight, and dreamed of the sorrows of his kindred, he saw, against the burnt flocks of the mountainside, the flicker of a moving flame. It rose and fell and waved among the branches and leaves of an acacia bush; yet not a leaf or branch was scorched.

Then said Moses, "I will be and see this wonder, why the bush is not burnt." But as he drew near, the voice of God came from the midst of the flaming bush. "Come not near; put off thy sandals, for thou art standing upon holy ground." And Moses knew that Jehovah was in the flame.

He covered his face, for he dared not look upon God; and the Lord's voice spoke again. "I have seen the affliction of my people in Egypt, and their sorrows; and I am come down to deliver them, and to lead them out of Egypt into a good land, a land flowing with milk and honey. Come, now, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh that thou mayst bring forth my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt." (Continued.)

STEVENSON

To be what we are, and to become what we are capable of becoming, is the only end of life.

THE AUTUMN LEAF

Come learn a lesson from the autumn leaf, all dressed in scarlet and gold; Dropping down from a lofty throne, Down to the dirt and mold. See it flying in the sunlight air, So cheerful, playful and brave; Lingerer for a happy moment there, Then dropping, at last, to a grave. Will you learn the lesson child of man? May the leaf your teacher be? The God who fashioned the little leaf, Is the God who cares for thee. Then work and wait through the summer day, Accepting what He may send; Making your life, like the little leaf, Beautiful at the end.

Rev. Dr. G. D. Miller, of Richmond, Ky., arrived in the city yesterday, and now has charge of the campaign. He preached a

SONGBIRD GIVES CHIRPERS ADVICE

JEANNE GORDON
By MARY BLADE

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Don't spurn the church choir or the movie theater, is the advice to young singers given by Jeanne Gordon, prima donna contralto of the Metropolitan Opera. In one short year Miss Gordon, American, covered the ten blocks of Broadway from the Rivoli theater to the Metropolitan Opera.

"The trouble with the student who comes to New York," Miss Gordon says, "is that he wants to start at the Metropolitan Opera house, or Carnegie hall, or some such 'highest' point as a debut. He or she doesn't want small church positions, small club engagements and oh, dear, no, not a move house!

"I consider the moving picture house experience one of the finest back-drops to a successful musical career I know. It has been mine, so I speak first hand from experience. My five years at the Metropolitan Opera house, my tours with the Scotti Opera Company, in fact everything that I have today, is due to my appearances at the Rialto and the Rivoli theaters in New York.

"While singing in the movies I had the opportunity of being heard by concert and operatic managers and also the further opportunity and good luck to sing what I wanted—namely scenes from the grand operas. My engagements came as a direct result of these appearances at the

DEPENDABLE
COAL
ALWAYS
PHONE 63
LEDBETTER

Single Control

THE CROSLEY
FIVE TUBE 5-50
IN SOLID MAHOGANY CABINET
—FOR—$50

This is a five tube radio with its single drum station selector, and installed in a solid mahogany two tone cabinet. It incorporates two stages of non-oscillating radio frequency amplification, regenerative Crescendon controlled detector, and two stages of audio frequency amplification with means provided for use of a power tube in the last stage. All stations found instantly on this one tube control which revolves smoothly under slight pressure. Can be calibrated for wave lengths. Incorporates new shielded compartment metal chassis.

MR. LYON GALLOWAY, well known local radio operator and electrician has the following to say of the new Crosley five tube radio:

"Mr. Vanderpool, the Crosley agent, gave me the opportunity last night to try out the new single control drum five tube radio set which I found to give the very best results, both as to distance and quality, without any whistling noise. The logging is a distinct feature on this drum type set, whereby you can turn night after night to the same station without guess work."

W. Lyon Galloway, 110 W. Main St., Xenia, Ohio.
See These Wonderful Sets And Get My Prices

John Vanderpool
16-18 N. Whiteman St. Xenia, Ohio

THE OLD HOME TOWN Stanley

SILK STOCKINGS EH?—WHEN I BUY STOCKINGS, I BUY EM FROM A CLERK I KNOW, AND NOT IN PUBLIC EITHER — IMPUDENCE!!

HOLD ER NEWT SHES AREARIN

SARAH AINT MISSED AN AGENT IN TWO WEEKS!!

THAT FELLER HAD A COLLEGE TRAININ' OR HED NEVER MADE IT!!

THE SILK STOCKING SALESMAN WHO CALLED AT AUNT SARAH PEABODYS HOUSE TODAY, MADE A REMARKABLE RECORD, HE CLEARED THE SIDE FENCE IN ONE JUMP

© Lee W. Stanley, 1926, Johnson Features, Inc. 11-12-26

THE WINCHESTER STORE

Hunting Supplies

SEASON OPENS NOV. 15

HUNTING COATS, SHELL VESTS, GUN CASES, HUNTING KNIVES, FLASHLIGHTS, HUNTING CAPS, SHELL BELTS, CLEANING RODS, HUNTER'S AXES, VACUUM BOTTLES

Start the Season With a New WINCHESTER

Model 12—A perfectly balanced Hammerless Repeating Shotgun.

Also a full stock of single and double barrel guns.

Ask Us About WINCHESTER OVAL SHELLS

High Velocity Long Ranges.

10-12-16-20-410 Gauge. We stock them in 12-16-20 Gauge.

WINCHESTER Shot Shells

WINCHESTER METAL PREPARATIONS

For cleaning, polishing, lubricating, removing and preventing rust. Add years to the life of your gun.

Babb's Hardware Store
16 S. Detroit St. Phone 53-R

THE WINCHESTER STORE

ETTA KETT

JUST THINK ETTA DEAR WE'RE WAITING FOR OUR MARRIAGE LICENSE HE SAID THE CLERK WOULD MAKE IT OUT FOR US

CAN YOU BEAT THAT? WE'VE BEEN WAITING HERE AN HOUR—THAT DAME STROLLS RIGHT IN AND RIGHT OUT

GO IN AND BAWL 'EM OUT

SAY WHAT'S THE IDEA TELLING US IT TAKES A COUPLE HOURS TO GET A MARRIAGE LICENSE—THAT GIRL THAT JUST CAME OUT DIDN'T HAVE TO WAIT A MINUTE?

SHE DIDN'T GET A MARRIAGE LICENSE SHE GOT A DIVORCE

Dear Ol' Day Well, we got our boxing permit today. I mean our marriage license. I speak about boxing—read to my boy where any one under 16 can't fight. I think that's a good law—people have been getting married entirely too young—E

PORT WILLIAM

Mrs. Luther Bailey was hostess to the Dover W. C. T. U. at her country home west of town one Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Howell spent Thursday in Dayton.

Rev. R. P. Hudnall has announced that Sunday morning at 10:30 his sermon subject will be "Under the Fig Tree."

Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Mason and daughter, Berneda were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Powers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gilliam and family entertained to dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Orville Ellis.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Johnson and family formerly of Wilmington have moved to the Gotherman farm.

Miss Maxine Ruth, of Washington C. H. is visiting with grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Borton.

The Home and School league will meet Thursday evening at the Community House at 7:30

ADAIR'S
One Day Sale of Floor Lamps
Saturday
$1.00 DOWN

Select Your New Lamp First Thing Tomorrow

Lamps were never priced as low as in this sale. You'll say so yourself when you see the wonderful assortment and note the extremely low prices.

Bridge Lamps Silk Shades	Priced $6.50, $1.00 Down.
Bridge Lamps, Glase Shades	Priced $8.75, $1.00 Down.
Floor Lamps, Silk Shades	Priced $8.75, $1.00 Down.
Floor Lamps, Glase Shades	Priced $13.00, $1.00 Down.
Floor Lamps, Silk Shades	Priced $13.00, $1.00 Down.
Floor Lamps, Fringed Silk Shades	Priced $16.75, $1.00 Down.
Bridge Lamp, Marble Base	Priced $17.00, $1.00 Down.
Table Lamp, Vase Base, Silk Shade	Priced $4.95, $1.00 Down.

The above list is only a sample of our large assortment.

Established 1886 ADAIR'S 20-24 North Detroit St

KENNEDY'S

Shoes will bear up bravely under the prolonged scuffing and tramping and constant hard wear. Bring the children to us. We can solve your school shoe problem happily and at a big saving in price.

PETERS "WEATHERBIRD"	Misses' and Children's Brown and Black Calfskin, made with good solid leather soles and rubber heels.	Boys' Brown Calfskin. Good sturdy shoes for boys, made out of Brown Calfskin. French or Round toes, rubber heels, good solid leather soles.
Sizes 9 to 13	$1.98	Sizes 9 to 13	$1.98
Sizes 11 1-2 to 2	$2.48	Sizes 13 1-2 to 5 1-2	$2.48

Keds Boys' Gym Shoes, Brown Trimmings. Sizes 11 to 6, Pair $1.45

LADIES' STRAPS	YOUNG LADIES' OXFORDS
Peters "Diamond Brand"	Peters "Diamond Brand"
Patent or Kid with Fancy Cut out front strap and quarter flexible soles and tap rubber heels. A happy combination of style fit and quality. A regular $4.00 value.	Tan and Black Calfskin. Light flexible sole, low rubber heels. A new Fall Pattern. A regular $4.00 value.
Our Special Price Sizes 2 1-2 to 8	Our Special Price Sizes 2 1-2 to 8
$2.98	$2.98

Men's Work Shoes, Chocolate Glove Outing Bal, made over full easy fitting lasts, for solid comfort and long wear. Sizes 6 to 11.

OUR SPECIAL PRICE
$1.98 a pair

Economy Shoe Store
39 West Main St.

ETTA KETT

JUST THINK ETTA DEAR WE'RE WAITING FOR OUR MARRIAGE LICENSE HE SAID THE CLERK WOULD MAKE IT OUT FOR US

CAN YOU BEAT THAT? WE'VE BEEN WAITING HERE AN HOUR—THAT DAME STROLLS RIGHT IN AND RIGHT OUT

GO IN AND BAWL 'EM OUT

SAY WHAT'S THE IDEA TELLING US IT TAKES A COUPLE HOURS TO GET A MARRIAGE LICENSE—THAT GIRL THAT JUST CAME OUT DIDN'T HAVE TO WAIT A MINUTE?

SHE DIDN'T GET A MARRIAGE LICENSE SHE GOT A DIVORCE

Dear Ol' Day Well, we got our boxing permit today. I mean our marriage license. I speak about boxing—read to my boy where any one under 16 can't fight. I think that's a good law—people have been getting married entirely too young—E

WASHINGTON FACES SERIOUS SITUATION WITH FUNDS SPENT

City Lacks Police And Fire Protection When Three Mill Levy Fails—Some Interpret Vote As Rebuke To Mayor Allen

Was the failure of Washington, O. H. citizens to vote an extra three mill levy at the November election a rebuke to Mayor Rell G. Allen or an effort to keep down taxes?

That is the question Washington is asking itself as its city council, with its back to the wall, is grinding out legislation that will permit the transfer of $2,500 from the general to the safety fund to help provide police and fire protection.

The state law which forbids the city spending money not in the city treasury or in process of collection is back of the present straitened financial condition of Washington but failure of the proposed three mill levy precipitated the financial trouble.

Faced with the necessity of voting an extra levy for operating expenses or suspending municipal functions, Washington went to the polls and voted the issue down. Two explanations of the defeat of the project in the face of what was considered an absolute necessity, have presented themselves.

One explains that defeat of the measure was an expression of the people against what they term "militaristic" policies of Mayor Allen. Allen, a former colonel of infantry in the World war, is chairman of the trustee board of the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans Home here. His enemies say he is "hard-boiled" and that his administration of the judicial powers that go with the mayor's office is not tempered with mercy.

The other maintains that defeat of the levy can be laid at the doors of an element that voted only in the light of keeping down taxes and without heeding the possibilities of subsequent consequences. Many retired farmers who live in Washington are said to have opposed the increase and they are believed to have been partly influenced by rumors that the recent reappraisal has raised the assessed valuation of property $350,000 although the figures have not been officially announced.

Washington has a levy of 19.70 mills on a present valuation of $11,553,700 making for an annual per capita tax of $28.70 a thousand. Improvements voted in past years are now coming home to "roost," it is said, with the result that obligations incurred years ago and not properly financed, must now be met and settled.

In order to meet the situation council introduced the extra levy measure and Mayor Allen told citizens that unless the levy passed, all city operations would cease. When the result showed the levy was defeated, Allen locked up City Hall, moved his office to his private law offices, dropped all police and firemen with the exception of the chiefs of each department and thus began a period of retrenchment.

Mayor Allen blames defeat of the measure partly on the apathy of some people who believed the city would get the money somehow and refused to consider the seriousness of the situation. Business men are quoted as saying that failure of the proposal was a rebuke to the policies of the mayor in administering the judicial powers of his office according to the letter of the law.

They point out that Washington is hailed as a speed trap and that tourists avoid the city to the detriment of business. They allege that Mayor Allen inflicts the maximum penalty in all cases without consideration of extenuating circumstances or evidence in mitigation. Jack Woot, police chief, denying that the mayor has operated a speed trap, admits that he collected $2,500 a month in fines and that this money staved off financial embarrassment for a time.

The customary fine for violation of the dry laws is $500, it is said, and pleas for mercy fall on deaf ears in the mayor's court, it is charged. All the influence one of the state's most powerful newspapers could muster could not save one of its executives a fine of more than $600 for liquor possession some time ago. The fact that Myers Y. Cooper, recent gubernatorial candidate, was a passenger in an automobile said to be speeding did not save the chauffeur being heavily fined.

When money gained by transfer of funds has been exhausted, the only hope for relief is in a special legislative act permitting the levy to be put to a second vote soon, it is said. In the meantime police and firemen are loafing and the light and water companies are philosophically furnishing service for the present. In the belief that the city will pay its bills when it again becomes affluent—if ever.

American Legion members have volunteered to police the city in the emergency and it is expected that police and firemen will also continue their duties insofar as they are able. Washington council faces this problem:

The amount raised by taxation is $61,181.93;
Interest and sinking fund requires $41,953.32.

The balance is $19,228.61 and other obligations which must be met reduce the sum to $8,400 which must provide for police, firemen, water and electric light service.

This city service requires $94,638 a year and the problem is to stretch $8,400 so it will cover the larger sum.

While Washington council is debating this question Xenians recall one other evidence of unusual voting in Washington. The city did not advance its clocks to conform with daylight saving time during the summer months but when autumn arrived moved up on fast time, which is now in effect there.

And Xenia, with its efficiently operated government, its economical administration, its well-equipped and well-manned police and fire departments, its miles of paved streets, its municipally owned water works and sewage disposal plant and its elaborate sewer system and extensive street lighting service in addition to an efficiently operated interest and sinking fund, may be pardoned a smile.

Mystery Boy

Joseph Reilly, fifteen, once employed by Mrs. Jane Gibson, "pig woman" and principal witness in the Hall-Mills case, was a surprise witness for the defense of the three persons on trial for the crime.

CATHEDRAL, IN FILMS, BOMBED THREE TIMES

The Church of Sts. Peter and Paul, its pastor, and damage done by most recent blast.

By J. S. PHILLIPS

Exclusive Dispatch, Copyright 1926 SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—Is a "movie jinx" operating against the beautiful church of Sts. Peter and Paul?

That is the question in the mind of the local Italian colony, following the third dynamiting of the $500,000 edifice within nine months. Construction of the big church came to wide notice, when a huge cast of motion picture actors drafted the church construction as an important part of a huge De Mille movie spectacle, "The Ten Commandments." The work on the church coincided exactly with the progress of the movie story. When artisans were not working on the scaffolding and at the holists, movie actors were simulating their work for the camera.

The motion picture utilized a "trick" shot of the huge towers of the edifice crumbling and collapsing to spread ruin and death. It was this, the superstitious say, that hoodooed the church.

Three times within the last few months, Sts. Peter and Paul church has been the object of a bombing attack. One of these occurred during a Sunday morning mass. Another occurred during a weekday mass. In no case was a worshipper injured, and in every case, the pastor, Father Oreste Trinchiera, continued with his sermon.

Special detectives have been put to work on the case, seeking black hand or other possible motives. A notice of a reward of $1,000 was posted on the ruined door, and the church on two occasions went about repairing the heavy damages caused to the interior and exterior by the early morning blasts.

Now the attacker has struck again. In the latest explosion, the massive doors were blown to splinters—some of these splinters nearly ripping the $1,000 reward placard from the wall. Big slabs of marble and concrete blocks shattered by the explosion, which broke windows, not only in the church but over a wide area.

Father Trinchiera is inclined to scoff any anti-Catholic motive. "It is just some unbalanced person, who watched with interest, the filming of the movie, and then, seeing the collapse of the dummy church building in the picture, has been obsessed with a morbid desire to see such a collapse in reality.

"All of the blasts have been placed in front of the church. This may be taken to indicate a hope that the huge towers would be blown down—as a spectacle to behold—and also that the person meant no harm to the worshippers in the interior of the church. Each blast was followed by a few days some unusually big ceremony in the church.

But movie jinx or not—the repeated bombings have aroused all of San Francisco.

card from the wall. Big slabs of marble and concrete blocks shattered by the explosion, which broke windows, not only in the church but over a wide area.

Father Trinchiera is inclined to scoff any anti-Catholic motive. "It is just some unbalanced person, who watched with interest, the filming of the movie, and then, seeing the collapse of the dummy church building in the picture, has been obsessed with a morbid desire to see such a collapse in reality.

"All of the blasts have been placed in front of the church. This may be taken to indicate a hope that the huge towers would be blown down—as a spectacle to behold—and also that the person meant no harm to the worshippers in the interior of the church. Each blast was followed by a few days some unusually big ceremony in the church.

But movie jinx or not—the repeated bombings have aroused all of San Francisco.

card from the wall. Big slabs of marble and concrete blocks shattered by the explosion, which broke windows, not only in the church but over a wide area.

Father Trinchiera is inclined to scoff any anti-Catholic motive. "It is just some unbalanced person, who watched with interest, the filming of the movie, and then, seeing the collapse of the dummy church building in the picture, has been obsessed with a morbid desire to see such a collapse in reality.

"All of the blasts have been placed in front of the church. This may be taken to indicate a hope that the huge towers would be blown down—as a spectacle to behold—and also that the person meant no harm to the worshippers in the interior of the church. Each blast was followed by a few days some unusually big ceremony in the church.

But movie jinx or not—the repeated bombings have aroused all of San Francisco.

card from the wall. Big slabs of marble and concrete blocks shattered by the explosion, which broke windows, not only in the church but over a wide area.

Father Trinchiera is inclined to scoff any anti-Catholic motive. "It is just some unbalanced person, who watched with interest, the filming of the movie, and then, seeing the collapse of the dummy church building in the picture, has been obsessed with a morbid desire to see such a collapse in reality.

"All of the blasts have been placed in front of the church. This may be taken to indicate a hope that the huge towers would be blown down—as a spectacle to behold—and also that the person meant no harm to the worshippers in the interior of the church. Each blast was followed by a few days some unusually big ceremony in the church.

BELLBROOK

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Pierce and children, who have been visitors in the village for the past four months, left for the canal zone Wednesday.

Dud Holland was a witness in the U. S. court at Dayton last Wednesday.

Rev. G. E. Atkins, who recently sold his farm, will make public sale of his entire stock of farm property on Tuesday, November 16.

Theodore Pepper, of Dayton, was a Bellbrook visitor Saturday and Sunday.

The ladies of the M. E. church will have their regular Thanksgiving market at the town hall on Thanksgiving eve.

The heirs of the late Mary E. Spier will make public sale of her personal property on Saturday afternoon, November 13.

The splendid endorsement given George H. Thorne in his native village, where he received a large majority over all candidates and a good plurality in the two precincts combined for Common Pleas Judge, only goes to show what would have happened had he been known to the voters of the county in general. Both precincts are strongly Republican.

Clifford Maxwell, who for several weeks had been unable to walk on account of an infection of the leg, was able to be down town this week.

Lawrence Anthony, of Springfield, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Anthony.

On last Sunday a large gathering of relatives from this neighborhood and from a distance surprised Harry E. Gibson at his home in Bellbrook, the occasion being his forty-first birthday anniversary. The following partook of the day's festivities: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gibson and children, Rowena, Kathryn, Margaret and Helen May, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rogers, Mrs. Emma Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith and children, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Poff, Mrs. Enis Anten, Mrs. Mae Anten and sons, David and John, Miss Phil-ema Huston, John Roff, James Miller, Hiley Gibson and family and Floyd Trousen.

WINTER NECESSITIES

PHILCO BATTERIES

For Heavy Duty Service This Winter

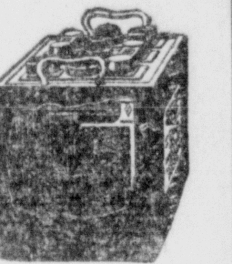

Our Battery Department is ready and willing to serve you in either charging or repair.

HOW'S YOUR RADIATOR, NEED ALCOHOL?

Xenia Vulcanizing

Company

Phone 1098

Hunting Prohibited

ON City And Bankard Farms

Towler Road

R. C. Jenks

PUBLIC SALE

Thursday, November 18th, at 10 a. m.

At my residence 1 mile north of the Massies Creek Cemetery, Cedarville, Ohio, the following items.

5 HEAD OF HORSES—4 good work horses, 1 driver.
20 HEAD OF CATTLE—9 milch cows, 10 Shorthorn steers, high grade, weight 500 lbs. 1 Holstein yearling bull.
60 HEAD OF HOGS—All improved.
40 SHEEP—Shropshire and Delaine breeding ewes.
A complete line of good farming implements.
550 shocks of extra good corn. Some household goods.

J. B. JOHNSON

Kennon Bros., Auct.

C. H. Crouse, Clerk.

WESTINGHOUSE

BATTERIES

JUST A GOOD RELIABLE BATTERY

AT THE RIGHT PRICE

DENATURED ALCOHOL

For Your Radiator

XENIA AUTO NECESSITY CO.

TOM AND DICK—THE TIRE BOYS

Is your appetite gone?

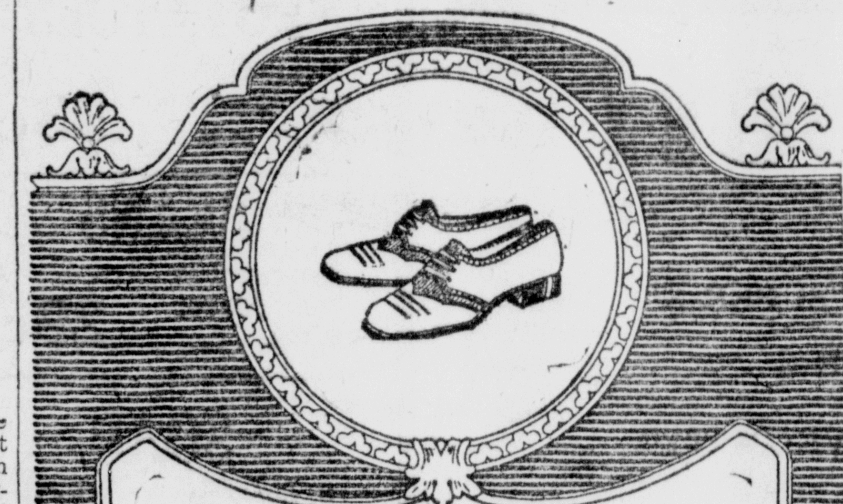

REMEMBER, how it used to be when you could hardly wait for mealtime? And then, sit down and eat several helpings of everything—enjoy every morsel and get up from the table feeling satisfied with the World, happy with everybody and ready for anything.

But what a difference in living when even the sight and smell of food sickens you! Never hungry—no matter how tempting the food is—nothing tasting right. And then, after nibbling at a few bites, feeling worse than ever.

Oh, life is hardly worth living this way. And yet, all in the World the matter with you is that you are starving for rich, red blood. It is acknowledged everywhere that S. S. S. helps Nature build these healthy red-blood-cells by the millions!

All you need to do to get back that wonderful appetite is to build rich, red-blood-cells with S. S. S. It's simple. Just try it, like thousands are doing every day. See for yourself what S. S. S. will do.

S. S. S. means blood with a punch—brimful of new life and energy. Get your S. S. S. at any good druggist. The larger size is more economical.

Vogue! Variety! And Value!

All three are combined in our cleverly styled shoes for young women which include all the newest and most approved fashion trends.

New three eyelet ties, plain pumps and straps also sport oxfords in black and tan.

$5.00 and $6.00

Frazer's Shoe Store

E. Main St.

Xenia, O.

"CAP" STUBBS—Another Opportunity Lost

By Edwina

PUBLIC SALE

Will offer at Public Outcry, on farm, known as the Ezra Brown farm, on road leading from Jasper Station to New Jasper, about 8 miles from Xenia, at 12 o'clock, sharp on Thursday, November 18, 1926

2—HEAD OF HORSES—2

6—HEAD OF CATTLE—6

2 cows, one to be fresh in December, other is bred. 4 yearling calves.

3—HEAD OF EWES—3

22—HEAD OF HOGS—22

All Improved.

FEED—200 Shocks of Corn. 200 bu. of good Oats.

FARMING IMPLEMENTS

SOME HOUSEHOLD GOODS

HARNESS—Collars, Lines, Bridles, etc.

BERT TAYLOR

Col. John H. Wright, Auctioneer. Phone 1016, Xenia.

T. C. Long, Clerk.

ORPHIUM

TO-NIGHT

EVELYN BRENT

In her greatest crook melodrama.

"THE IMPOSTOR"

ALSO PATHE NEWS

Admission 15c

SATURDAY

Matinee 1:15 and 2:40. Night 1st Show at 5:30 prompt.

RICHARD TALMADGE

IN "THE MERRY CAVALIER"

A smashing, racing comedy riot packed to the brim with screaming humor and daring feats!

Also "DAYS OF '49"

Admission 20c

"UNCLE JOE" CANNON DIES FRIDAY

PRESIDENT'S SPEECH GETS BRITISH APPROVAL

GREAT BRITAIN NOT SURPRISED BY VIEW UPON WORLD COURT

Politicians Find No Objection To Talk On Armistice Day

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Despite its nationalistic tone and sharp, caustic comments on European affairs, the speech
of President Coolidge at the dedication of the liberty war
memorial at Kansas City yesterday has met with general
approval and comparatively little criticism in British government circles.

One prominent government official, who preferred that his name be not used, characterized the
speech as follows:

"President Coolidge's address is essentially an extremely sensible
utterance made by a patriotic American. There is nothing in the speech to which we could legitimately object as a government.

President Coolidge's remarks
about the armistice ending the war
are eminently just. We agree perfectly with him regarding the necessity of dropping recriminations
between nations.

"As to America's part in the war,
Mr. Coolidge is perfectly right in taking the attitude he has adopted,
while his criticisms upon the old-
time 'armed camp' of Europe are
unanswerable."

Great Britain is not surprised by President Coolidge's announcement that America is through with the world court unless the senate's resolutions are adhered to.

"His announcement regarding the world court does not take us by surprise," the official said. "We have known his attitude for months. The only point where the president does stop on open and debatable ground is in his reference to American prosperity and his indirect reference to debts."

President Coolidge urged the American people, in his address, not
to be ashamed of their prosperity
and ascribed the alleged unpopularity of Americans abroad to the fact that America was a creditor nation.

"Every Englishman is suffering
from a burden of grinding taxation,
accentuated by American wealth and comparative freedom. We more-ly note this fact and are prepared to face the prospects as they exist.

Europe has now to work its way out of the morass of war. We believe we can always count upon the
sympathy of America."

The British press took varying
views of the president's speech.
The London Chronicle thought the speech was "not happily inspired" but was sure that Mr. Coolidge's intention was pacific.

"The president has a perfect right to be firm regarding the payment of war debts," this journal
said, "but nothing is to be gained by debating the ethics of the matter. We know, and many ethics agrees with us, that the more statesmen make speeches upon this subject, the more the creditors are apt to look like dunces and the debtors like defaulting scamps. The sooner
these business matters can be settled and the talk concerning them
dropped, the sooner will mutual respect between nations be restored."

The only comment made by the
Times was on the fact that the Coolidge speech destroyed Europe's expectation that the United States would eventually adhere to the world court tribunal.

"The general regret which this prospect must inspire will only be sharpened by the reflection that the United States has always professed devotion to the principles of international arbitration," said the Times.

A former cabinet minister, who declined to have his name used,
said the speech was "bombastic,
showing Mr. Coolidge is ignorant of conditions in Europe."

UNCLE JOE DIES

"Uncle Joe" Cannon, for forty-six years a member of the house of representatives and speaker for that body, died Friday at his home
at Danville, Ill., at the age of 90.

PRESIDENT'S TRIP WEST AWARDED HIM GREATEST TRIUMPH

Crowd Estimated at 150-
000 Heard Speech
Thursday

ABOARD THE PRESIDENTIAL SPECIAL EN ROUTE TO
WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Numerically, at least, President Coolidge
was returning to the national capital today from the scene of his greatest public triumphs. Gauged
by extent of vocal demonstration, Minneapolis and St. Paul, which he visited in June, 1925, still hold
the call in the matter of presidential receptions, but never has
Mr. Coolidge—nor an other executive—addressed such a vast throng as was assembled Armistice Day in Kansas City, Mo.

Behind the president was a memory of massed humanity greeting at least 150,000 individuals. They had jammed together in a solid blanket on all sides of the $2,000,000 liberty memorial
from which the president spoke
and, despite the chill of a winter
wind, they had listened attentively
to his mild but, nevertheless,
positive denunciation of European politics insofar as relations with the United States are concerned.

This estimate of the crowd was
not taken on the word of partisan
citizens but, curiously enough, was arrived at in comparison with the throng that witnessed the Dem-psy-Turney fight in Philadelphia,
where the exact number of seats
was known and where the people were crowded into a space which the vision could determine and remember.

The president's return trip thus far has been as uneventful as was the outgoing journey. Missouri
and Illinois were left behind during the night. Today the special train crosses Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania. A quiet day was
in prospect.

In the private car housing the executive and Mrs. Coolidge is a photograph machine of the latest type, whereby they may amuse
themselves. In the evening, before the 11:30 arrival at Washington—they can look forward to another of the movie features placed
aboard by Jack Connolly, personal representative of Will Hays.

The president's return trip thus
far has been as uneventful as was
the outgoing journey. Missouri
and Illinois were left behind during the night. Today the special train crosses Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania. A quiet day was
in prospect.

In the private car housing the executive and Mrs. Coolidge is a photograph machine of the latest
type, whereby they may amuse
themselves. In the evening, before the 11:30 arrival at Washington—they can look forward to another of the movie features placed
aboard by Jack Connolly, personal representative of Will Hays.

The president's return trip thus
far has been as uneventful as was
the outgoing journey. Missouri
and Illinois were left behind during the night. Today the special train crosses Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania. A quiet day was
in prospect.

In the private car housing the executive and Mrs. Coolidge is a photograph machine of the latest
type, whereby they may amuse
themselves. In the evening, before the 11:30 arrival at Washington—they can look forward to another of the movie features placed
aboard by Jack Connolly, personal representative of Will Hays.

The president's return trip thus
far has been as uneventful as was
the outgoing journey. Missouri
and Illinois were left behind during the night. Today the special train crosses Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania. A quiet day was
in prospect.

In the private car housing the executive and Mrs. Coolidge is a photograph machine of the latest
type, whereby they may amuse
themselves. In the evening, before the 11:30 arrival at Washington—they can look forward to another of the movie features placed
aboard by Jack Connolly, personal representative of Will Hays.

The president's return trip thus
far has been as uneventful as was
the outgoing journey. Missouri
and Illinois were left behind during the night. Today the special train crosses Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania. A quiet day was
in prospect.

In the private car housing the executive and Mrs. Coolidge is a photograph machine of the latest
type, whereby they may amuse
themselves. In the evening, before the 11:30 arrival at Washington—they can look forward to another of the movie features placed
aboard by Jack Connolly, personal representative of Will Hays.

COOLIDGE ADDRESS BELIEVED TO SOUND COURT DEATH KNELL

Armistice Day Speech
Removes Issue From Politics

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—
President Coolidge's ultimatum to Europe that the United States will enter the world court on its own terms or not at all was accepted here today as sounding a death knell to the project and signifying the removal of the issue for the time being at least from the realm of politics.

The political powers of Europe
have already agreed the senate's resolutions are not acceptable.
The president has said the reservations will not be changed.
There the matter rests. There,
apparently, it will continue to rest
until the powers change their attitude.

The irreconcilables are jubilant
and even some of those who reluctantly voted for the court last January under pressure from the White House were relieved today
over the turn of events.

One effect of the president's speech may be to forestall the introduction in the senate next month of a resolution to recall the favorable vote of last session, although an court opinion is not unanimous on it. Some of them believe that such anticourt opinion is not unanimous on it. Some of them believe that such a resolution should be introduced and passed while the temper of the senate and the White House is aroused over the matter. Others believe that Mr. Coolidge gave a coup de grace to the whole project at Kansas City yesterday and
that no good purpose would be served in stirring up the issue
again.

Few of Mr. Coolidge's speeches have been received with such universal senate approbation as that of yesterday. Even the Democrats who assisted in passing the adherence resolution praised the president's stand.

Senator Walsh (D), of Montana,
who was one of the court leaders
in the fight last winter, said the president had "accurately reflected the attitude of the senate."

Senator Johnson (R), of California, an original irreconcilable,
said, "Apparently, with a sigh of relief, the president has kissed the League of Nations good bye."

Senator Wm. E. Borah, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, said "the speech
was fine, as far as it went," meaning he thought Mr. Coolidge should have gone even further and recommended the recall of last January's action.

Only a handful of the ardent pro League and pro court senators found fault with Mr. Coolidge's expressed attitude. Senator Bruce
(D), of Maryland, said the court
"will outlive the president's val-diction."

The president's return trip thus far has been as uneventful as was
the outgoing journey. Missouri
and Illinois were left behind during the night. Today the special train crosses Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania. A quiet day was
in prospect.

In the private car housing the executive and Mrs. Coolidge is a photograph machine of the latest
type, whereby they may amuse
themselves. In the evening, before the 11:30 arrival at Washington—they can look forward to another of the movie features placed
aboard by Jack Connolly, personal representative of Will Hays.

The president's return trip thus
far has been as uneventful as was
the outgoing journey. Missouri
and Illinois were left behind during the night. Today the special train crosses Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania. A quiet day was
in prospect.

In the private car housing the executive and Mrs. Coolidge is a photograph machine of the latest
type, whereby they may amuse
themselves. In the evening, before the 11:30 arrival at Washington—they can look forward to another of the movie features placed
aboard by Jack Connolly, personal representative of Will Hays.

The president's return trip thus
far has been as uneventful as was
the outgoing journey. Missouri
and Illinois were left behind during the night. Today the special train crosses Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania. A quiet day was
in prospect.

In the private car housing the executive and Mrs. Coolidge is a photograph machine of the latest
type, whereby they may amuse
themselves. In the evening, before the 11:30 arrival at Washington—they can look forward to another of the movie features placed
aboard by Jack Connolly, personal representative of Will Hays.

The president's return trip thus
far has been as uneventful as was
the outgoing journey. Missouri
and Illinois were left behind during the night. Today the special train crosses Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania. A quiet day was
in prospect.

In the private car housing the executive and Mrs. Coolidge is a photograph machine of the latest
type, whereby they may amuse
themselves. In the evening, before the 11:30 arrival at Washington—they can look forward to another of the movie features placed
aboard by Jack Connolly, personal representative of Will Hays.

The president's return trip thus
far has been as uneventful as was
the outgoing journey. Missouri
and Illinois were left behind during the night. Today the special train crosses Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania. A quiet day was
in prospect.

In the private car housing the executive and Mrs. Coolidge is a photograph machine of the latest
type, whereby they may amuse
themselves. In the evening, before the 11:30 arrival at Washington—they can look forward to another of the movie features placed
aboard by Jack Connolly, personal representative of Will Hays.

Cyclone Crushes Life Out of 13 Children

Ruins of a school at La Plata, Md., were searched after a cyclone leveled the building, crushing out the lives of thirteen pupils.

MAIL PLANE OBSERVER IS KILLED

Air Mail Pilot Lands Safely In Parachute Before
Ship Crashes In California—Probe
Is Started

VAN NUYS, Calif., Nov. 12.—
The observer on a southbound government mail airplane was killed early today
when the ship crashed to earth on the grounds of the Whitley country club, according to reports to police here.

The name and address of the observed was withheld pending
an investigation of the accident.
He is said to be Donald Rossiter,
21, Los Angeles. The pilot of the plane landed safely in a parachute.
The wrecked plane was on the Seattle Los Angeles segment.

QUEEN MARIE NARROWLY MISSED BEING MOBBED IN KANSAS CITY

Zealous Curious Pounce On Glass Of Royal Auto—
Queen Hopes To Visit Chicago
Home Incognito

ABOARD QUEEN MARIE'S
SPECIAL TRAIN, Nov. 12.—Barely
recovered from a narrow escape from being mobbed by over-enthusiastic crowds in Kansas
City, Queen Marie of Roumania
arrived today in St. Louis, gateway of the Mississippi valley.

The day's schedule called for a drive through the city in the morning, an exclusive luncheon
and greeting of Roumanian residents at Washington University
in the afternoon and a banquet and horse show in the evening. The royal party will leave tomorrow
for Chicago, where the battle between the high hats and the low
hats will be decided.

This issue, which is gaining in intensity as her majesty moves
eastward, flared for but a moment
in Kansas City. The visit of a president and a queen on the same day gave victory to the sullen til-faction and there was not a high hat in garret or store left un-
worn.

Those who could not wear them pushed; they jostled the Roumanian attaches out of recognition by the police; they surrounded the royal automobile and pelted the glass. The police were helpless or else busy themselves looking at a queen.

"I thought of telegraphing you folks and asking you not to come,"
said Mayor A. I. Beach to one of the officials in the royal party.

An exclusive supper and reception was given the royal party at the home of Mrs. Jacob Loose, formerly of Chicago, widow of the

cracker and candy millionaire. It was only the third private reception her majesty has attended.
Mrs. Loose gave her majesty a four-foot box of crackers and candy as a memento of the occasion.

Queen Marie is looking forward to visiting "incognito" a typical American home. She plans in Chicago or some other city along the way to drop in uninvited on a middle-class domicile and hopes
that she may be able to make her visit unrecognized.

MAIL CHRISTMAS
PRESENTS EARLY

Deadline dates for dispatching
Christmas presents including letters, packages and all mail matter
to certain foreign countries to insure delivery by Christmas Day,
are being announced by Postmaster C. S. Frazer as follows:

China, November 25 to 29;
England, December 15; France,
December 15; Germany, December
15; Greece, December 15; India,
November 24; Ireland, December
11; Italy, December 11; Holland,
December 15; Scotland, December
15; South Africa, November 24.

REFUSES COMMENT ON "HANKY" FOUND

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—(By I. N.
S.) Mrs. Paul Rader, wife of the Chicago evangelist, flatly refused today to permit him to explain to newspapermen how it happened
his handkerchief got into Kenneth Orlman's trunk along with a collection of feminine wearing apparel said to fit Aimee Semple
McPherson.

Rader arrived today from an evangelistic tour of the East.
Closeted in his home, the evangelist was closely guarded from questioners by Mrs. Rader, who also declined to discuss the handkerchief.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The Reading system will be permitted to acquire control by lease of the Lehigh and New England railroad
if the interstate commerce commission adopts recommendations made today by Examiner Burnside. If this lease is approved by the commission, it should be conditioned upon the maintenance of the Lehigh and
New England as an open route.

POWHATAN, O., Nov. 12.—A. L.
Van Dyne is defendant today in a suit for $587.20 gasoline taxes. The state of Ohio alleges Van Dyne
failed to pay the two-cents-a-gallon
levy on 29,869 gallons of gasoline.

CHICAGO POLICE IN SEARCH FOR MANIAC WHO ATTACKS GIRLS

Second Attack On Young
Girl Doubles Police
Efforts

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—(By I. N.
S.)—A maniac killer who has shot
two school girls within the last 48 hours, killing one and probably fatally injuring the second, was being hunted by the authorities
here today.

Victoria Dellmala, 16, was the first victim. She was shot and instantly killed Wednesday night
while returning home from a music lesson. Twenty hours later, Esther Haas, 13, was shot as she walked home from school. Her condition is critical.

Circumstances surrounding both shootings were identical. The same caliber pistol was used in each instance. The fact that both shootings occurred in the same
section of the city led investigators to believe that one person
committed both crimes.

A former inmate of the Kankakee state insane hospital living
in the neighborhood is being sought for questioning. The absence of any motive for the strange attacks suggests the theory that a maniac with a penchant for killing young girls is abroad.

Residents of Chicago Heights,
where both shootings occurred,
are terrified. Many parents have refused to allow their children to leave the house pending solution of the mystery. Others are sending their children to and from school under heavy guard.

Chicago has organized vigilance committees and are assisting police in the search for the slayer.

FIVE BANDITS GET $50,000 AT BANK

LAPORTE, Ind., Nov. 12.—(By
I. N. S.)—Five unmasked bandits,
armed with revolvers and sawed-
off shotguns, swooped down on the People's Trust and Savings
bank here just before noon today,
forced ten bank employees and
four customers to line up against the wall and scooped up $40,000
in cash and $10,000 in negotiables.
They escaped in a large touring
car.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—(By I. N.
S.)—Five unmasked bandits,
armed with revolvers and sawed-
off shotguns, swooped down on the People's Trust and Savings
bank here just before noon today,
forced ten bank employees and
four customers to line up against the wall and scooped up $40,000
in cash and $10,000 in negotiables.
They escaped in a large touring
car.

ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT DENIED

ROME, Nov. 12.—The government
today denied absolutely that there were any grounds for reports circulated in the United States yesterday that a new attempt had been made to assassinate Premier Mussolini.

POWHATAN, O., Nov. 12.—A. L.
Van Dyne is defendant today in a suit for $587.20 gasoline taxes. The state of Ohio alleges Van Dyne
failed to pay the two-cents-a-gallon
levy on 29,869 gallons of gasoline.

PERSHING TO ROOT CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—General John J. Pershing will be an en- thusiastic rooter at the Army- Navy football game here Novem- ber 27, according to his own ad- mission today.

He will witness the famous service classic from the box of
his good friend, Vice President
Charles G. Dawes, another ardent
Army fan.

"Dawes and I will be in there
rootin' for old Army, you can bet," smiled the famous "Black Jack."

FAMOUS 'PIG WOMAN' OPERATED UPON; IS DANGEROUSLY SICK

Mrs. Hall's Personal Maid
Testifies At Murder
Trial

COURT HOUSE, Somerville, N.
J., Nov. 12.—Barbara Tough, the chatty Scotswoman who for seven years was Mrs. Frances Stevens
Hall's personal maid, was recalled
to the witness stand when the Hall-Mills murder trial was resumed today.

She had previously told in her drawing room that Mrs. Hall was out of the Hall home at 10 o'clock
on the night four years ago when
the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills were slain. The time of the crime has been fixed at 10:20 p. m.

Miss Tough looked directly at Prosecutor Alexander Simpson as
he began to shoot questions at her.
Simpson asked her the name of
the "gullie girl" who was gossip-
ing about Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills
in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, of New Brunswick.

The defense objected to testimony
regarding gossip.
After a long wrangle, Simpson
withdrew the question, saying:
"I will get the information elsewhere—that's all."

Simpson asked her the name of
the "gullie girl" who was gossip-
ing about Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills
in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, of New Brunswick.

The defense objected to testimony
regarding gossip.
After a long wrangle, Simpson
withdrew the question, saying:
"I will get the information elsewhere—that's all."

Simpson asked her the name of
the "gullie girl" who was gossip-
ing about Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills
in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, of New Brunswick.

The defense objected to testimony
regarding gossip.
After a long wrangle, Simpson
withdrew the question, saying:
"I will get the information elsewhere—that's all."

Simpson asked her the name of
the "gullie girl" who was gossip-
ing about Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills
in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, of New Brunswick.

The defense objected to testimony
regarding gossip.
After a long wrangle, Simpson
withdrew the question, saying:
"I will get the information elsewhere—that's all."

Simpson asked her the name of
the "gullie girl" who was gossip-
ing about Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills
in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, of New Brunswick.

The defense objected to testimony
regarding gossip.
After a long wrangle, Simpson
withdrew the question, saying:
"I will get the information elsewhere—that's all."

Simpson asked her the name of
the "gullie girl" who was gossip-
ing about Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills
in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, of New Brunswick.

The defense objected to testimony
regarding gossip.
After a long wrangle, Simpson
withdrew the question, saying:
"I will get the information elsewhere—that's all."

Simpson asked her the name of
the "gullie girl" who was gossip-
ing about Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills
in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, of New Brunswick.

The defense objected to testimony
regarding gossip.
After a long wrangle, Simpson
withdrew the question, saying:
"I will get the information elsewhere—that's all."

Simpson asked her the name of
the "gullie girl" who was gossip-
ing about Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills
in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, of New Brunswick.

The defense objected to testimony
regarding gossip.
After a long wrangle, Simpson
withdrew the question, saying:
"I will get the information elsewhere—that's all."

VETERAN AMERICAN STATESMAN CALLED AT DANVILLE HOME

Retired Speaker Of House
Passes At Age Of 90.

DANVILLE, Ill., Nov. 12.—
"Uncle Joe" Cannon is dead.
The veteran American statesman, who for forty-six
years was a member of the house of representatives, passed away at his home here today at the age of ninety.

Death came quietly, with members of his family by his bed.

With him were his two daughters, Mrs. Ernest Le
Seure and Miss Helen Cannon.

For the past several days
"Uncle Joe" had been failing.
He experienced great difficulty in swallowing and, while
his pulse continued comparatively strong, his general condition was such that members of his family were hurriedly
summoned by Dr. Charles L.
Wilkinson.

Cannon's death marked the passing of one of America's most brilliant politicians.
While speaker of the house,
Cannon ruled that body with
an iron hand. He was known as "Czar Joe" at times, for the manner in which he held the house in order.

REPUBLICANS PLAN COUNTER ATTACK ON DEMOCRATIC SEATS

Hope To Overcome Feared Majority By Similar Methods

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—
An unique defense against the Democratic threat to bar senators-elect William S. Vare, of Pennsylvania, and Frank L.
Smith, of Illinois, from taking their seats in the senate was being considered today by administration leaders.

Fearing the Democrats may gain control of the senate in the senatorial election, the Republicans are planning a counter attack against the Democrats by disbarring Smith and Vare on the opening day, administration chiefs are considering a move to mete out
the same treatment to at least two newly-elected Democrats. If the Democrats carry out their threat and the Republicans are able to retaliate, the latter would still retain control of the new senate by the single-vote margin.

The line-up then would be forty-six Republicans, forty-five Democrats and one Farmer-Laborite.

The Republicans,

CO-EDS MAKE CONSPICUOUS SUCCESS AS "MOTHERS" OF PRACTICE INFANT

ELEANOR CASS, STUDENT, WITH LEWIS INSTITUTE'S "PRACTICE BABY"

Exclusive Dispatch Copyright, 1926
CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—While ten co-eds at Lake Forest university were backing out of an announced plan to adopt a "practice baby," girl students at Lewis Institute, Chicago, were revealed as the successful foster mothers of two infants.

"George Practice House" was graduated from the institute last autumn at the age of 16 months—a chubby, pink, healthy boy.

This year the institute girls are rearing "Lucille Home Management House," 13 months old, and in every respect they allow, she is a credit to her foster mothers.

In groups of three, the girls take turns in caring for "Lucille," under the direction of Miss Lemo Dennis, resident instructor in home economics. Each girl is "mother" to the baby for two weeks at a time, with two deputies to relieve her during class hours. The "mother" washes and bathes the baby and every girl in the institute is required to take the "baby course" before graduating.

The plan is not original with Lewis Institute, but at this school its success has been conspicuous. Various other colleges in which home economics are taught, also use "practice babies" for instruction. The children are either borrowed from their own mothers, or taken from orphanages.

ROSS TOWNSHIP

Mr. Wm. Klontz and wife spent Sunday with their son, Mr. Florence Klontz and family near South Charleston.

Mr. Wm. E. Sheely and Mr. Gordon Barker left November 1 for a motor trip through the South. They expect to be gone until the middle of February.

The four children of Mr. J. J. Sullivan were going to church last Sunday morning when their machine hit a rut in the road and went down a steep embankment at the bridge north of the centralized school building. The all escaped injury but Mary, who had her shoulder cap dislocated. The top of the machine was wrecked. This is a bad place. There ought to be a railing built to the top of the hill. There have been five ma-

NEW BURLINGTON

The Dorcas Society, of the M. E. Church met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Harry Nickerson.

Mrs. Stanley Stephens and Harold spent Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Rachel Miller and family.

Mrs. Jennie M. Reeves returned with her to her home at South Charleston for a week's visit.

Miss Pearl Palmer and Mrs. Emma Williams, of Wilmington, spent a few days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mann.

There will be a Christian Endeavor Rally at the Friends Church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Clyde Watson, of Wilmington, will give the address.

Mrs. Howard McCreary and children spent the week-end recently at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harriett Weaver and family near Centerville.

Mr. White and daughters, of Bowersville, moved Wednesday into the Reeves property. Mr. Reeves is teaching in the school here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson received word Wednesday of the death by drowning of their small grandchild at the home of its parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lane, Oriand, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and son, John Robinson left at once for their daughter's home.

HELP YOURSELF TO HEALTH

Lagging feet and longing hearts

THE third dance... and tired, utterly tired... sinking into the first chair—there perhaps to spend the rest of the evening. This was not the vivacious girl she had been a few years ago. Then thirty dances would have been her portion. What tragedy was this, that she, so young, should seem so old.

What tragedy indeed is constipation—one of the worst diseases to afflict the human race. It saps strength. It thwarts beauty. It poisons. It ages its victims long before their time. But the hopeful part of it is—constipation can be safely and permanently relieved without the use of habit-forming pills and drugs. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is the answer.

No matter if constipation has become chronic, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN will bring permanent relief. This is why: Bran—ALL-BRAN—goes completely through the system without changing fiber. It is what doctors call a bulk food, a necessary aid to regular elimination.

Eat at least two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN every day—in chronic cases, with every meal. If eaten regularly, it is guaranteed to bring permanent relief, or your grocer returns the purchase price. Its delightful nutty flavor makes it good as a cereal. Serve with milk or cream alone or with fresh or preserved fruit; with other cereals or cook in hot cereals; use in soups, or in the recipes given on every package.

Don't take chances. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is ALL-BRAN—100% bran. That's why doctors recommend it. Sold by all grocers and served in hotels and restaurants.

Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek, Michigan

Kellogg's
ALL-BRAN

The original ALL-BRAN—ready-to-eat

Jewelry

Most Every Person Likes To Possess One Or

more items of attractive Jewelry. Some prefer Diamonds and other brilliant stones. Others like a good Watch or Ring.

Then too, there are so many occasions during the year—Birthdays, Anniversaries, etc—when Jewelry is most appreciated as a Gift. It's the "gift that lasts!"

So let us call your attention to these offerings:

Ladies' and men's Wrist Watches,
6 jewel ----- $11.80, up
Men's Watches, 7 to 21 jewel ---- $15.00 up
Ladies' and men's Diamond Rings, $15.00 up
Ingraham Mahogany Mantel Clocks,
----- $16.50

We Welcome Charge Accounts

Xenia Mercantile Company
12-14 East Second St.
NEW STORE NEW STOCK

DOUBLE ACTING

CALUMET
THE WORLD'S GREATEST BAKING POWDER
SALES 2 1/2 TIMES THOSE OF ANY OTHER BRAND

No waste of time. No loss of materials. No worry. No danger of bakings falling due to jar of oven door when you use Calumet. It's double acting. Contains two leavening units—one begins to work when the dough is mixed, the other waits for the heat of oven, then both units work together. A sure way to bake-day success, bake-day savings and superior results.

Highest Quality KROGER'S Lowest Prices

BEEF	Choice Tender Beef	19c
	CHUCK ROAST,	lb
Short Ribs, Lb. 15c.	hamburger, 10. 18c. Soft Rib, Per Lb.	12c
Pork	CHOPS	27c
Neck Cuts, lb.	Pork ROAST	20c
	Fresh Calico,
BACON	Sugar Cured, 3 Pound Piece	25c
	or more, lb.
Jowl Bacon	Lb	15c
Bulk Sausage, lb	25c	Fresh Bulk Oysters ----- Pt. 35c., Qt. 70c
PURE LEAF LARD,	2lb PAIL 39,	4lb PAIL 75c
SMOKED REGULAR HAMS	Sugar Cured	20c
	Half or Whole
	Per Lb.
Oranges	Florida Sweet and Juicy.	40c
	Large 200 Size, Dozen
	Extra large 176 size doz. 49c.
Apples	Rome Beauty	10 35c
	Fine Cookers	lbs
	Box Jonathans
	4 Lbs. 25c.
Bananas	Firm Yellow	3 lbs 25c
	Ripe Fruit
Celery	Young Tender	9c
	Stalks
Lettuce	Ice Berg	25c
	3 for
Onions	Yellow	3 lbs 10c
	Dry
Cabbage	Solid	4 lbs 10c
	Heads
Potatoes	Round Whites	15 Lb 52c
	U. S. No. 1	Peck
	Sweets, 5 lbs. 17c.
Corn	Country Club	3 for 39c
	Country Gentleman
	Can—15c.
Peas	Country Club, Small	3 for 50c
	Size Early Variety
	Sifted 17c Can.
Peaches	Country Club Luscious	3 for 69c
	Halves or sliced in heavy
	Sugar Syrup, Can, 25c.
Pineapple	Delmonte Grated or	3 for 55c
	Avondale Sliced or
	Grated, No. 2 can...
Campbell's	Beans or	12 cans 97c
	Tomato Soup
Oleo	Churngold,	32c
	Per lb.
Eggs	AVONDALE Wholesome Cold Storage, Dozen	39c
Butter	Country Club Two one half pound	49c
	pieces in carton, lbz.
Bread	Country Club Twin or split top 1 1-2 lb. loaf	9c
	Pound loaf 6c. Rye 1 1-2 lb. 9c.
Dates, Golden Hollowi, lb.	12c	Country Club, package 15c
Fruit Cakes, 2 lbs. in fancy box, each	85c.	3 lbs. in fancy tin box, $1.35
Rice	Blue Rose	2 lb 15c
	New Crop

FOR QUICK SALE AT AN ATTRACTIVE PRICE

About 17 1-2 acres, 1 mile north of the Court House on paved highway. Ideal for chicken or truck farm and could be laid out in lots and sold to a good advantage.

Improvements consist of a good modern frame house with furnace, electricity and city water. Gas is within about 100 yards from the premises.

Price is most attractive and property can be sold with one-third down and the balance in payments. For price and terms address

HARRY C. STOWE,
7 East Second St., Dayton, Ohio.

Know Your Cleaner
Know His Service Know His Work

AND YOU—KNOW YOUR CLEANING WILL BE DONE CORRECTLY

Phone 1084
VALET PRESS SHOP
C. M. Ervin, Prop.

BIJOU THEATER
TONIGHT

Come and see a good show and help and P. T. A. Benefit.
Reginald Denny

In
"SKINNERS DRESS SUIT"
And FELIX THE CAT COMEDY

SATURDAY
"THE FAMILY UPSTAIRS"
Based on the play by Harry Delf
With Virginia Valli, Allan Simpson
J. Farrell MacDonald
Plenty of comedy in this one
Alos Fox News and Felix The Cat

Society-Personal-Clubs

THE NICEST courtesy you can show your guests is to have their names mentioned on this page. The nicest courtesy you can show your friends is to let them learn of your visits through this page whenever you go away. The Gazette and Republican consider it a courtesy whenever you turn in an item of any kind. PHONE 76.

JINGLE ANNOUNCES

P. T. A. LUNCHEON
Mrs. Charles Adair, president of Central Parent-Teacher Association and her committee have issued clever little "jingles" to members of the association, reading as follows:
"Put aside the family wash
This Monday next at noon
And with our Central P. T. A.
Find restfulness a boon.
We've managed a most interesting
Program to contrive
A splendid talk, a luscious lunch
And in pennies twenty-five."
Reservations for the luncheon, which will be served at one o'clock, confined to members of the society, can be made with Mrs. Charles Adair or Mrs. Adair. The luncheon will be served at the Elks' Club dining room.

SOUTH SIDE W. C. T. U.

HELP AT HAGLER HOME
Mrs. M. A. Hagler was hostess and program leader when South Side W. C. T. U. met at her home on E. Market St., Thursday afternoon. Twenty members were received. Mrs. Hagler read a paper on "Sabbath Observance" and other members read articles on the subject.
Mrs. George McKee had charge of devotions. Plans were made for a market November 20. Delicious refreshments followed the program and business meeting.

CARD CLUB MEMBERS

AND HUSBAND GUESTS
Covers for twenty-four guests were laid, when Mrs. G. W. Kuhn entertained members of her card club and their husbands, at her home on N. King St., Thursday evening.
A delectable dinner was served at 6 o'clock, followed by cards. Mrs. Elwood Dunkel received high score prize and Mrs. F. L. Johnson, Mrs. Fred Fisher and Mrs. J. J. Stout also received prizes. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Pendry were guests of the evening.

SURPRISE PARTY

GIVEN ON BIRTHDAY
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Folck, Yellow Springs, was the scene of a hilarious party Thursday evening, when twenty-five friends of Mr. Folck surprised him in celebration of his birthday.
Games and contests were enjoyed, the most amusing being a "treasure hunt" when the guests were paired. Old clothing found at the end of the search was worn by the guests to supper causing much merriment. A delicious buffet luncheon was served. The guests of the evening presented Mr. Folck, hose, tie and flowers.

Mrs. Frank Antram, Dayton, has been spending the week with Mrs. C. S. McDaniel, near Xenia.

Lawrence Gill, six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gill, Bellbrook Pike, underwent an operation for appendicitis, at McClellan Hospital Wednesday. He is recovering as well as could be expected.

McGervy Bible Class, Trinity M. E. Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Howard Lighthizer, 527 S. Monroe St., Monday, November 15 at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Devore, near Port William, are the parents of an eight-pound son, born Friday morning.

An eight-pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Francis Devore, near Paintersville, Friday morning.

Mrs. Ralph Haines, near Paintersville, has been severely ill with septic sore throat.

Mrs. Mary E. Fudge and Mrs. Donald Finlay are spending several days in Spring Valley, the guests of Miss Alice Powers and Miss Flo Kelter.

The Misses Aletta Gorham, Katherine Kelble, Helen and Kathryn Graham will spend the week end in Columbus, the guests of Miss Betty Dent, and attend the State-Michigan game.

Seven year old daughter of Mr. C. W. Riley, Lake St., received cuts and bruises when she was knocked down by a machine, near her home, Friday afternoon. Her injuries were only of a minor nature.

Mrs. William Byers had an artery in her finger severed when the member was caught in a clothes wringer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fudge, N. Galloway St., Thursday.

Jack Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kennedy, S. Detroit St., has been ill several days but is recovering.

Dr. Frank M. Chambliss entertained several friends at his cottage, near Old Town, Thursday evening. An informal social time was enjoyed and refreshments served at a late hour.

Mr. Isadore Hyman, E. Market St., is spending the week end in Columbus, and attending the Ohio State-Michigan game.

Mr. M. W. Anderson, S. Detroit St., who has been severely ill with a complication of ailments, remains unimproved. He continues to suffer intense pain.

The Rev. W. H. Tilford, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, delivered the Armistice Day talk at Cedarville High School, Thursday morning. He spoke on "Armistice Day, Eight Years Ago and After" making a plea for remembrance of the day and expressing a hope for future world peace.

The meeting under the Greene County Council of Religious Education, which was announced for Mount Zion Church, Sunday, has been changed to Zimmerman Church, it was announced Friday.

Mrs. H. E. Hembling, Emporia, Kan., has been the guest this week of Mrs. W. O. Custis, S. Detroit St. Mrs. Hembling was a delegate to the National Anti-Cigarette Alliance, at Columbus. Mrs. Fannie Fries, Dayton, president of Montgomery County W. C. T. U., has also been a guest at the Custis home.

Mrs. Nora Heathcock, Hivesing St., who has been ill for some time, is in a serious condition.

Miss Lucille Beatty entertained a company of twelve young women at a charmingly appointed dinner at her home on N. Detroit St., Thursday evening. A delicious menu was served and following the dinner palm-reading and various amusing stunts furnished entertainment.

Calendar of Events

(Notices of coming events in social or fraternal circles, lodge meetings, club gatherings or benefits will be published in this column free of charge. Phone notices not more than ten days preceding the event itself.)

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12:

Eagles.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 13:

G. A. R.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 15:

Xenia S. P. O.

D. of P.

Phi Delta Kappa.

D. of E.

Shawnee I. O. O. F.

Delphian Society.

TUESDAY, NOV. 16:

Obedient Council D. of A.

Xenia I. O. O. F.

Rotary.

Kiwanis.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 17:

J. O. U. A. M.

Ivanhoe Lodge, K. of P.

Church Prayer Meetings.

L. O. O. M.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 18:

Red Men.

P. of X. D. of A.

Rebekahs.

CAST WORKING HARD

FOR 'BANDBOX REVUE'

Cast of "The Bandbox Revue" is not letting any time be wasted in rehearsing to insure success of the production at City Hall Theater Tuesday and Wednesday nights of next week.

Under the direction of Bob Owens, author of the piece, co-directing with Elwood Smith, choruses and other participants in the show are working hard to make the production the best ever seen in Xenia.

The latest song hits, dances and novelty sketches have been chosen for the event and the picked talent is using its best efforts to satisfy the large two-night audience. Several "treats" are in store for the "Bandbox" patrons and tickets are selling rapidly. Reserves will be open at Sohn's Drug Store, Friday evening at 6 o'clock.

RELEASE SUSPECT

IN ATTACK CASE

JEFFERSONVILLE, O., Nov. 12.—The man held for investigation in connection with the alleged criminal assault case last Friday night, in which Mrs. William Porter was the victim, was given his freedom by Sheriff Ramsey, Monday evening, after various phases of the situation had been investigated by the Sheriff and Prosecutor Ray R. Maddox.

The man, it was announced, was able to produce friends in Columbus who told Sheriff Ramsey that the man who had been held temporarily while investigation was made, was at their home until around nine to nine thirty o'clock, eastern time, the night of the assault.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

R. E. Brown, Minister

Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.

Morning worship, 10:30 a. m.

In the absence of the pastor,

Rev. W. H. O'Neal will preach.

His theme will be "Our Religious Influence."

There will be no evening service this week.

Colds

The $1,000,000 way

There's a way to end colds so quick, efficient and complete that we paid $1,000,000 for it. That way is HILL'S. It stops colds in twenty-four hours, checks fever, opens the bowels, tones the entire system. The millions who know it always rely on it. Go start it now.

HILL'S Cascara-Bromide-Quinine

Be sure you get HILL'S, in the red box with portrait. At all druggists—50c.

NOTICE

In pursuance of an order of the Probate Court of Greene County, Ohio, the undersigned, assignee for the benefit of creditors of Jacob Colp, will on the 19th day of November, 1926, at his office at Room No. 3, 5th Building, Xenia, Ohio, pay upon the valid claims presented against said assignor a dividend of 12 1/2 per cent.

Dated 12th day of November 1926.

J. A. PINNEY, Assignee.

(Nov. 12)

PIQUA WILL DECIDE ON NEW GOVERNMENT

PIQUA, Nov. 12.—An election November 23 will give Piqua citizens the chance to decide whether they wish to investigate the commission-manager form of government and find out just what it will do for the city.

The special election has nothing to do with naming a city manager or changing at once the present form of government. It is one of three steps laid down by the amendment to the state constitution for municipalities desiring better government.

TOLEDO CLUBBER IS BLAMED FOR ATTACK

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 12.—The Toledo clubber is being sought by a posse today, after having attacked and seriously injured a school girl.

The brute, believed responsible for the death of six women and criminal attacks upon at least a half score others, jumped from a clump of bushes at Woodville, near here, late yesterday afternoon and clubbed Miss Lucille Hummel, 16, into unconsciousness.

EAST HIGH NOTES

The faculty and student body of East High School assembled and observed Armistice Day.

Led by Miss Helen Ferguson, the student body sang "America," after which the salute to the flag was given. Miss Eleanor Gaines read a passage of scripture and led the Lord's Prayer. The student body sang the hymn, "Every time I feel the Spirit," after which Principal Arthur Taylor presented the speaker of the occasion, Mr. E. T. Banks, of Dayton, Ohio.

During the World War, Mr. Banks was an active participant in the front warfare, being known over there as the "Fighting Secretary of the Y. M. C. A."

In his talk to the student body, Mr. Banks recounted some of the war scenes, painting in vivid pictures of the war torn battle front, the booming of the great German guns, the bursting of the death laden shrapnel, the efficient way in which a row of soldiers with fixed bayonets moved repel a cavalry charge, throat and remained silent for two minutes in mute recognition of the heroes dead and alive, of the World War.

Mr. Banks added reality to his talk by the use of a large map locating the prominent war section, the city of Metz, the districts of the Argonne, St. Mihiel and others. A varied assortment of trophies were also shown, including a German boy-soldier's helmet, rifle and cartridge belt. A Bavarian officer's helmet was also shown, along with a hand grenade and a "75 mm." shell.

The talk was highly interesting from start to finish and was highly appreciated by the audience, as was indicated by the applause. At eleven o'clock, the entire school body ceased operation and remained silent for two minutes in mute recognition of the heroes dead and alive, of the World War.

Mr. Banks added reality to his talk by the use of a large map locating the prominent war section, the city of Metz, the districts of the Argonne, St. Mihiel and others. A varied assortment of trophies were also shown, including a German boy-soldier's helmet, rifle and cartridge belt. A Bavarian officer's helmet was also shown, along with a hand grenade and a "75 mm." shell.

The talk was highly interesting from start to finish and was highly appreciated by the audience, as was indicated by the applause. At eleven o'clock, the entire school body ceased operation and remained silent for two minutes in mute recognition of the heroes dead and alive, of the World War.

Mr. Banks added reality to his talk by the use of a large map locating the prominent war section, the city of Metz, the districts of the Argonne, St. Mihiel and others. A varied assortment of trophies were also shown, including a German boy-soldier's helmet, rifle and cartridge belt. A Bavarian officer's helmet was also shown, along with a hand grenade and a "75 mm." shell.

The talk was highly interesting from start to finish and was highly appreciated by the audience, as was indicated by the applause. At eleven o'clock, the entire school body ceased operation and remained silent for two minutes in mute recognition of the heroes dead and alive, of the World War.

Mr. Banks added reality to his talk by the use of a large map locating the prominent war section, the city of Metz, the districts of the Argonne, St. Mihiel and others. A varied assortment of trophies were also shown, including a German boy-soldier's helmet, rifle and cartridge belt. A Bavarian officer's helmet was also shown, along with a hand grenade and a "75 mm." shell.

The talk was highly interesting from start to finish and was highly appreciated by the audience, as was indicated by the applause. At eleven o'clock, the entire school body ceased operation and remained silent for two minutes in mute recognition of the heroes dead and alive, of the World War.

Mr. Banks added reality to his talk by the use of a large map locating the prominent war section, the city of Metz, the districts of the Argonne, St. Mihiel and others. A varied assortment of trophies were also shown, including a German boy-soldier's helmet, rifle and cartridge belt. A Bavarian officer's helmet was also shown, along with a hand grenade and a "75 mm." shell.

The talk was highly interesting from start to finish and was highly appreciated by the audience, as was indicated by the applause. At eleven o'clock, the entire school body ceased operation and remained silent for two minutes in mute recognition of the heroes dead and alive, of the World War.

Mr. Banks added reality to his talk by the use of a large map locating the prominent war section, the city of Metz, the districts of the Argonne, St. Mihiel and others. A varied assortment of trophies were also shown, including a German boy-soldier's helmet, rifle and cartridge belt. A Bavarian officer's helmet was also shown, along with a hand grenade and a "75 mm." shell.

The talk was highly interesting from start to finish and was highly appreciated by the audience, as was indicated by the applause. At eleven o'clock, the entire school body ceased operation and remained silent for two minutes in mute recognition of the heroes dead and alive, of the World War.

Mr. Banks added reality to his talk by the use of a large map locating the prominent war section, the city of Metz, the districts of the Argonne, St. Mihiel and others. A varied assortment of trophies were also shown, including a German boy-soldier's helmet, rifle and cartridge belt. A Bavarian officer's helmet was also shown, along with a hand grenade and a "75 mm." shell.

The talk was highly interesting from start to finish and was highly appreciated by the audience, as was indicated by the applause. At eleven o'clock, the entire school body ceased operation and remained silent for two minutes in mute recognition of the heroes dead and alive, of the World War.

Mr. Banks added reality to his talk by the use of a large map locating the prominent war section, the city of Metz, the districts of the Argonne, St. Mihiel and others. A varied assortment of trophies were also shown, including a German boy-soldier's helmet, rifle and cartridge belt. A Bavarian officer's helmet was also shown, along with a hand grenade and a "75 mm." shell.

The talk was highly interesting from start to finish and was highly appreciated by the audience, as was indicated by the applause. At eleven o'clock, the entire school body ceased operation and remained silent for two minutes in mute recognition of the heroes dead and alive, of the World War.

Mr. Banks added reality to his talk by the use of a large map locating the prominent war section, the city of Metz, the districts of the Argonne, St. Mihiel and others. A varied assortment of trophies were also shown, including a German boy-soldier's helmet, rifle and cartridge belt. A Bavarian officer's helmet was also shown, along with a hand grenade and a "75 mm." shell.

The talk was highly interesting from start to finish and was highly appreciated by the audience, as was indicated by the applause. At eleven o'clock, the entire school body ceased operation and remained silent for two minutes in mute recognition of the heroes dead and alive, of the World War.

Mr. Banks added reality to his talk by the use of a large map locating the prominent war section, the city of Metz, the districts of the Argonne, St. Mihiel and others. A varied assortment of trophies were also shown, including a German boy-soldier's helmet, rifle and cartridge belt. A Bavarian officer's helmet was also shown, along with a hand grenade and a "75 mm." shell.

The talk was highly interesting from start to finish and was highly appreciated by the audience, as was indicated by the applause. At eleven o'clock, the entire school body ceased operation and remained silent for two minutes in mute recognition of the heroes dead and alive, of the World War.

Mr. Banks added reality to his talk by the use of a large map locating the prominent war section, the city of Metz, the districts of the Argonne, St. Mihiel and others. A varied assortment of trophies were also shown, including a German boy-soldier's helmet, rifle and cartridge belt. A Bavarian officer's helmet was also shown, along with a hand grenade and a "75 mm." shell.

The talk was highly interesting from start to finish and was highly appreciated by the audience, as was indicated by the applause. At eleven o'clock, the entire school body ceased operation and remained silent for two minutes in mute recognition of the heroes dead and alive, of the World War.

CLIFTON

Mr. and Mrs. George Hiff and daughters, have moved to Yellow Springs, where they are employed at Antioch College.

Miss Emma Blair, of Georgetown, Ohio, called on old friends here last Sunday. She made the trip by motor. She and her mother resided here when she was a teacher in the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiff have moved into the Hiff property from Clyde Clark's house.

Mr. Bert Hopping has purchased the Shafer home on North St. The Shafer family will move to Springfield.

Mrs. Pearl McCann entertained the ladies of the Presbyterian 1st Auxiliary at noon dinner last Wednesday.

Misses Bertha Knott, Olive Ce and Prof. Eckman attended the Teachers' Meeting at Columbus last week.

Mr. Walter B. Corry and his mother, Mrs. H. R. Corry motored to Cincinnati last Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Boelman has had her house wired for electric lights.

Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Spahr, of Xenia, were guests of Miss Florence White last Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Koss, Orchard St., is very ill at her home, suffering with the quinsy.

Mrs. Belle Tibbs, E. Main St., received word Monday from the Rev. M. Smith, her son, who is pastoring in Sandusky, O., that he was suffering from appendicitis, but he might not have to undergo an operation.

Miss Amanda Porter, E. Main St., who has been suffering from a badly sprained ankle, was able to resume her studies Thursday at Wilberforce University.

Victoria Vane entertained the Blackbird Social Club, with a four-course six o'clock dinner Thursday evening.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. A. L. Dooley, Pastor
George Gaines, Supt.
9:30 a. m., Sabbath School.
10:30 a. m., preaching, "Stripping For The Race."

7:00 p. m., subject: "The City of God." B. Y. P. U., 6 p. m.
Mrs. A. C. Hawkins, president.
Program Group No. 2. Leader, Mr. William Johnson.

Program for B. Y. P. U. "Indoor Track Meet" Zion Baptist Church, Sunday evening, November 14, 1926 at 6 o'clock. "Recreation For Youth." First Corinthians, 9:24-27. Opening hymn by B. Y. P. U. Prayer, appointment of judges, reading the Rule Book, hymn elimination contest, scripture relay race, vocal high jump, pole vault (high standards), free-for-all race, hurdle race, three-legged race, apparatus of "Wreck-Creation" and "Re-Creation," announcement of judges, roll call and collection, closing prayer.

CHEST COLDS
Apply over throat and chest—cover with hot flannel cloth.
VICKS VAPORUB
Over 21 Million Jars Used Yearly

CUT FLOWERS
Chrysanthemums
Yellow, Pink and White
Floral work and baskets.
Deliveries made.

R. O. Douglas
Phone 549-W.
Cor. Washington & Monroe

Swift sure death to rats only

K-R-O kills rats only, kills them quickly, and safely. In severe tests poultry, dogs, cats and other domestic animals were fed heavy doses, without injury. Made from equine bulbe as advised by U. S. Government chemists. A 10% mixture does the work. Many local farmers and merchants have used it. All are surprised at quick results. Not a poison. Money back guarantee. Sold in 2-oz. tins; 75c at your druggist's. K-R-O Company, Springfield, Ohio

K-R-O KILLS-RATS-ONLY

With applicator attached to cork, just brush "Heet" over the pain area, whether in knees, feet, legs, hands, shoulders, back, neck or body. Instantly you feel this harmless, glorious, penetrating heat draw the pain, soreness and stiffness right out of the aching or swollen joint, muscle or nerve. Besides, "Heet" scatters the congestion and establishes a cure.

"Heet" contains two soothing, penetrating ingredients, too expensive to use in ordinary liniments or analgesics. "Heet" is a clean, pleasant liquid; doesn't stain, blister or irritate the skin and costs only sixty cents at any drug store. —Adv.

HEET
HEET

HEET
HEET

HEET
HEET

HEET
HEET

HEET
HEET

HEET
HEET

HEET
HEET

HEET
HEET

HEET
HEET

HEET
HEET

HEET
HEET

HEET
HEET

HEET
HEET

VOICES OF THE PAST

By JOSEPH BENNETT

Voices of the past are calling—
Calling me;
Shadowy forms are beckoning
Silently.
Some are living, some are dead
Sleeping in their lowly bed,
Widows weeping overhead
Mournfully.

Memories are rushing on me—
Crowding fast,
Scenes of yore sweet faces bringing
From the past;
Memories of by-gone days—
Hearts so light and youth so gay,
Scenes so dear to me always
Could not last.

But they hang on memory's walls,
Living still—
Pictures I can not erase,
If I will,
I would not blot out the scenes
Of those radiant childish dreams,
Ere life changed to what it seems—
Xenia's thrill.

In the firelight's glow they linger,
Dusk of eve;
As I sit with silent memory
On her knees,
Bringing thoughts of other days,
Stirring up a song of praise—
Would they could have stayed all ways
Such as these.

CARRIERS WILL GET ONLY HALF HOLIDAY

Because Christmas Day this year falls on Saturday when the volume of mail matter is at its peak, employees of the Xenia Post-office must forego their annual full holiday, Postmaster C. S. Frazer reveals.

City carriers will make one delivery in the morning, but no rural deliveries will be made. Substitute carriers will make morning and evening collections as usual.

The entire force of clerks must work Saturday until 12 o'clock noon, but the afternoon is their own.

When Christmas comes on any other week day except Saturday of schedule, the president of the postal department to grant employees a full day of liberty.

TRAIN MAKES TIME
COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 12.—Running fifteen minutes ahead of schedule, the president's train passed through here today on the return trip to Washington.

ELECTRO-VAPORIZED MINERAL FUME BATHS RELIEVE

Asthma
Brights Disease
Diabetes
Catarrh
High Blood Pressure
Nervousness
Neuritis
Pimples
Rheumatism

And is especially successful in promoting the health and beauty of the skin. Call for appointments.

MRS. JULIA WHITTINGTON
Phone 430 W.

Tales Off The Reel

VOL. 1. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1926. NO. 6

How would you divide 999 eggs among 1000 soldiers? The answer is easy—shoot one soldier.

Don't forget our suggestion to delay your purchase of Oyster Shells. It will pay you well when we receive our car.

Have you any good dry-dye for sale? The price is fairly good now. Let us quote you. We also are in the market for clover, mixed, alfalfa and timothy hay. If you have any straw it will pay you to call us.

We are unloading another car of Pioneer Island Creek Coal. It is full of heat and empty of clinkers.

Among the early tragedies of life is to take up all the leaves in the neighborhood for an evening bonfire, and then have some other kids come along during the supper hour and set 'em afire.

EDITORIAL

The Evening Gazette and The Morning Republican published daily except Sunday at the Gazette Building, South Street, Xenia, Ohio, by the Chew Publishing Company, Inc. Entered as second-class matter under act of March 3rd, 1879, at the Postoffice, Xenia, Ohio.

Members of "Ohio Select List" Daily Newspapers. Robert E. Ward, Inc., Foreign Advertising Representative; Chicago Office, No. 6 South Wabash Avenue, New York Office, 501 Fifth Avenue.

NEW SUBSCRIPTION RATES	1 Mo.	3 Mo.	6 Mo.	1 Yr.
In Greene County	$.40	$1.00	$1.90	$3.50
Zone 1 and 2	.45	1.15	2.15	4.00
Zone 3, 4 and 5	.50	1.30	2.40	4.50
Zone 6 and 7	.55	1.45	2.65	5.00
Zone 8	.60	1.50	2.90	5.50

By carrier in Xenia, 15 cents Per Week. Single Copy Three Cents.
Business Office—111 Telephone Editorial Rooms—78
Advertising and Business Office 111
Circulation Department 802
Editorial Department 78

BABSON SPEAKS

Prohibition figures directly in the prosperity of the United States in at least five fundamentally significant ways, each with far-reaching ramifications, according to Roger W. Babson, founder of Babson's Statistical Organization at Wellesley Hills, Mass., who for the last 25 years has made a business of analyzing American economic conditions. Summarized, these salient benefits are:

1. Approximately $2,000,000,000 which was formerly spent for drink every year is now diverted into genuinely productive commerce and industry.
2. The productive capacity of labor is increased at least 10 percent. Thereby the earning power of labor is increased to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars annually.
3. This doubly augmented buying power—that is, the money formerly spent for liquor plus the increased earnings of sobriety—is greatly enlarging the markets of new and old lines of constructive business.
4. Likewise, through the larger incomes and the consequently increased buying power, a higher standard of living is established.
5. Millions of working men have become able to establish a credit and so to enjoy added purchasing power and added comforts of living through credit buying.

The great direct benefits of prohibition, Mr. Babson emphasized, have been and are to the working man and his family. Its benefits to the executive side of the business, important though they are, have been but a secondary sharing in the immense and general good that the dry law has wrought or the wage earner, he said.

These observations of a man who is both a trained statistician and an experienced practitioner of business as director of several large corporations and one who has before him a variety of facts and figures not available to the casual observer, form a valuable, unbiased, and authentic critique of the economics of prohibition. While the average person is able to see the question only from a localized viewpoint, with the real issue and its effects too often obscured by personal feeling and political propaganda, Mr. Babson has studied the matter from a perspective which takes in its whole scope.

MAY BE CHEAPER TO BUY IT

The approach of Christmas and the cutting season for Christmas trees has directed public attention again to the special legislation, enacted this year or in previous years in a number of states, against the removal or mutilation of trees, shrubbery or plants, either on public or private property and irrespective of whether the vegetation be wild or cultivated.

These laws were not necessary for the prosecution of this type of vandal and petty thief, for the offense has always been covered by the age-old laws against larceny, trespassing and malicious mischief, but were passed more as a reminder and warning to the public that everything that grows along the roadside or in the fields and on the mountains is owned either privately or publicly and that every passerby is not free to pluck, cut or destroy it at will.

One may easily place the cart before the horse, or mistake the effect for the cause, and that is what has been done in some quarters relative to the new "wildflower" legislation. While the public generally understood these new statutes to be the result of increasing insecurity of roadside property, that which more than anything else caused their enactment was the acute shortage of flowers, shrubs and trees in the wild state.

Only a decade ago in sections of the country people paid nothing for the privilege of cutting their own Christmas trees on the most convenient hillside. There seemed to be an inexhaustible supply of the pines and spruces and the farmers and others who controlled the supply hadn't learned that they could get fancy prices in the cities for all they could cut. Today the villager who doesn't buy his on the open market like his city cousin, may find himself before a justice of the peace.

DONAHEY GIVES PROCLAMATION REGARDING RED CROSS DRIVE

Officials of the Greene County Red Cross, who held its annual Roll Call Thursday, have received the following proclamation from Governor Vic Donahey, in regard to the annual drive for funds:

"The tenth annual Roll Call of the American National Red Cross will be conducted from Armistice Day, November 11, to Thanksgiving, November 25, 1926. This period is set aside for Americans everywhere to enroll or to renew their memberships in the organization."

"The President of the United States, who is also President of the American National Red Cross, has issued a proclamation calling upon the people to enroll as members of this legion of mercy."

"The American National Red Cross, the comforter and succor of humanity in distress, offers the medium by which the more fortunate may serve and assist the afflicted in times of catastrophe. By reason of its capacity to serve the people, wherever duty calls, its activity in helping to solve the problems of public health and its interest in all humanitarian prospects, it deserves the support and unselfish loyalty to everyone."

"Therefore, I, Vic Donahey, Governor of Ohio, with a view to giving the citizens of our state an opportunity to enroll their names under the banner of the American National Red Cross, call upon all to respond wholeheartedly to the Tenth Annual Roll Call, and suggest that special emphasis be laid upon the work of this great organization in schools, places of worship and at all public gatherings to the end that it may continue its work for humanity without halt or handicap."

EDWARD L. KENNEY CALLED BY DEATH

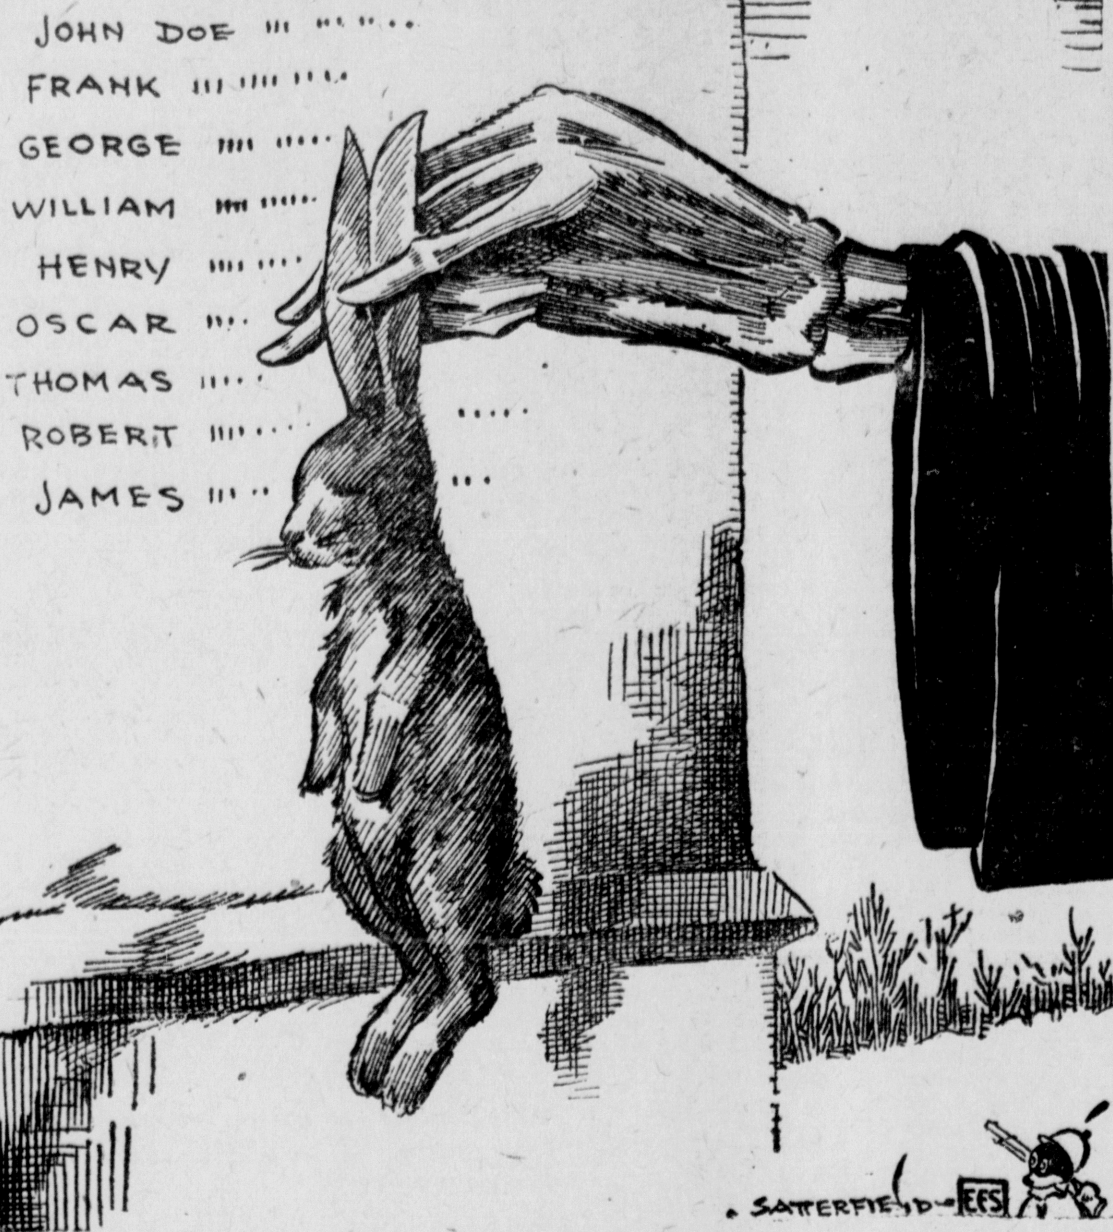

Edward L. Kenney, 18, son of the late Robert Kenney, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Earl Mills, near Kingman, Thursday afternoon following an illness of nine months. Immediate cause of death was cerebral hemorrhage.

He graduated from Kingman High School in 1926. Surviving are four sisters, Mrs. W. B. Lane, Crisco, Texas; Mrs. Earl Mills, Kingman, O.; Mrs. F. Wolf, Springfield, O.; and Mrs. Earl Reynolds, Xenia; and two brothers, Robert, Toledo, O., and John, at home.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lane, Crisco, Texas, at 2 p. m. The Rev. Mr. Curless, New Burlington, and the Rev. Mr. Roberts, Blanchester, officiating. Interment will be made in Sugar Grove Cemetery, Wilmington.

Is It Worth The Cost?

KILLED WHILE HUNTING

1906-TWENTY YEARS AGO-1926

Mr. William Wright, who formerly conducted a grocery on W. Main St., moved his family to Gallipolis.

W. E. Davis, who has been superintendent of the People's Gas and Electric Light Co. plant here for the past nine months has resigned to go to Owensboro, Ky.

N. A. Hill, a famous jockey, has arrived in Xenia for a visit after a successful season in Switzerland and Italy.

The Board of Trustees of Miami Cemetery has placed a number of trees about the grounds this fall, some of them being extremely rare and valuable.

Efficient Housekeeping

TOMORROW'S MENU
Breakfast
Grapefruit
Cereal
Creamed Dried Beef
Muffins	Coffee
Luncheon
Spanish Omelet
Cornbread	Tea
Jam
Dinner
Fried Liver and Onions
Boiled Sweet Potatoes
Lima Beans
Lettuce Salad
Lemon Meringue Pie
Coffee

CORNING BEEF
"Some of your readers are farmers," a reader friend reminds me, "it would interest our division if you would publish directions for corning beef."

To Corn Beef: Parts most of ten corned are brisket, plate, rump and cross ribs. It is best to remove bones, but not necessary. Use fresh but chilled meat. Allow ten pounds of dairy salt to each one hundred pounds of the beef. Sprinkle a one-fourth-inch deep layer of salt in the bottom of the crock or barrel, pack in cuts of meat closely so that the meat layer is five or six inches thick. Now add another layer of salt. Repeat these layers, holding out enough of the salt for a good layer on top. When all packed, cover with a board and weight down with a stone (NOT an IRON weight). If you let any meat project it will mold and the brine will spoil.

Let packed meat stand overnight. Also let this cooked brine cool and stand overnight. Brine: Prepare this brine by boiling together four gallons of water, seven pounds of salt, three pounds of

Just Folks

BY EDGAR A. GUEST

YOUNG

So young, so beautiful, so fair

Upon the cross He died

Age had not silvered white His hair

When Christ was crucified.

So young to die He seemed, and yet

Were longer life allowed

Who knows what snares His feet had met.

What mockings from the crowd?

Had age made pitiful His eye

And withered Him with strife

He might have left, as you and I

Little to mark His life.

God called Him when His work was done

From all that life may hold,

Knowing the dangers they must run

Who silver and grow old.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR ELECTROCUTION VICTIM NOT MADE

Funeral services for Rodney Bernard, 35, Yellow Springs automobile dealer, who was electrocuted when he threw a radio aerial wire over a high tension wire sending 2,300 volts through his body Thursday, have not been arranged pending the arrival of a brother from New Vienna.

His father and mother, visiting in Missouri, have also been notified. Coroner R. L. Haines gave a verdict of accidental death. Bernard threw an unprotected aerial wire over exposed high tension wires in the rear of the Fluke Tire and Battery Shop, adjoining his own place of business. He is then said to have seized both ends sending the full current through his body. The ground was damp and this is supposed to have aided in the transmission of the voltage. Believing that life was not extinct, J. I. Fluke, who found the body lying on the ground, summoned a physician who pronounced the man dead after an examination. No one witnessed the fatality.

BISHOP REESE WILL CONDUCT SERVICES

The Rt. Rev. Theodore I. Reese, the coadjutor bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Southern Ohio, will conduct the service of Holy Communion and deliver the sermon at Christ Episcopal Church Sunday morning.

Bishop Reese has been in Xenia on several former occasions and is well regarded as an able speaker. While he is here he will inspect the new parish house which is nearing completion and also address the children of the church school.

"The Wrath of God." That is the title given in professional circles to Lole Fuller, old-time stage trooper, intimate friend of Queen Marie, whose temperamental carrying-on caused her being ejected from the Queen's American tour party.

Lole Fuller is no longer a lithe and joyous sprite, but is a blunt old trooper, caring neither for the niceties of appearance nor language, according to "The Dance." For twenty years Lole Fuller has been chasing the elusive bubbles of light and colors, says Ethel Vincent Wilcox. Once she nearly wrecked Madame Curie's laboratory seeking new effects of sound and color. Always seeking, always hunting, rough and energetic, she has come to delight in a gypsy life with her dancing girls, yet she is little known and understood in America, her native land.

It was some twenty-five years ago when Pierre Roche, a noted French sculptor and critic, beheld in Lole Fuller the promise of a real American art. After thirty years Miss Fuller has returned to America from Paris where she has long made her home. She says America is a land of materialism, where jazz is master of the dance and where "art in all its branches was manifested in an orgy of ugliness and distortion."

Lole was born in the outskirts of Chicago. She captivated Paris when a slip of a girl, after she had persuaded the manager of the Folies Bergere to give her a chance. The "Folies" was a cheap variety hall. She appeared at the San Francisco Golden Jubilee—but she was an old woman. Her art was classed as kindergarten stuff, but she won her way and was booked on a vaudeville circuit. Although she is a "back number" Lole won't give up.

Frank Crumit, who appears with Julia Sanderson in "Queen High" at the Victory soon, graduated from Ohio University in 1911, after growing up in Jackson, O. The family of J. H. Shadrach, N. Detroit St., can remember when he sang to the accompaniment of the Shadrach piano, before he ever hoped for success on the stage. He started on his successful stage career with a fraternity brother and for three and a half years they were known on the stage as "The Two Collegians." They first played vaudeville circuits, and were later engaged for the musical comedy, "The Queen of the Movies." He has co-starred with Miss Sanderson a number of years, and won everlasting regard from local audiences last year in "No, No, Nanette."

Laura Isabelle LaPlant, 22, screen actress and William A. Fred Selzer, 35, motion picture director, obtained a marriage license in Los Angeles, Thursday. The wedding will take place Sunday in a Hollywood church.

SIDELIGHTS

ON Greene County History

SOCIAL EQUALITY PREVAILED
That there was in the early days in Greene County more of a community interest and social equality among the people than at the present day, does not admit of a doubt.

Log-rollings, railings, wood-choppings et cetera, brought the people frequently together for many miles around. There were no drones in the community, and on these occasions things went lively.

At a raising, the hands would divide, putting their best men on the corners to do the notching, and then a strife arose as to who would be first to get his loft in place.

Thus they would continue until the square part of the building was completed, and then beveled logs thrown up at the ends, poles thrown across lengthwise, at intervals of from three to four feet, completed the loft part of the structure.

For a covering, clapboards, of an inch in thickness and about six inches in breadth, and in length corresponding with the distances between the poles, were placed up and down in such a manner as to make a close roof. The weight poles are then placed in position, and the roof is complete.

MINISTER SPEAKS ON SCHOOL PROGRAM

Picturing the joyousness and celebration attending the original Armistice Day observance eight years ago both in America and abroad, the Rev. W. N. Shank, pastor of the First M. E. Church, gave a patriotic address before students of Central High School assembled for an Armistice Day program Thursday afternoon.

The speaker described the horrors of war and declared that people should believe in it although not in an unprincipled sense.

Miss Lois Grigsby, head of the English department presided. Kenneth Considine, senior, read from the scripture after which patriotic music was given.

Carrying out the patriotic spirit of the occasion, a committee of high school girls decorated the auditorium in preparation for the program.

WANT COMPLETED AUTO BUS SERVICE

WOODSFIELD, O., Nov. 12.—In order to obtain direct transportation service to Marietta, residents of Monroe County are planning to ask the Ohio Public Utilities commission to order a four-mile gap in bus service on the Ohio River highway closed. At present, routes are authorized from Marietta north to New Matamoras and east from Marietta to the Ohio river at Fly. A four-mile gap between Fly, which is opposite Sistersville, W. Va., and New Matamoras must be closed if direct service of any kind other than river packet is to be provided to the neighboring county.

KILLED BY AUTOIST
NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., Nov. 12.—William L. Gram, 52, of Seventeen, eighteen miles west of here, was found dead on the Denison-Cochet road one half mile from his home. His skull was fractured. Corner J. F. Lewis, investigating says Gram was evidently killed by a hit-skip motorist. He leaves an 83 year old mother.

East Side - West Side

OF
New York
By Jack O'Donnell

Next to the problem of where to put old safety razor blades, the imminent problem in New York is, Where shall we eat? To the lady from Sauk Center, running the gauntlet of the myriad doughnut dens, pastry parlors, meal-minutes luncheonettes and Ye Old Hot Dog Shoppes which are sprinkled up and down Broadway, the problem is solved eventually by going to one of the Alice Foote MacDougal shops and living in the spirit of old Italy or northern Bessarabia or what is it.

Restaurateurs in this island of indigestion, however, have discovered that one of the best gastronomic lures is to place "the works" right in the front window, where passersby can see it and weep. Thus the Childs restaurants—more than fifty of them—allow a comely maid in a baby blue apron to flip wheat cakes before the admiring populace. Rotisseries flaunt neatly spiked chickens, twisting on a grill before a gas flame, right where crowds can water at the mouth. Cruller shops, where coffee is still five cents a cup, lure patrons with an endless chain of sizzling new doughnuts. And Italian joints have transplanted the whole kitchen to the front window, cook and all.

One of my favorite places for lunch is the India House, down in Hanover Square—an ancient hostelry, and a near neighbor to the far-famed France's Tavern. Chowder beyond compare, served at the bar, is an experience besides being a meal. Or fish cakes, beans, and beer (legal) for thirty-five cents. The food is brought down piping hot from the main dining-room above. Wall Street

Restaurants in this island of indigestion, however, have discovered that one of the best gastronomic lures is to place "the works" right in the front window, where passersby can see it and weep. Thus the Childs restaurants—more than fifty of them—allow a comely maid in a baby blue apron to flip wheat cakes before the admiring populace. Rotisseries flaunt neatly spiked chickens, twisting on a grill before a gas flame, right where crowds can water at the mouth. Cruller shops, where coffee is still five cents a cup, lure patrons with an endless chain of sizzling new doughnuts. And Italian joints have transplanted the whole kitchen to the front window, cook and all.

And there was the man from Elmira—a salesman. "Well, the big old town is all right, I guess, but it's not my idea of the way to live. I want a town where folks know each other and where people speak to me when I walk down the street. Why, say, there's a bunch of us fellows that gets together in a cigar store almost every night, and, say, the wise cracks we don't pull! New York's all right, but not me."

The best one, however, was the farmer who picked me up and gave me a lift near Binghamton. We commented on the weather, and I told him I was from New York City. He looked at me carefully, and then when I got out he shyly handed me a little printed piece of paper. It said: "Jesus is the only One Who Saves."

THE THOROUGHbred MAN
It is too bad that more time and effort are being expended in this world toward the breeding of horses, for instance, where a fine specimen is wanted, than in the breeding of men.

And yet, regardless of this fact, there are found many thoroughbred men, that for some reason or other stand out as fine and noble examples of what the Creator meant by a man.

Good blood always tells. It tells in a horse and the horse expert instantly recognizes it. The thoroughbred has reserve powers. He goes the route when he is called upon. He isn't yellow. They tell me that as far as the thoroughbred horse is concerned, its rider has everything to do in the race, for if he is in sympathy with his horse, horse and rider are as one. Each stresses his will to win.

The thoroughbred man never stoops to cheapness. He never returns insult for insult. He returns silence for hurts, and is too big to lower his ideals for gain. If he is in a political campaign, he lets the other fellow throw the mud.

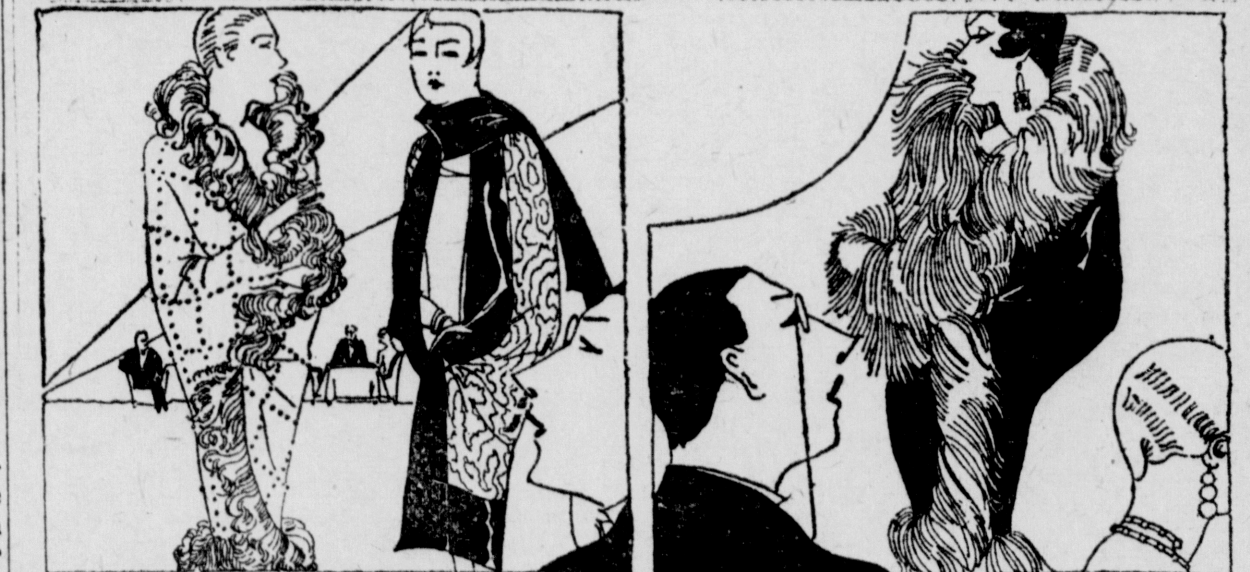

The thoroughbred is always noble in his dignity. But he is never a snob. Unto all men he is as he is, never parading under false colors, or borrowed clothes.

He never complains of his fate. He is never really defeated. He loses many times, but the call of Victory is always in his blood, always stirring his body to something beyond anything he has ever done. The thoroughbred man is a thing apart in this world as much as the thoroughbred horse. But you don't have to point him out. Even the unintelligent has to stop and take a look at him as he passes by.

SALLY'S SALLIES
A wife with her nose in the air often has a husband with a nose to the grindstone.

Modish Mitzi WHEN A SHAWL IS AN EVENING WRAP Jay V. Jay

The Goofy appreciates smart clothes — Mitzi brought him up that way and he admires these two wraps without knowing that they are both evening shawls—the one to the left of rhinestone-studded crepe-de-chine.

The Goofy is slightly surprised as he removes Mitzi's wrap to see that it is only a scarf with no arm-holes, sleeves or shape of any kind much—one could easily use it for a rug or a couch cover.

"When I'm through with it you may have it for a portiere," Mitzi promises as she hums the music for something that will make her still thinner and makes sure that the floppy, very large flower on her shoulder is intact.

Tomorrow—Waistcoats For All Kinds of Wear

EAST HIGH DEFEATS BEAVERCREEK HIGH GRIDMEN THURSDAY

Administer Second Drubbing To Rural School In Xenia

Exhibiting unexpected strength in the second half after the first two periods had passed scoreless, East High School gridmen defeated Beaver Creek High for the second time this season 19 to 0 at Cox Memorial Athletic field Thursday afternoon.

First two scores coming in the third periods were from fumbling causes, a Beaver back running punts within his ten-yard line. On the first occasion Hamilton bucked the ball across and soon after Buford duplicated and then drop-kicked for the extra point.

In the fourth period a forty-yard run by Thomas took the ball to the six-yard line from where Hamilton went across for the final touchdown.

Beaver played its opponents to a standstill in the first half but loose handling of the ball contributed to the second half rout.

East revealed a galaxy of backfield stars in Thomas and Buford at the halves, Smith at fullback and Hamilton at quarter. This quartet gained ground consistently.

East had won from Beaver 7 to 0 earlier in the season. The local school is considering an offer to meet the O. S. and S. O. Home eleven Saturday afternoon.

Score by periods:
East 0 0 13 6—19
Beaver 0 0 0 0—0

BIG CROWDS ATTEND SERVICES; SPRING VALLEY NEWS NOTES

Good crowds are attending the meetings at the Friends' church conducted by Harry L. Leasure. Deep and strong sermons are being delivered. Those not able to attend are missing a great deal.

The Methodist quarterly conference of this circuit will be held in the Methodist church next Sunday evening. Dr. Swank will preach. Regret has been expressed that this meeting comes at the time of the meeting at Friend's church, but thirty years ago through lack of knowledge of times arranged for, revival meetings were held at both churches at the same time with good attendance, both places. There are enough people in and near the village to fill both churches at one time. Let us rally and do what the older generation did, fill both churches.

We can do it if we try.

Mrs. Ellis Smith who was so ill last week, is recovering slowly.

The teachers of this township attend the teachers meeting in Columbus this week-end.

Mrs. Mary Copey, Mrs. William Copey and Mrs. Arch Copey attended the funeral of a relative at Midpoint the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cline of Dayton were calling on friends here Sunday afternoon.

An Armistice Day program was planned for Thursday night. Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Young entertained at dinner Thursday evening. Rev. and Mrs. H. O. Collins and Mrs. Oren Collins.

Mrs. Emma Bayless of West Union is spending a few weeks with Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Young.

FOOTBALL AND AUTO POLO WILL PROVIDE THRILLS FOR FANS

Refusing to allow themselves to become resigned to repeated defeats, Tilton's "Thirty-threes" are determined to atone for a long string of reverses this season, by turning in a victory over the Kessler-Hollen football team, of Dayton, Sunday afternoon at Ringer's Cincinnati Ave. Park.

From the time play is called at 2 o'clock it will be determined every minute instead of the rather listless performers of heretofore—eleven men with but a single thought—a victory.

The eleven showed some signs of shaking off its lethargy last week and if preparation counts for anything the locals should be victorious for nothing is being neglected in practice sessions.

The visiting team, if anything, has a more imposing reputation and record than the Dayton Shamrocks and the "Thirty-threes" have their work cut out for them.

A novelty feature will be introduced during the Sunday contest that is expected to be an attraction. Between halves a game of auto polo will be played for diversion of fans. This sport, as far as is known, is foreign to Xenia, and is expected to prove interesting.

For Colds, Grip or Influenza and as a Preventive take Laxative BROMO QUININE Tablets. A Safe and Proven Remedy. The box bears the signature of E. W. Grove, 30c. —Adv.

No Hunting

On premises of
Members of Spring Valley
Protective Association

Without a written permit.

ASHLAND STAGES TRACK MEET AT EXPENSE OF ANTIOCH ELEVEN

Ashland College staged a track meet at the expense of Antioch College's Division B football team at Ashland Friday, swamping Coach Kennedy's charges under an avalanche of forward passes to finally win 54 to 0.

With the exception of the forward pass style of play which Antioch presented a pitifully weak defense, the rival eleven were more evenly matched than the score would indicate.

Antioch held its own at straight football tactics even gaining more yardage than its opponents. The invaders rushed the ball to the one-foot line at one stage of the proceedings only to lose the ball.

It was the aerial game that turned the contest into a rout. Ashland backs hurled the pigskin into the waiting arms of ends with incredible accuracy and all scores were directly due to passes.

The Ashland game brought to a close Antioch's 1926 football season. The college celebrated its return to the fall sport after three years by winning one game losing one and tying one. Division A played a scoreless tie with Cedarville, the Division B eleven nosed out Cedarville 7 to 6 and then was buried by Ashland Friday.

The showing of the two divisions on the whole is considered good.

Word was received Friday by Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ledbetter, this city, of the death of their cousin, Mrs. W. H. Williams, who passed away at her home in Tarkenton, Ind., Thursday evening. Funeral services will be held at the home Sunday morning at 10:45 o'clock.

The Misses Sanders, who bought the Dr. L. M. Jones property in Jamestown, are moving into it, from their farm south of here, which they have now lived on the same place.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Church of Christ, will have their monthly meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the church. Mrs. W. W. Johnson will preside. The topic for the study hour is "To the Jew First". Mrs. Braden Smith will lead the program, assisted by a group of members. Special music will be one feature.

Mrs. Carry Black, Mrs. Jennie Leasure, Mrs. J. C. Parker, Mrs. Ed. Bishop and niece, Miss Chaire Gordon, visited in Washington, C. H. last week.

James Finn and family of Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Okie Spahr, and Miss Helen spent Sunday with Mrs. James Roberts.

Attorney Stanley Paxson of Washington Court House is the junior member of the law firm of Busch and Clyburn of that city, and has just been elected to the office of Prosecuting Attorney. Mr. Paxson is the son of Attorney W. H. Paxson. After graduating from the Washington high school, he went to the O. W. U., at Delaware, then studied law in Cincinnati and after being admitted to the bar, he practiced in that city for a few years before coming to Fayette County. We also notice that another Greene county boy has been elected to fill the office of treasurer, after serving two years as deputy.

Mr. Radoh Wolf, son of Mrs. Mary Stewart Wolf of Bowersville, Mr. Wolf is a World War veteran, serving two years overseas, having enlisted. He was badly wounded in a battle of the Argonne. After coming home he took advantage of the education, has been successful in all that he has undertaken, beginning first as a bookkeeper in that city. The disability of one leg will go with him through life. Neither of these young men had any opposition at the recent election, which speaks well for them.

The members of the Epworth League of the M. E. Church observed Armistice day at the church on Wednesday evening. An appropriate program was rendered. The refreshments will be along the line of the army provisions. Flags were the decorations.

Mr. O. F. Reeves and family spent Sunday at Athens with their daughter, Miss Frances, who is a student of the Ohio university.

"The Come Join Us" class of the Church of Christ, held their monthly business and social meeting with Floyd Badgley, on Friday evening. After the routine of business was transacted, games and contests were enjoyed. A refreshment course was served by Mrs. Badgley, assisted by Floyd Badgley, and Mrs. Rader being guests of the class. Twenty-eight were present.

Mrs. O. F. Reeves was in Marion, Ohio, last week attending a three day session of the Home Missionary society of the West Ohio conference of the M. E. Church, which includes eight districts of the Home Society. Mrs. Reeves was a delegate representing the local society.

Miss Margaret Gilcrest, who was in Columbus, on Friday and Saturday attending the Teachers Association, spent Saturday evening and Sunday with her brother, John Gilcrest and family in Newark.

Miss Ruth Smith who is a student at the O. S. U. at Columbus, was home over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Braden Smith.

Mr. Milton Snyder, Milton, Ky., has been visiting with his brother, Mr. Hubert S. Snyder and family. Mr. Snyder will also visit with relatives in Dayton and Columbus.

Jamestown friends of Dr. Fred Williams of Wilmington, have received cards announcing the marriage of his youngest daughter, Miss Winifred to Mr. Mary Mason, of Tucson, Arizona. The wedding took place on Saturday, October the 30th at El Paso.

Mr. George Weimer of Dayton, visited at the home of Mr. H. J. Christopher last week.

Mr. O. F. Reeves and family spent Sunday at Athens with their daughter, Miss Frances, who is a student of the Ohio university.

"The Come Join Us" class of the Church of Christ, held their monthly business and social meeting with Floyd Badgley, on Friday evening. After the routine of business was transacted, games and contests were enjoyed. A refreshment course was served by Mrs. Badgley, assisted by Floyd Badgley, and Mrs. Rader being guests of the class. Twenty-eight were present.

Mrs. O. F. Reeves was in Marion, Ohio, last week attending a three day session of the Home Missionary society of the West Ohio conference of the M. E. Church, which includes eight districts of the Home Society. Mrs. Reeves was a delegate representing the local society.

Miss Margaret Gilcrest, who was in Columbus, on Friday and Saturday attending the Teachers Association, spent Saturday evening and Sunday with her brother, John Gilcrest and family in Newark.

Miss Ruth Smith who is a student at the O. S. U. at Columbus, was home over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Braden Smith.

Mr. Milton Snyder, Milton, Ky., has been visiting with his brother, Mr. Hubert S. Snyder and family. Mr. Snyder will also visit with relatives in Dayton and Columbus.

Jamestown friends of Dr. Fred Williams of Wilmington, have received cards announcing the marriage of his youngest daughter, Miss Winifred to Mr. Mary Mason, of Tucson, Arizona. The wedding took place on Saturday, October the 30th at El Paso.

Mr. George Weimer of Dayton, visited at the home of Mr. H. J. Christopher last week.

Mr. O. F. Reeves and family spent Sunday at Athens with their daughter, Miss Frances, who is a student of the Ohio university.

"The Come Join Us" class of the Church of Christ, held their monthly business and social meeting with Floyd Badgley, on Friday evening. After the routine of business was transacted, games and contests were enjoyed. A refreshment course was served by Mrs. Badgley, assisted by Floyd Badgley, and Mrs. Rader being guests of the class. Twenty-eight were present.

Mrs. O. F. Reeves was in Marion, Ohio, last week attending a three day session of the Home Missionary society of the West Ohio conference of the M. E. Church, which includes eight districts of the Home Society. Mrs. Reeves was a delegate representing the local society.

Miss Margaret Gilcrest, who was in Columbus, on Friday and Saturday attending the Teachers Association, spent Saturday evening and Sunday with her brother, John Gilcrest and family in Newark.

Miss Ruth Smith who is a student at the O. S. U. at Columbus, was home over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Braden Smith.

Mr. Milton Snyder, Milton, Ky., has been visiting with his brother, Mr. Hubert S. Snyder and family. Mr. Snyder will also visit with relatives in Dayton and Columbus.

Jamestown friends of Dr. Fred Williams of Wilmington, have received cards announcing the marriage of his youngest daughter, Miss Winifred to Mr. Mary Mason, of Tucson, Arizona. The wedding took place on Saturday, October the 30th at El Paso.

Mr. George Weimer of Dayton, visited at the home of Mr. H. J. Christopher last week.

Mr. O. F. Reeves and family spent Sunday at Athens with their daughter, Miss Frances, who is a student of the Ohio university.

"The Come Join Us" class of the Church of Christ, held their monthly business and social meeting with Floyd Badgley, on Friday evening. After the routine of business was transacted, games and contests were enjoyed. A refreshment course was served by Mrs. Badgley, assisted by Floyd Badgley, and Mrs. Rader being guests of the class. Twenty-eight were present.

Mrs. O. F. Reeves was in Marion, Ohio, last week attending a three day session of the Home Missionary society of the West Ohio conference of the M. E. Church, which includes eight districts of the Home Society. Mrs. Reeves was a delegate representing the local society.

Miss Margaret Gilcrest, who was in Columbus, on Friday and Saturday attending the Teachers Association, spent Saturday evening and Sunday with her brother, John Gilcrest and family in Newark.

Miss Ruth Smith who is a student at the O. S. U. at Columbus, was home over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Braden Smith.

Mr. Milton Snyder, Milton, Ky., has been visiting with his brother, Mr. Hubert S. Snyder and family. Mr. Snyder will also visit with relatives in Dayton and Columbus.

Jamestown friends of Dr. Fred Williams of Wilmington, have received cards announcing the marriage of his youngest daughter, Miss Winifred to Mr. Mary Mason, of Tucson, Arizona. The wedding took place on Saturday, October the 30th at El Paso.

Mr. George Weimer of Dayton, visited at the home of Mr. H. J. Christopher last week.

Mr. O. F. Reeves and family spent Sunday at Athens with their daughter, Miss Frances, who is a student of the Ohio university.

"The Come Join Us" class of the Church of Christ, held their monthly business and social meeting with Floyd Badgley, on Friday evening. After the routine of business was transacted, games and contests were enjoyed. A refreshment course was served by Mrs. Badgley, assisted by Floyd Badgley, and Mrs. Rader being guests of the class. Twenty-eight were present.

LEARN OF DEATH

Word was received Friday by Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ledbetter, this city, of the death of their cousin, Mrs. W. H. Williams, who passed away at her home in Tarkenton, Ind., Thursday evening. Funeral services will be held at the home Sunday morning at 10:45 o'clock.

MINISTER IS NAMED CHAIRMAN OF ROLL CALL AT JAMESTOWN

On Wednesday evening fifty friends and relatives of Norman Leach gave him a pleasant surprise at his home, reminding him of the passing of another anniversary in the pathway of life. Baskets of provisions were brought by the guests from which a bountiful supper was served. The time a late hour.

The Rev. Leslie D. Vesey, pastor of the M. E. church has been appointed chairman of the Jamestown roll call of the Greene Co. chapter of the American Red Cross. Rev. Vesey announced that the soliciting for membership will be done on Armistice day, the eleventh.

Mrs. Sarah Weimer, who has spent several weeks in Springfield with her niece, Mrs. Herman Ackerman, has returned to her home with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Christopher.

Mr. Otto Thorpe and daughters of Columbus visited over the week end with relatives here.

Mrs. Mary Milburn left on Friday for Detroit, where she will spend the winter with her brother, Grant Estep and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rader and son Robert, of Jeffersonville, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harley Badgley the last of the week.

Mrs. Harvey Cummings has had for her guest Mrs. George Weimer of Wilmington.

Mr. Thomas Thumia and granddaughters, Miss Mary Waters and Miss Hazel Shierling, have returned to their home at Saratoga, Ind., after a pleasant visit with Jamestown relatives.

Supt. J. W. Gowdy of the Jamestown schools with his corps of teachers, attended the Central Ohio Teacher's Association, which convened in Columbus on Friday and Saturday.

Mr. George Weimer of Dayton, visited at the home of Mr. H. J. Christopher last week.

Mr. O. F. Reeves and family spent Sunday at Athens with their daughter, Miss Frances, who is a student of the Ohio university.

"The Come Join Us" class of the Church of Christ, held their monthly business and social meeting with Floyd Badgley, on Friday evening. After the routine of business was transacted, games and contests were enjoyed. A refreshment course was served by Mrs. Badgley, assisted by Floyd Badgley, and Mrs. Rader being guests of the class. Twenty-eight were present.

Mrs. O. F. Reeves was in Marion, Ohio, last week attending a three day session of the Home Missionary society of the West Ohio conference of the M. E. Church, which includes eight districts of the Home Society. Mrs. Reeves was a delegate representing the local society.

Miss Margaret Gilcrest, who was in Columbus, on Friday and Saturday attending the Teachers Association, spent Saturday evening and Sunday with her brother, John Gilcrest and family in Newark.

Miss Ruth Smith who is a student at the O. S. U. at Columbus, was home over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Braden Smith.

Mr. Milton Snyder, Milton, Ky., has been visiting with his brother, Mr. Hubert S. Snyder and family. Mr. Snyder will also visit with relatives in Dayton and Columbus.

Jamestown friends of Dr. Fred Williams of Wilmington, have received cards announcing the marriage of his youngest daughter, Miss Winifred to Mr. Mary Mason, of Tucson, Arizona. The wedding took place on Saturday, October the 30th at El Paso.

Mr. George Weimer of Dayton, visited at the home of Mr. H. J. Christopher last week.

Mr. O. F. Reeves and family spent Sunday at Athens with their daughter, Miss Frances, who is a student of the Ohio university.

"The Come Join Us" class of the Church of Christ, held their monthly business and social meeting with Floyd Badgley, on Friday evening. After the routine of business was transacted, games and contests were enjoyed. A refreshment course was served by Mrs. Badgley, assisted by Floyd Badgley, and Mrs. Rader being guests of the class. Twenty-eight were present.

Mrs. O. F. Reeves was in Marion, Ohio, last week attending a three day session of the Home Missionary society of the West Ohio conference of the M. E. Church, which includes eight districts of the Home Society. Mrs. Reeves was a delegate representing the local society.

Miss Margaret Gilcrest, who was in Columbus, on Friday and Saturday attending the Teachers Association, spent Saturday evening and Sunday with her brother, John Gilcrest and family in Newark.

Miss Ruth Smith who is a student at the O. S. U. at Columbus, was home over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Braden Smith.

Mr. Milton Snyder, Milton, Ky., has been visiting with his brother, Mr. Hubert S. Snyder and family. Mr. Snyder will also visit with relatives in Dayton and Columbus.

Jamestown friends of Dr. Fred Williams of Wilmington, have received cards announcing the marriage of his youngest daughter, Miss Winifred to Mr. Mary Mason, of Tucson, Arizona. The wedding took place on Saturday, October the 30th at El Paso.

Mr. George Weimer of Dayton, visited at the home of Mr. H. J. Christopher last week.

Mr. O. F. Reeves and family spent Sunday at Athens with their daughter, Miss Frances, who is a student of the Ohio university.

"The Come Join Us" class of the Church of Christ, held their monthly business and social meeting with Floyd Badgley, on Friday evening. After the routine of business was transacted, games and contests were enjoyed. A refreshment course was served by Mrs. Badgley, assisted by Floyd Badgley, and Mrs. Rader being guests of the class. Twenty-eight were present.

Mrs. O. F. Reeves was in Marion, Ohio, last week attending a three day session of the Home Missionary society of the West Ohio conference of the M. E. Church, which includes eight districts of the Home Society. Mrs. Reeves was a delegate representing the local society.

Miss Margaret Gilcrest, who was in Columbus, on Friday and Saturday attending the Teachers Association, spent Saturday evening and Sunday with her brother, John Gilcrest and family in Newark.

Miss Ruth Smith who is a student at the O. S. U. at Columbus, was home over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Braden Smith.

Mr. Milton Snyder, Milton, Ky., has been visiting with his brother, Mr. Hubert S. Snyder and family. Mr. Snyder will also visit with relatives in Dayton and Columbus.

Jamestown friends of Dr. Fred Williams of Wilmington, have received cards announcing the marriage of his youngest daughter, Miss Winifred to Mr. Mary Mason, of Tucson, Arizona. The wedding took place on Saturday, October the 30th at El Paso.

Mr. George Weimer of Dayton, visited at the home of Mr. H. J. Christopher last week.

Mr. O. F. Reeves and family spent Sunday at Athens with their daughter, Miss Frances, who is a student of the Ohio university.

"The Come Join Us" class of the Church of Christ, held their monthly business and social meeting with Floyd Badgley, on Friday evening. After the routine of business was transacted, games and contests were enjoyed. A refreshment course was served by Mrs. Badgley, assisted by Floyd Badgley, and Mrs. Rader being guests of the class. Twenty-eight were present.

Texas, in the First Baptist Church of that city, the pastor, Rev. T. V. Neal officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Mason left at once by motor for Tucson, where they will reside in a home already furnished by the groom. They stopped in New Mexico, enroute. Mrs. Mason spent her early girlhood in Jamestown, Dr. and the late Mrs. Fred Williams moving here from Wilmington, and later removed to Wilmington where Mrs. Williams resided away. Mr. Mason is also an Ohioan, is the son of Mrs. Edith Mason Christy of Oberlin, his birthplace. Mr. and Mrs. Mason will spend next summer in Alaska, where he is interested in large salmon fisheries.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. McDorman, of Xenia, and Mrs. Clara Hatch of this place attended the funeral services of Allen Barber on Sunday at Leesburg. Mr. Barber whose mother was a Vaniman was born and reared near Bowersville and for some time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, being a relative of the latter. He was a civil war veteran.

The Misses Sanders, who bought the Dr. L. M. Jones property in Jamestown, are moving into it, from their farm south of here, which they have now lived on the same place.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Church of Christ, will have their monthly meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the church. Mrs. W. W. Johnson will preside. The topic for the study hour is "To the Jew First". Mrs. Braden Smith will lead the program, assisted by a group of members. Special music will be one feature.

Mrs. Carry Black, Mrs. Jennie Leasure, Mrs. J. C. Parker, Mrs. Ed. Bishop and niece, Miss Chaire Gordon, visited in Washington, C. H. last week.

James Finn and family of Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Okie Spahr, and Miss Helen spent Sunday with Mrs. James Roberts.

Attorney Stanley Paxson of Washington Court House is the junior member of the law firm of Busch and Clyburn of that city, and has just been elected to the office of Prosecuting Attorney. Mr. Paxson is the son of Attorney W. H. Paxson. After graduating from the Washington high school, he went to the O. W. U., at Delaware, then studied law in Cincinnati and after being admitted to the bar, he practiced in that city for a few years before coming to Fayette County. We also notice that another Greene county boy has been elected to fill the office of treasurer, after serving two years as deputy.

Mr. Radoh Wolf, son of Mrs. Mary Stewart Wolf of Bowersville, Mr. Wolf is a World War veteran, serving two years overseas, having enlisted. He was badly wounded in a battle of the Argonne. After coming home he took advantage of the education, has been successful in all that he has undertaken, beginning first as a bookkeeper in that city. The disability of one leg will go with him through life. Neither of these young men had any opposition at the recent election, which speaks well for them.

The members of the Epworth League of the M. E. Church observed Armistice day at the church on Wednesday evening. An appropriate program was rendered. The refreshments will be along the line of the army provisions. Flags were the decorations.

Mr. O. F. Reeves and family spent Sunday at Athens with their daughter, Miss Frances, who is a student of the Ohio university.

"The Come Join Us" class of the Church of Christ, held their monthly business and social meeting with Floyd Badgley, on Friday evening. After the routine of business was transacted, games and contests were enjoyed. A refreshment course was served by Mrs. Badgley, assisted by Floyd Badgley, and Mrs. Rader being guests of the class. Twenty-eight were present.

Mrs. O. F. Reeves was in Marion, Ohio, last week attending a three day session of the Home Missionary society of the West Ohio conference of the M. E. Church, which includes eight districts of the Home Society. Mrs. Reeves was a delegate representing the local society.

Miss Margaret Gilcrest, who was in Columbus, on Friday and Saturday attending the Teachers Association, spent Saturday evening and Sunday with her brother, John Gilcrest and family in Newark.

Miss Ruth Smith who is a student at the O. S. U. at Columbus, was home over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Braden Smith.

Mr. Milton Snyder, Milton, Ky., has been visiting with his brother, Mr. Hubert S. Snyder and family. Mr. Snyder will also visit with relatives in Dayton and Columbus.

Jamestown friends of Dr. Fred Williams of Wilmington, have received cards announcing the marriage of his youngest daughter, Miss Winifred to Mr. Mary Mason, of Tucson, Arizona. The wedding took place on Saturday, October the 30th at El Paso.

Mr. George Weimer of Dayton, visited at the home of Mr. H. J. Christopher last week.

Mr. O. F. Reeves and family spent Sunday at Athens with their daughter, Miss Frances, who is a student of the Ohio university.

"The Come Join Us" class of the Church of Christ, held their monthly business and social meeting with Floyd Badgley, on Friday evening. After the routine of business was transacted, games and contests were enjoyed. A refreshment course was served by Mrs. Badgley, assisted by Floyd Badgley, and Mrs. Rader being guests of the class. Twenty-eight were present.

Mrs. O. F. Reeves was in Marion, Ohio, last week attending a three day session of the Home Missionary society of the West Ohio conference of the M. E. Church, which includes eight districts of the Home Society. Mrs. Reeves was a delegate representing the local society.

Miss Margaret Gilcrest, who was in Columbus, on Friday and Saturday attending the Teachers Association, spent Saturday evening and Sunday with her brother, John Gilcrest and family in Newark.

Miss Ruth Smith who is a student at the O. S. U. at Columbus, was home over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Braden Smith.

Mr. Milton Snyder, Milton, Ky., has been visiting with his brother, Mr. Hubert S. Snyder and family. Mr. Snyder will also visit with relatives in Dayton and Columbus.

Jamestown friends of Dr. Fred Williams of Wilmington, have received cards announcing the marriage of his youngest daughter, Miss Winifred to Mr. Mary Mason, of Tucson, Arizona. The wedding took place on Saturday, October the 30th at El Paso.

Mr. George Weimer of Dayton, visited at the home of Mr. H. J. Christopher last week.

Mr. O. F. Reeves and family spent Sunday at Athens with their daughter, Miss Frances, who is a student of the Ohio university.

"The Come Join Us" class of the Church of Christ, held their monthly business and social meeting with Floyd Badgley, on Friday evening. After the routine of business was transacted, games and contests were enjoyed. A refreshment course was served by Mrs. Badgley, assisted by Floyd Badgley, and Mrs. Rader being guests of the class. Twenty-eight were present.

Mrs. O. F. Reeves was in Marion, Ohio, last week attending a three day session of the Home Missionary society of the West Ohio conference of the M. E. Church, which includes eight districts of the Home Society. Mrs. Reeves was a delegate representing the local society.

Miss Margaret Gilcrest, who was in Columbus, on Friday and Saturday attending the Teachers Association, spent Saturday evening and Sunday with her brother, John Gilcrest and family in Newark.

Miss Ruth Smith who is a student at the O. S. U. at Columbus, was home over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Braden Smith.

Mr. Milton Snyder, Milton, Ky., has been visiting with his brother, Mr. Hubert S. Snyder and family. Mr. Snyder will also visit with relatives in Dayton and Columbus.

Jamestown friends of Dr. Fred Williams of Wilmington, have received cards announcing the marriage of his youngest daughter, Miss Winifred to Mr. Mary Mason, of Tucson, Arizona. The wedding took place on Saturday, October the 30th at El Paso.

Mr. George Weimer of Dayton, visited at the home of Mr. H. J. Christopher last week.

Mr. O. F. Reeves and family spent Sunday at Athens with their daughter, Miss Frances, who is a student of the Ohio university.

"The Come Join Us" class of the Church of Christ, held their monthly business and social meeting with Floyd Badgley, on Friday evening. After the routine of business was transacted, games and contests were enjoyed. A refreshment course was served by Mrs. Badgley, assisted by Floyd Badgley, and Mrs. Rader being guests of the class. Twenty-eight were present.

"YES, I SOLD IT," HE REPLIED.
"I USED AN AD IN CLASSIFIED."

"I FOUND JUST WHAT I WANT-
ED," SAID HE; "A CLASSIFIED
AD BROUGHT IT TO ME."

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RATES

Daily Rate Per Line for Consecutive Insertions:
1st day 75
2nd day 50
3rd day 40
4th day 30
5th day 25
6th day 20
7th day 15
8th day 10
9th day 10
10th day 10
11th day 10
12th day 10
13th day 10
14th day 10
15th day 10
16th day 10
17th day 10
18th day 10
19th day 10
20th day 10
21st day 10
22nd day 10
23rd day 10
24th day 10
25th day 10
26th day 10
27th day 10
28th day 10
29th day 10
30th day 10
31st day 10
32nd day 10
33rd day 10
34th day 10
35th day 10
36th day 10
37th day 10
38th day 10
39th day 10
40th day 10
41st day 10
42nd day 10
43rd day 10
44th day 10
45th day 10
46th day 10
47th day 10
48th day 10
49th day 10
50th day 10
51st day 10
52nd day 10
53rd day 10
54th day 10
55th day 10
56th day 10
57th day 10
58th day 10
59th day 10
60th day 10
61st day 10
62nd day 10
63rd day 10
64th day 10
65th day 10
66th day 10
67th day 10
68th day 10
69th day 10
70th day 10
71st day 10
72nd day 10
73rd day 10
74th day 10
75th day 10
76th day 10
77th day 10
78th day 10
79th day 10
80th day 10
81st day 10
82nd day 10
83rd day 10
84th day 10
85th day 10
86th day 10
87th day 10
88th day 10
89th day 10
90th day 10
91st day 10
92nd day 10
93rd day 10
94th day 10
95th day 10
96th day 10
97th day 10
98th day 10
99th day 10
100th day 10

Advertisements ordered for irregular insertions will be charged for at the one-time rate. No advertisement will be taken for less than the cost of three lines. Special rates for yearly advertising upon request.
The Publishers will be responsible only for the correct insertion of any advertisement. Classified Ads will be received until 12:30 a. m. for publication the same day.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. Card of Thanks.
2. In Memoriam.
3. Florists, Monuments.
4. Real Estate.
5. Notices, Meetings.
6. Personal.
7. Lost and Found.

BUSINESS CARDS

1. Cleaning, Pressing, Laundering.
2. Dressmaking, Millinery.
3. Beauty Culture.
4. Professional Services.
5. Roofing, Plumbing, Heating.
6. Electricians, Wiring.
7. Building, Contracting.
8. Painting, Papering.
9. Repairing, Refinishing.
10. Moving, Packing, Storage.

EMPLOYMENT

1. Help Wanted—Male.
2. Help Wanted—Female.
3. Help Wanted—Male or Female.
4. Help Wanted—Agents—Salesmen.
5. Situations Wanted.
6. Help Wanted—Instruction.

LIVE STOCK—POULTRY—PETS

1. Dogs—Canaries—Pets.
2. Poultry—Eggs—Supplies.
3. Horses—Cattle—Hogs.
4. Miscellaneous.

MISCELLANEOUS

1. Wanted To Buy.
2. Miscellaneous for Sale.
3. Musical Instruments—Radio.
4. Household Goods.
5. Wearing Apparel—Shoes.
6. Miscellaneous.

RENTALS

1. Where To Eat.
2. Rooms—Win Board.
3. Rooms for Rent—Furnished.
4. Rooms for Rent—Unfurnished.
5. Houses—Furnished.
6. Houses—Unfurnished.
7. Office and Shop Rooms.
8. Miscellaneous for Rent.
9. Wanted To Rent.

REAL ESTATE

1. Houses for Sale.
2. Lots for Sale.
3. Real Estate for Exchange.
4. Farms for Sale.
5. Business Opportunities.
6. Wanted—Real Estate.

AUTOMOTIVE

1. Automobile Insurance.
2. Auto Lending—Leasing.
3. Tires—Auto Batteries.
4. Parts—Service—Repairing.
5. Auto Accessories.
6. Auto Agencies.
7. Used Cars for Sale.

PUBLIC SALES

1. Auctioneers.
2. Auction Sales.

LOST, FOUND, MISCELLANEOUS

1. LOST, SMALL PURSE—Containing $5.00 and some small change in currency and coins. Return to Gazette office.
2. LOST WHITE GOLD—Wrist watch. Return to Gazette office.
3. LOST WHITE GOLD—Wrist watch. Return to Gazette office.
4. LOST WHITE GOLD—Wrist watch. Return to Gazette office.

ROOFING, PLUMBING, HEATING

1. BOOT DESTROYER—Box 250. A small article with best results. Cleans your boots and shoes without washing them down. Ducting—Box 250, Phone 360.
2. HEATING THE HOUSE—Is a costly proposition but you can cut the cost considerably by consulting us. We have all kinds of material and appliances to help you in this. The Booklet—Box 250, Phone 360.

ELECTRICIANS, WIRING

1. STARTER—Generator, in Magneto service—Xenia Storage Battery Co.
2. REPAIRING, REFINISHING.

WINTER—Is just around the corner.

1. WINTER—Is just around the corner. Replace that broken glass. Low. Enormous stock of good glass around at Graham's on S. Whiteman.
2. MOVING, PACKING, STORAGE.

STORAGE SPACE—For household goods, merchandise, machinery, and dead storage of automobiles.

1. STORAGE SPACE—For household goods, merchandise, machinery, and dead storage of automobiles. Phone Xenia 370, 380, or 390.
2. HELP WANTED—MALE.

HELP WANTED—MALE

1. CORN HUSKERS—C. A. Reed, R. No. 2, Xenia, Ohio, Call 493-F.
2. TRUCK DRIVER—For Ford truck. Lampert Floral Co.
3. HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE

1. PLAIN SEWING—Earn up to $5 daily. For particulars write Woman's Aid Society, 1000 Park, N. W.
2. WOMAN—Experienced not necessary. No Sunday work. Regular hotel.
3. EXPERIENCED—Waitress. Interurban Restaurant.
4. HELP WANTED—MALE OR FEMALE.

SALESMEN—Or salesladies for Saturday at Engleman's, W. Main St.

HELP WANTED—AGENTS, SALESMEN

WEEKLY MAN OR WOMAN—Wanted with ambition and industry.

1. WEEKLY MAN OR WOMAN—Wanted with ambition and industry. To distribute Rawleigh's household products to steady users. We train and help you so you can make up to $100 a week or more. No selling experience necessary. Pleasant, profitable, dignified. Write Rawleigh Co. Dept. OH2255, Freeport, Ill.
2. DOGS, CANARIES, PETS.

TRAINED RABBIT HOUNDS—R. W. Peterson, R. No. 2, Xenia

"Not Possible To Classify"

By Mack Sauer

COLUMBUS, OHIO—A few jottings of the day by Samuel Pepys, Jr.—To my grocer, who is lately dead, but his wife do keep up the trade, and left an order for victuals to be delivered anon; and, while there, saw a rough fellow with a mean stare come to buy tobacco, and I frightened that he was a hold-up man, but he was not, so I away, my poor mind at ease.

For a stroll down High Street, and what should I see crossing High Street at Broad but a truck of the Dodds Granite Company from Xenia, with a pole in the back, and going at a high rate of speed, and I fearful that the driver would get pinched for speeding, but he did not. And, lo! what should I hear but someone calling "Prosperity," and before me was Binder, the picture show owner of Xenia, with a badge on his coat lapel, here to a convention of movie owners, I have it, but he saw me not, being too far away and jolly withal.

In the afternoon saw a great racing of policemen, both on horseback and in motors, going by, so took heed and away on their tracks to the state prison, where a crowd gathered and much talk of a jail-break, there being gossip of all kinds about. Saw on the prison walk a pool of blood where one convict shot down, and all about were officers with guns in their hands getting into machines and scattering in every direction. Much mirth with a telephone lineman who at work on a pole across from the prison when the shooting took place, and comical it was to hear him tell of how he went to the top of the pole to escape the bullets. Talked with the warden's daughter, who walked about with a gun in her hand, mighty brave and calm. Many picture men at hand to get photos for the press and had hopes of getting my face in the print but fear they missed me.

In the evening to a great hall to hear Edgar A. Guest and in front of me sat a fat woman with much style and dyed hair, and who turned about in her seat and called out to my wife, poor girl, to keep her feet off her clothes from between the seats, while all the time it was me doing it, and to see the same my wife gave her and to hear the hot words, gave promise of a scene in the hall before the public, but they quieted down much to my relief.

So late home on the trolley, and made the windows and doors tight, scared mightily that some of the escaped convicts would try to get in during the night. And so covered the canopy, and late to bed with prayers.

TERRIBLE THING

Every morning and evening
I sit at the street car
Riding the street car
Watching the knees.

Here's a classified ad from the Mexican Journal of Commerce and Industry, Mexico City, Mexico—"Respectable woman to bring lunch to nightworking man in bed and read, preach, pray, sing, or speak in tongues while he is eating. Write, stating accomplishments and price. Box 1732."

NATURALLY

When the furnace grate
Fell on old man Herve's,
He yelled, "Hey, Ma,
This grate's on my nerves."

Hope to see about 65,000 of you up here in Columbus at the Ohio-Michigan game Saturday. Hope to see ads from dozens of you on this page. Phone 111.

POULTRY, EGGS, SUPPLIES

25

HOUSEHOLD GOODS

30

CHOICE S. C. RHODE ISLAND

25

ROOSTERS, CHICKS, HENS

25

Stock Hogs

25

D. C. Cleveland

25

TWO GOOD SHORT HORN—Bulls

25

DURO BOARS—Two years old

25

HOLSTEIN CATTLE—One week old

25

DELAINE RAM—Good individual

25

SPOTTED POLAND—China girls

25

BIG TYPE POLAND CHINA—Boys

25

FOR SALE—4 feeding steers

25

ONE BUCK—J. F. Zimmerman, R. No. 6

25

MULES—Wagon and harness

25

MISCELLANEOUS FOR SALE

25

CORN HUSKER—For sale

25

HAY BALER—International, with engine

25

GAS HEATER—$6.50—Base burner

25

WHEN BAD WEATHER—Keeps you indoors

25

2 USED KING—Clement heating stoves

25

U. S. CREAM SEPARATOR—in fine condition

25

CHEAP SAWMILL—in good running condition

25

ELECTRIC VICTROLA LAMP—with records

25

WE HAVE EVERYTHING—You need in shot guns and shells

25

RHODE ISLAND—Red cockerels

STOVES—Of all kinds. Bought and sold

25

STOVES, HEATING and cooking stoves of all kinds

25

GET IT AT DONGES

25

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

25

PIANOS—Different kinds, small

25

PARTS, SERVICE, REPAIRING

51

MAIN GARAGE—for expert auto

51

ALCOHOL—Glycerine and ivo for your radiators

51

USED CARS FOR SALE

51

FORD TOURING—With close-tite top

51

BUICK SIX TOURING—in perfect condition

51

LANG'S USED CARS—1925 Ford coupe

51

GOOD USED FORDS—1926 Ford roadster, like new

51

JOHNSTON'S USED CAR DEPT.—1 1925 Star touring 51

OLDSMOBILE TOURING—a real bargain at a low dollar price

51

LEGAL NOTICE

51

PURSUANCE to an order of the Probate Court of Greene County

51

TRACT NO. ONE

51

TRACT NO. TWO

51

TRACT NO. THREE

51

TRACT NO. FOUR

51

TRACT NO. FIVE

51

TRACT NO. SIX

51

TRACT NO. SEVEN

51

TRACT NO. EIGHT

51

TRACT NO. NINE

51

TRACT NO. TEN

51

TRACT NO. ELEVEN

51

TRACT NO. TWELVE

51

TRACT NO. THIRTEEN

51

TRACT NO. FOURTEEN

51

TRACT NO. FIFTEEN

51

TRACT NO. SIXTEEN

51

TRACT NO. SEVENTEEN

51

TRACT NO. EIGHTEEN

51

TRACT NO. NINETEEN

51

TRACT NO. TWENTY

51

TRACT NO. TWENTY-ONE

51

TRACT NO. TWENTY-TWO

51

TRACT NO. TWENTY-THREE

51

TRACT NO. TWENTY-FOUR

51

TRACT NO. TWENTY-FIVE

51

TRACT NO. TWENTY-SIX

51

TRACT NO. TWENTY-SEVEN

51

TRACT NO. TWENTY-EIGHT

51

TRACT NO. TWENTY-NINE

51

TRACT NO. THIRTY

51

page 492, and the other sold and conveyed to Betty Tedford by Deed recorded in Volume 132, page 635 of the Deed Records of Greene County.

The above and foregoing property described herein as Tract No. Four is conveyed on express conditions and covenants, the benefit of which shall inure to the holders of the lots in the plat herein above described, and to the grantors, or their heirs, or assigns, as a part of the consideration hereon.

That the premises granted shall be used for residential purposes only, and that no building, or structure of any kind whatever, other than a dwelling house, or other building incident thereto shall be erected thereon and provided further, that no dwelling house shall be erected thereon which shall cost less than Thirty-two ($32.00) Dollars of lawful money of the United States.

The above tract No. Four has been laid off into four separate tracts, three of which measure 50 feet on Towler Street extended by 175 feet and one 48 feet by 175 feet. The first one of the said tracts North of Towler Street has been appraised at $400.00; the second and third tracts next adjacent have been appraised at $350.00 each. The remainder at $300.00.

TRACT NO. FIVE
Situate in the City of Xenia, County of Greene, State of Ohio, being a part of out lot No. Three in said City, and for the part hereby conveyed bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point in the South line of Water Street, northwest corner to a graveyard lot; thence with the line of said street—feet to a stake on the west bank of a branch, corner to J. L. Jones property; thence with their line and north west bank of the said branch 27 degrees W. 137.7 feet to a stake on the north line of the said branch, corner to said heirs; thence S. 10 degrees 39 minutes E. a cost to the point in the Xenia Railroad right-of-way, and thence with the line of said railroad company; thence with the north line of the said right-of-way N. 73 degrees 1-1/2 minutes E. to a point in said line and west line of said lot, N. E. corner to Hollen- camp 30 minutes W. 237 feet to the said graveyard lot; thence with the south line to

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Copyright 1925
Keyes Religious News Service

Sunday School Lessons

By Franklin Parker
CALEB'S FAITHFULNESS
REWARDED

TIME: B. C. 1444.
PLACE: Gilgal, Israel's first place of camping in Canaan.
PERSONS: Caleb, Caleb's friends, and Joshua.
GOLDEN TEXT: I wholly followed Jehovah my God.
PRINTED TEXT: Joshua 14:6-15.

INTRODUCTION: Israel won at Jericho but she sinned and lost at Ai. We must keep close to God if we expect to win continuously. The covenant was renewed between God and the Israelites at Ebal. They proceeded on their way of victories, at Gibeon (Bethoron), and Merom. The nine and a half tribes gathered at Gilgal, after six years of victorious conquest, for a distribution of the land, since the remaining two and one half tribes had settled on the east side of the Jordan river.

CALEB'S STORY: Here the first individual ownership of land was instituted, since the land was allotted to the people instead of being nationalized and held in common. Caleb requested that they hear his story before they divided the land by calling attention to the time, forty years ago, when he, Joshua, with ten faithful spies and himself had gone into that same land to spy it out for God and their people. He had Joshua as a witness that he had wholly followed the Lord, and his ideas, directed and strengthened by God, they had won over these same enemies.

MOSES' PROMISE: "Surely the land whereon thy foot treadeth shall be an inheritance to thee." Moses had promised and so the words of many good men, now gone, come back to us fulfilled. Here was a foot print to land, which was a sure and solid title. Christian life must be obtained by the foot print title method. "One thing I know, that whereas I was blind, now I see." John 9:25.

CALEB AT AGE—85: Joshua lived those forty-five years since the promise but he had faith, and the faithless had died in the wilderness but the Lord had kept him alive, strong and full of faith, now at the age of eighty-five. Lust and sin age men before their time. Few things warm the world as a sunny, cheery old age. The hoary head is a crown of glory if found in the way of righteousness.

CALEB'S CHOICE: Down in the Jordan valley were fat lands, verdant gardens, all abloom with olive trees and vineyards, and fields waving with golden grain. He had a perfect right to take a choice piece of land here but did he? He chose the mountain or hill country around Hebron where only hard labor would produce a living. The choice was a challenge to its owner to perform a great task and would not cause him to be undermined in health by sitting by and taking it easy. All of us need a great objective to which to work, and the mountain of God is the greatest objective we can have. The hill country meant difficulty. White collar positions are often treacherous. Roosevelt was threatened with that kind of a life so he took to the West and came back to sit in a president's chair. Let our young men not be afraid of hard places but rather choose them and tackle them, and while they are conquering the mountain, the mountain will conquer their health and mental flabbiness and turn them into strong self-reliant men. His choice was good for others also.

His choice was the very best college to which he could hope to send his children, to produce men of strong character. He turned the stony ground into olive orchards and wheat fields. Let us choose mountains of difficulty that will be turned into fields of blessing for others. God's mountain will far excel our expectations and this mountain is His kingdom.

CALEB'S BLESSING: "And Joshua blessed him and gave him Hebron for an inheritance." On the day forty-five years before when this same Caleb and Joshua made the minority report on what they found in this same land and the other ten spies succeeded in putting fear into the minds of the Israelites they almost came to stoning him to death. But his day has come. Time rights some wrongs. This was Caleb's day and the other ten spies were buried in the wilderness with all the rest of the faithless. His faith and splendid deeds are heralded before the world to this day. Beware of the man who forges the future, his day is coming. The Christian is working on that which reaches into the future and lays hold on eternity. Eddies do not turn the river back. Present trials are only stepping stones to triumph. The devil may have the believer's past but the future is in Christ's care, with God. The Christian may be resisted and criticized now, but his day is coming, and then, when others are shut out through unbelief, he shall hear, "Come, ye, blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. And that Christian shall enter into the gates of the holy city."

GO YE ALL TO CHURCH AND WORSHIP IN QUIET AND REVERENCE THE ONE AND ONLY GOD WHO HAS DELIVERED HIS ONLY BEGOTTEN SON TO SUFFER THE AGONY OF THE CROSS, AND THAT SAME GOD WHO HAS PERMITTED YOU AND TO LIVE FROM DAY TO DAY ENJOYING THE MANY BLESSINGS OF NATURE AND THOSE THINGS MATERIAL THAT GO TO BLESS US. TAKE UP CHURCH IS HOW TO KEEP HAPPY.

A. J. Gordon met an old man one day going to the place of worship. "Aged friend," he said, "why should so old a man be so happy and cheerful?" "All are not," said he, "Well, then, why should you be so happy?" "Because I belong to the Lord." "Are you any other happy at your time of life?" "No, not one, my friendly questioner," said he, and his form straightened into that of his former days, and his countenance glowed. "Listen, please, to the truth, from one who knows, and then, if you wish, I will find that man three scores and ten years shall be found to gain say if the devil has no happy old men." A. C. Morrow.

COMPLETE FAITH
Caleb means all heart. Break a piece of red glass painted 400 years ago and the middle will be found to be as red as the outside; the color is not only on but in it and through it. Now, A. D. this is the art to perform is to fix the red on one side of the glass, and that so faint that it often fades off in a few years. No doubt a greater mystery is lost in our age, viz: the transmitting of pity entirely through a clean heart that a man may be alike inside as well as outside. Heart perfect: oh—the finest of wares. All his days: oh—the largest of measures.—Fuller.

EMERSON
Great men are more distinguished by range and extent, than by originality. If we require the originality, which consists in weaving, like a spider, their web from their own bowels; in finding clay, in making bricks, and building the house, no great art is original. The greatest genius is the most indebted man.

"The very stone which the builders despised, has now itself become the corner stone. This corner has come from the Lord, and is marvelous in our eyes." Sermonettes.

OFF WITH A SMILE
The good ship sailed away to the West, away on the summer sea; And it carried away the best that we had, A royal company. They went to the wild frontiers of life, To the lands of the living dead; They shed no tear, they felt no fear; "We are off with a smile," they said, "Bringers of good tidings, these, To them who wait for light; To jungle land and desert sand, They went to break the night. They gave up home and friends and ease, The things we count worth while, But all this loss they counted Dross, And sailed away with a smile—To the Golden State Missionaries by Baird.

BIBLE STORY CONTINUED
So Moses came into the house of Jethro, and dwelt there. By and by the priest wedded him to his daughter Zipporah, and they had a son whom Moses called "Gershom," which means "a stranger here," because he knew that Midian was only his shelter for a while, and not his home.

Many a year he who had been a prince in Egypt dwelt as a shepherd in Midian. Day by day he led the flocks of Jethro to the pastures in the narrow valleys that run up among the splintered hills of Sinai. All this time his heart was with his brethren in Egypt, and he thought of their misery and their cruel toil. But a greater than he was thinking of them also; and in His own time He showed His servant that He remembered the promises which He had made to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Moses had brought the flocks of Jethro to a valley, in the range of Horeb, and, as he sat in the sunlight, and dreamed of the sorrow of his kindred, he saw, against the burnt flocks of the mountainside, the flicker of a moving flame. It rose and fell and waved among the branches and leaves of an acacia bush; yet not a leaf or branch was scorched. Then said Moses, "I will go and see this wonder, why the bush is not burnt." But as he drew near, the voice of God came from the midst of the flaming bush. "Come not near; put off thy sandals, for thou art standing upon holy ground." And Moses knew that Jehovah was in the flame.

He covered his face, for he dared not look upon God; and the Lord's voice spoke again. "I have seen the affliction of my people in Egypt, and their sorrows; and I am come down to deliver them, and to lead them out of Egypt into a good land, a land flowing with milk and honey. Come, now, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh that thou mayst bring forth my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt." (Continued.)

STEVENSON
To be what we are, and to become what we are capable of becoming, is the only end of life.

THE AUTUMN LEAF
Come learn a lesson from the autumn leaf, all dressed in scarlet and gold; Dropping down from a lofty throne, down to the dirt and mold. See it flying in the sunlit air, So cheerful, playful and brave; Lingering for a happy moment there, Then dropping, at last, to a grave. Will you learn the lesson child of man? May the leaf your teacher be? The God who fashioned the little leaf, Is the God who cares for thee. Then work and wait through the summer day, Accepting what He may send; Making your life, like the little leaf, beautiful at the end.

EAST END CHURCHES
Rev. Dr. G. D. Miller, of Richmond, Ky., arrived in this city yesterday, and now has charge of the campaign. He preached a very forceful and convincing sermon Wednesday evening at the Third Baptist church, from the words as found in St. Luke, 16, 5. "How much Lovest Thou My Lord." The public is invited to all of the services. The church will be warm. Pray for a great meeting. Hear Dr. Miller this evening. Time—8:15 p. m. Praise service—7:30 p. m.

THE FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH
The First A. M. E. church welcomes as its pastor the Rev. L. C. Fisher, D. D. Professor of Pastoral Theology in Payne Theological Seminary. We are glad to welcome to our pulpit a man who comes from two of the outstanding schools of the country, Fisk University and Oberlin Graduate School of Theology.

We believe that our church is entering upon a large service in our community. Those who heard our pastor last Sunday morning on "The Man With a Buried Talent" and in the evening on "Living in God's Sunshine" will no doubt be glad to come next Sunday and hear him.

Morning service 10:30. Subject "The Brooding Spirit." Sunday School 12 o'clock, Archie Newsome, Supt. 6:30 p. m. Allen League, C. E. Lucy Bramlette, president. Program leader, Alicia Johnson, who is arranging a splendid program with the assistance of the rest of the program committee. Topic, "Interdenominational Fellowship" to be discussed by Mr. Banks of the Christian Church. Hear him.

7:30 p. m. Sermon by pastor, "The Open Vision." You are welcome at any of our services.

MIDDLE RUN BAPTIST CHURCH
W. C. Allen, Pastor
10:45 a. m., theme: "Hungry But Happy."
2:15 p. m., Sunday School. J. T. Rountree, Superintendent.
6:30 p. m., B. Y. P. U., Mary L. Allen, Pres.
7:30 p. m., sermon and worship. All services spiritual. Come and be at home.

CHURCH DIRECTORY

CHURCH	LOCATION	PASTOR
American Rescue Workers	West Main St.	E. H. Everett
Christ Episcopal	25-27 East Church St.	C. O. Nybladh
Christian Science Society	127 East Second St.	F. H. Landgrabe
Church of the Nazarene	Bellbrook and Orange Sts.	T. C. Hamans
East Main St. Church of Christ	Main and Columbus Sts.	R. E. Brown
First A. M. E. Church	Cor. Market and Columbus	C. E. Engelhard
First Baptist	Cor. Whitman and Market Sts.	W. N. Shank
First Lutheran	West Main St.	David A. Sellers
First Methodist	West Second St.	A. J. Furstnberger
First Reformed	N. Detroit at Church St.	James P. Lytle
First U. B.	West Third St.	Russell Burkett
First U. P.	East Market at Collier St.	W. C. Allen
Friends	Chestnut and High Sts.	William H. Tilford
Middle Run Baptist	Market and West Sts.	David Powers
Presbyterian	Second and West Sts.	R. E. Hutchinson
St. Brigid's	Cor. Monroe and Church	H. B. McElree
St. John's A. M. E.	Market and King Sts.	A. M. Howe
Second United Presbyterian	East Main St.	B. E. Smith
Third Baptist	East Main St.	V. F. Brown
Third M. E.	East Main St.	A. L. Dooley
Trinity Methodist	East Main and Monroe
Zion Baptist	East Main St.

HAVE YOU TRIED A LOAF OF

Our New Bread Hot

All Grocers Handle It.

Bake Rite Bakery

Our New Location 113 E. Main St.

Sermons from THE NATIONAL CATHEDRAL

THIRD BAPTIST CHURCH

A. M. Howe, Minister
9:30 a. m., Bible School. H. W. Gales, Supt.

10:45 a. m., worship and sermon. Theme of sermon: "The Gospel of the Nazarene." Hand of Fellowship and Communion.
3 p. m., preaching. Theme of sermon: "The Open Windows."
6:30 p. m., B. Y. P. U. Mrs. E. Simms, Pres. An inspiring program arranged.

7:45 p. m., worship and sermon. Theme: "Prepare To Meet Thy God."
Rev. Dr. G. D. Miller will preach at each service.

Evangelistic services all next week. Everybody is invited.

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH

R. E. Hutchison, Pastor
There were twenty-six additions to our church this past conference year instead of six as was published last week.
The prayer meeting was at high water mark Wednesday evening which was conducted by Rev. Pearle and Mrs. Emma Robinson. Sunday will be a high day with us.

10:45 a. m., praise service and preaching by the Rev. L. T. Thornhill of Pittsburgh, Pa. Text: Prov. 4:23—"Keep Thy Heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life." Special feature, solo, Rev. G. H. Crayton. You will not regret having heard these men.

12:30 p. m., Sunday School, special feature, declamation by Sister Verona Kaye. W. S. Rogers, Supt.
6:00 p. m., A. C. E. League and program conducted by the pastor. Mrs. Eunice Cross, Pres.
7:00 p. m., praise service and preaching by Mrs. Emma Robinson. Mrs. Robinson is a splendid speaker, come and hear her. Everybody is welcome.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

A. M. Cromwell, Pastor
Bible School, 10:00 a. m.
Preaching, 11:00 a. m.
Subject: "Are You Ready For The Work?" The regular monthly meeting of the Missionary Society will be held at the church, Sunday afternoon at 2:30.
Regular church services at 7:30. The C. E. will give a social Saturday afternoon and evening at the church. The church with a welcome.

MINISTERS
Please bring in copy for church notices not later than Thursday afternoon so that they may be published on this page. Other material of church interest will be accepted for this page at the same time.

BY THE RIGHT REV. JAMES E. FREEMAN, D. D. LL.D.

THE PASSION FOR LIFE
Ecclesiastes: 3:11, "He has set eternity in their hearts."

The passion for life transcends all others. "Tis life whereof our souls are scant, More life and fuller that we want." We are ever reaching out from our to-day into our to-morrows. We satisfy for some brief hour our whims and appetites, only to experience a new hunger and a greater hunger. To every normal man or woman, there come times when peering down into the future, they ask the age-old question: "If a man die, shall he live again?" Every now and again some outstanding spokesman arises to give new zest to this mighty query.

Recently the great wizard, Thomas Edison, gave expression to his views concerning this burning theme, in which he declared his belief in the immortality of man. It was the later conviction of one who, possibly beyond any other, has contributed to the wealth and satisfaction of life. Reaching up into the unknown future, he gave expression to the deeper yearnings of his heart. Simultaneously, Sir Oliver Lodge, one of the greatest of world scientists, declared: "I may say that my views have crystallized into conviction on two definite principles. First, that human survival is a fact. Second, that death is only an episode in a continuous existence."

More and more men are turning their thoughts, as they have ever done, to this greatest of all themes. More and more they are coming to realize that this life is but preliminary to a life that knows no ending. However flippantly at times we may treat this absorbing subject, in more reflective hours and more particularly in times of great suffering and grief, we give ourselves to its consideration.

The ancient writer of Ecclesiastes maintained that, "God has set eternity in their hearts." To his mind, God has implanted in every human heart the passion for that which is attainable. That, "out of the heart are the issues of life," and that somewhere, somehow, these must find their larger satisfaction, was his profound conviction. If this conception of the larger life, which inheres in every breast, is an incentive to its fulfillment, it is reasonable to suppose that what we are here, determines in some wise what we shall be there. In youth through means of training and education, we fit ourselves for the tasks of professions to which we are accredited. In fine, what we would be is largely determined by the way in which we make ready for it. If this analogy holds true it is but reasonable to believe that, viewing the life that is to be in the light of the life that is, we should, with painstaking care, fit ourselves for the highest fulfillment of our hopes and aspirations. If we hold that God has set eternity in our hearts, and if out of this deeper feeling, we believe that today is but the vestibule of tomorrow, then logically we must fit ourselves for that which our inmost nature demands.

A great secular writer declares that "it would seem, that God has ever planted man with his face toward Himself, and whispered to him the secret of his destination. The germ of the idea of God, and the idea of immortality, come direct from One who knows. There can be no successful argument with that authority." Upon this assumption he declares: "God is, assuredly, and there is life beyond the grave." With this thesis he maintains, we are moving on toward our highest fulfillment. If the heart is the repository of our affections, we may also believe that it is the repository of our hopes and aspirations. No matter how the years may deplete our strength or take from us the enthusiasms of youth or from the zest for work, we still feel the quickening of our emotions as we contemplate the possibilities of the larger life, toward which we are hastening on. Surely, "God has set eternity in our hearts." Christ's appeal was directed to the human heart. He reasoned little, and argued not at all with men. He made His appeal to the finer qualities of man's nature, His was the method of the mother, winsome, fascinating and compelling. He literally wooed the world away from old concepts of life, stimulated it with freshened hope, beckoned it on to higher ideas and inspired it with a vision of its ultimate destiny.

CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE

Corner Orange and Ballbrook St.
F. H. Landgrabe, Pastor.

Sabbath school 9:15.
Worship 10:30, subject "Grace." Evening worship 7:00.
Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7:00.
The public is cordially invited to attend all the services of the church.

FIRST REFORMED CHURCH

North Detroit at Church St.
David A. Sellers, Pastor.

9:15 a. m. Bible school. Opening services in charge of Asst. Supt. H. E. Elchman. Dr. T. P. Bolliger, Western Supt. of Home Missions in the Reformed church will speak at the opening of the School on "The Winnebago Indian on a New Trail." This is Home Mission Sunday. Everyone is urged to come. In the morning worship, Dr. Bolliger will speak again on the subject "The Reformed Church working with God!"
At 4:00 p. m. this church unites in the "Combination Vesper Service" at the Presbyterian Church which will be addressed by Mrs. J. P. White on "Mohammedan Reform." There is an increasing interest being shown in these services. "Come thou with us and we will do thee good!"

Church Services

AMERICAN RESCUE WORKERS

E. Everett, Pastor
Sabbath School, 2:30.
Praise service 3:30. Preaching, 7:30. Everybody welcome. Mrs. Hill will have full charge of all business, take care of all money and everything given for charity giving full account of all that comes in and what it is spent for. Our books will be open at any time to any one. Mrs. Hill will hold the same rank as myself.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH

Willoughby N. Shank, Pastor
"Let us put into our work more of God and less of self."
The Sunday School hour is 9 with classes for all grades.
Preaching by the pastor from subject: "Mathematics of the Bible."
The Epworth League hour is 6. Union services with Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church at 7. Dr. V. F. Brown bringing the message, "Feed your souls as regularly and as generously as your body."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY

127 E. Second St.
Sunday services, 10:45 a. m. Subject: "Mortals and Immortals." Sunday School at which children up to the age of twenty years are admitted at 9:30 a. m.
Wednesday evening testimonial meeting at 7:30 o'clock.
The reading room is open Monday, Tuesday and Saturday from 1:30 to 4:30 p. m.
To each of these services and to the reading room, the public is cordially invited.

SECOND U. P. CHURCH

Cor. Market and West Sts.
H. B. McElree, Pastor.
Sabbath School, 9:30.
Morning worship, 10:30.
Y. P. C. U., 6:00.
Evening worship, 7:00.
Prayer meeting Wednesday 7:30.
This is a friendly church and a welcome awaits any who may worship here.

CHRIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Church school at 9:15 a. m.
Morning service and sermon at 10:30. Subject: "The Call to All."

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Market and King Sts.
Rev. Wm. H. Tilford, Minister.
9:15 a. m., Sunday School. D. D. Jones, Supt.
10:15 a. m., morning worship. Sermon theme: "The Revolt Against Dulness." Music by the Choir. "Helpful Service of Worship."
4:00 p. m., Combination Vesper services in this church. Mrs. J. P. White will deliver the third lecture on Mohammedan Life—"Native Measures of Reform."
One hour of intense interest for everyone. Public invited.
Monday evening, 8:00 p. m., community lecture course. First lecture number free. Everybody invited.

SPRING VALLEY

Rev. J. F. Young, Pastor
10:30 a. m., sermon: "God Owns the World."
7:00 p. m., First Quarterly Conference. Sermon by Dr. Jesse Swank, Dist. Supt.

BELLBROOK

Rev. J. F. Young, Pastor
The regular preaching services will be at 2 p. m., instead of at 7 p. m., on account of the First Quarterly Conference at Spring Valley. Note the change in the hour. Sermon by the pastor. Come.

FIRST LUTHERAN CHURCH

West Main Street
C. E. Engelhard, Pastor.
"Patriotic Sunday"
Sunday School 9:15.
A friendly and growing school welcomes you.

Interesting classes for all. You will profit by coming. Public Worship 10:30. You will receive help and inspiration to live the Christian Life. Sermon: "Christians Conquer" by Love not by Force." Special Music.
Important Congregational Meeting.
Young People enjoy these interesting and lively meetings. Come. Attend some church every Sunday.

THE SAMARITAN ARMY, INC.

Cor. East Market and Fair Streets
Staff Captain H. Isenrager District Officer in charge
Our revival closes this Sunday evening with the 7:30 service. During our revival we have taken in a few new soldiers and our attendance has been more than we expected.
We all want children for our Sunday School, who do not attend elsewhere anyone not having proper clothing for Sunday, let us know and we will try to fit them out.
Company meeting 2:00 p. m.
Praise meeting 3:00 p. m.
Soldiers meeting 6:30 p. m.
Battle for Souls 7:30 p. m.
Prayer Meeting 7:30 p. m.
The Soldiers Meeting is a private meeting for officers, soldiers and candidates every member must be present. No excuse acceptable excepting sickness.

TRINITY M. E. CHURCH

V. F. Brown, Pastor.
The church with a warm welcome to all announces Sunday School, 9:15 a. m., with a good orchestra to help and classes suited to all ages. Public worship, with sermons by the pastor, 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. Special significance to Armistice Day at the morning hour on "The World-Wide Victory." Members of the American Legion, Veterans of the World War, are especially invited to attend. At the evening hour, First Church joins with us. Good music at all services. Midweek service Wednesday 7:30 p. m. Meet me there.

CONFERENCE FRIDAY

Quarterly Conference of Xenia United Brethren Church will be held in the Chapel Friday evening at 7:30, in charge of Dr. Fred Denison, Miami Conference Supt., and Mrs. Cinda Ayer, Secretary. All members of the church requested to be present.

THE UNITED BRETHREN

Rev. A. J. Furstnberger, Pastor.
265 Chestnut St.
Sunday School hour, 9:30 a. m. Worship hour, 10:45 a. m. Subject of the message of pastor, "Christ Our Rock." Another spiritual lesson from Moses smiting the Rock at Horeb. Christian Endeavor at 6 p. m. Evangelistic service at 7 p. m. Pastor will preach on the subject "What Does the Scriptures Say about the World Getting Better or Worse?"
Quarterly Conference this Friday evening in the chapel. All members requested to be present.
On next Wednesday evening the pastor will give the first of a series of Bible Lessons from the Four Gospels on "The Kingdom." Public invited to bring Bibles.
Sunday November 21st, will be Good Samaritan Class Day. The United Brethren Church will be favored in the morning service the 21st, by a message from Dr. W. G. Clippinger, president of Otterbein College.

FIRST U. P. CHURCH

E. Market at Collier
James P. Lytle, Pastor.
9:30 a. m. The Bible School.
10:30 a. m. Public worship.
6 p. m. the Y. P. C. U.
7 p. m. Evening hour.
Sermons by Mr. Lytle at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. Visitors most welcome. Midweek meeting, Wednesday 7:30 p. m.

FRIENDS CHURCH

Chestnut and High Sts.
Russell Burkett, Pastor.
Leslie Jordan, Supt.
Sunday morning worship 9:30 to 11:30.
Teaching period 9:30 to 10:30. Classes for all ages.
Morning worship 10:30 to 11:30. Sermon by the pastor.
Christian Endeavor 6 p. m. Violet Lane, leader.
Evening service 7.
Prayer meeting 7:30 Wednesday evening.
Missionary Society will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Floyd Anderson, 101 W. Market St.

R. E. LUCE

Plumbing and Tinning
42 East Main St.
Xenia, Ohio

Ralph M. Neeld

BUCK & SON
Fresh and Smoked Meats
Butter, Eggs and Cheese
South Detroit St.
Both Phones 25

Ride to Church in a YELLOW TAXI

Comfort—Courtesy—Service.
Office Atlas Hotel
Phone 296

AAA GREENE CO.

GLASS
Auto Windshields and Side-lights. Installed Quickly.
FRED F. GRAHAM

This page is made possible by these business firms who believe that the church represents the greatest force for good

So Smooth—So Powerful
LANG CHEVROLET CO.
33 Green St.
Phone 901

Voulez-Vous
Poudre de Coty?
SAYRE'S DRUG STORE
have a new shipment of Coty's Poudre And Parfums
And Poudre Comprimées

THE STOUT COAL CO.
J. J. Stout, Pres. and Gen'l Mgr.
High Grade Domestic Coal and Coke
Also Cement, Lime and Builders' Supplies
Office and Yards—
Washington St. and Home Ave.
Phone 22

SIGNS
"NO HUNTING".
AND OTHER SIGNS
Already Made Up.
ECKERLE PRINTING CO.
Phone 546
Green at Market

Wilkin & Wilkin
OPTICAL
Parlor

Everything Electrical
—At—EICHMAN & MILLER
82 W. Main St.
Phone 652

DR. G. W. KUHN
—Dentistry—
Exodontia and Plate Work a specialty
Hours 8 to 11:30—1 to 5
Bell Phone 62-W.
26 S. Detroit. Kingsbury Bldg.

GLASS
Auto Windshields and Side-lights. Installed Quickly.
FRED F. GRAHAM

SONGBIRD GIVES CHIRPERS ADVICE

JEANNE GORDON

By MARY BLADE

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Don't spurn the church choir or the movie theater, is the advice to young singers given by Jeanne Gordon, prima donna contralto of the Metropolitan Opera. In one short year Miss Gordon, American, covered the ten blocks of Broadway from the Rivoli theater to the Metropolitan Opera house. "The trouble with the student who comes to New York," Miss Gordon says, "is that he wants to start at the Metropolitan Opera house, or Carnegie hall, or some such 'highest' point as a debut. He or she doesn't want small church positions, small club engagements and oh, dear, no, not a move house!"

"I consider the moving picture house experience one of the finest back-drops to a successful musical career I know. It has been mine, so I speak first hand from experience. My five years at the Metropolitan Opera house, my tours with the Scotti Opera Company, in fact everything that I have today, is due to my appearances at the Rivoli and the Rivoli theaters in New York."

"While singing in the movies I had the opportunity of being heard by concert and operatic managers and also the further opportunity and good luck to sing what I wanted—namely scenes from the grand operas. My engagements came as a direct result of these appearances at the

DEPENDABLE

COAL ALWAYS

PHONE 63

LEDBETTER

Single Control

THE CROSLLEY

FIVE TUBE

5-50

IN SOLID MAHOGANY CABINET

—FOR—

$50

This is a five tube radio with its single drum station selector, and installed in a solid mahogany two tone cabinet. It incorporates two stages of non-oscillating radio frequency amplification, regenerative Crescendon controlled detector, and two stages of audio frequency amplification with means provided for use of a power tube in the last stage. All stations found instantly on this one tube control which revolves smoothly under slight pressure. Can be calibrated for wave lengths. Incorporates new shielded compartment metal chassis.

MR. LYON GALLOWAY, well known local radio operator and electrician has the following to say of the new Crosley five tube radio:

"Mr. Vanderpool, the Crosley agent, gave me the opportunity last night to try out the new single control drum five tube radio set which I found to give the very best results, both as to distance and quality, without any whistling noise. The logging is a distinct feature on this drum type set, whereby you can turn right after night to the same station without guess work."

W. Lyon Galloway, 110 W. Main St. Xenia, Ohio.

See These Wonderful Sets And Get My Prices

John Vanderpool

16-18 N. Whiteman St.

Xenia, Ohio

THE OLD HOME TOWN

© Lee W. Stanley, 1926, Johnson Features, Inc. 11-12-26

THE WINCHESTER STORE

SEASON OPENS NOV. 15

Our new stock of hunting equipment is now on display and we are truly proud of it. We know you will appreciate the special care with which the selections were made. Only equipment that we know to be practical and absolutely reliable was chosen. Every thing you need for a successful hunting season is ready for you here. Why not come in and look us over this week? Now is the time to get your outfit ready.

HUNTING COATS, SHELL VESTS, GUN CASES, HUNTING KNIVES, FLASHLIGHTS, HUNTING CAPS, SHELL BELTS, CLEANING RODS, HUNTER'S AXES, VACUUM BOTTLES

Start the Season With a New WINCHESTER

Model 12—A perfectly balanced Hammerless Repeating Shotgun.

Also a full stock of single and double barrel guns.

Ask Us About WINCHESTER
TRADE MARK

OVAL SHELLS

High Velocity Long Ranges.

We stock them in 12-16-20 Gauge.

For cleaning, polishing, lubricating, removing and preventing rust. Add years to the life of your gun.

Babb's Hardware Store

16 S. Detroit St.

Phone 53-R.

THE WINCHESTER STORE

PORT WILLIAM

Mrs. Luther Bailey was hostess to the Dover W. C. T. U. at her country home west of town one Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Howell spent Thursday in Dayton.

Rev. R. P. Hudnall has announced that Sunday morning at 10:30 his sermon subject will be "Under the Fig Tree."

Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Mason and daughter, Berneda were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Powers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gilliam and family entertained to dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Orville Ellis.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Johnson and family formerly of Wilmington have moved to the Gotherman farm.

Miss Maxine Ruth, of Washington C. H. is visiting with grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Borton.

The Home and School league will meet Thursday evening at the Community House at 7:30

ADAIR'S

One Day Sale of Floor Lamps
Saturday

$1.00
DOWN

Select Your New Lamp First Thing Tomorrow

Lamps were never priced as low as in this sale. You'll say so yourself when you see the wonderful assortment and note the extremely low prices.

Bridge Lamps Silk Shades	Priced $6.50, $1.00 Down.
Bridge Lamps Glase Shades	Priced $8.75, $1.00 Down.
Floor Lamps Silk Shades	Priced $8.75, $1.00 Down.
Floor Lamps Glase Shades	Priced $13.00, $1.00 Down.
Floor Lamps Silk Shades	Priced $13.00, $1.00 Down.
Floor Lamps Fringed Silk Shades	Priced $16.75, $1.00 Down.
Bridge Lamp Marble Base	Priced $17.00, $1.00 Down.
Table Lamp Vase Base, Silk Shade	Priced $4.95, $1.00 Down.

The above list is only a sample of our large assortment.

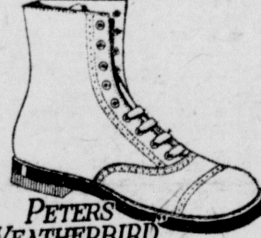

Established
1886

ADAIR'S

20-24 North Detroit St

KENNEDY'S

Shoes will bear up bravely under the prolonged scuffing and tramping and constant hard wear. Bring the children to us. We can solve your school shoe problem happily and at a big saving in price.

Peters' WEATHERBIRD

Sizes 9 to 13 ----- $1.98

Sizes 11 1-2 to 2 ----- $2.48

Peters' WEATHERBIRD

Sizes 9 to 13 ----- $1.98

Sizes 13 1-2 to 5 1-2 ----- $2.48

Keds Boys' Gym Shoes, Brown Trimmings. $1.45

LADIES' STRAPS

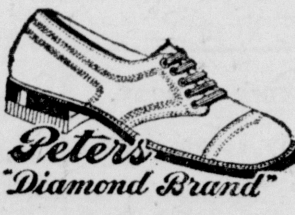

Peter's "Diamond Brand"

Patent or Kid with Fancy Cut out front strap and quarter flexible soles and tap rubber heels. A happy combination of style fit and quality. A regular $4.00 value.

Our Special Price
Sizes 2 1-2 to 8 ----- $2.98

YOUNG LADIES' OXFORDS

Peter's "Diamond Brand"

Tan and Black Calfskin. Light flexible sole, low rubber heels. A new Fall Pattern. A regular $4.00 value.

Our Special Price
Sizes 2 1-2 to 8 ----- $2.98

Men's Work Shoes, Chocolate Glove Outing Bal, made over full easy fitting lasts, for solid comfort and long wear. Sizes 6 to 11.

OUR SPECIAL PRICE
$1.98 a pair

Economy Shoe Store

39 West Main St.

ETTA KETT

WASHINGTON FACES SERIOUS SITUATION WITH FUNDS SPENT

City Lacks Police And Fire Protection When Three Mill Levy Fails—Some Interpret Vote As Rebuke To Mayor Allen

Was the failure of Washington, C. H. citizens to vote an extra three mill levy at the November election a rebuke to Mayor Rell G. Allen or an effort to keep down taxes?

That is the question Washington is asking itself as its city council, with its back to the wall, is grinding out legislation that will permit the transfer of $2,500 from the general to the safety fund to help provide police and fire protection.

The state law which forbids the city spending money not in the city treasury or in process of collection is back of the present straitened financial condition of Washington but failure of the proposed three mill levy precipitated the financial trouble.

Paced with the necessity of voting an extra levy for operating expenses or suspending municipal functions, Washington went to the polls and voted the issue down. Two explanations of the defeat of the project in the face of what was considered an absolute necessity, have presented themselves.

One explains that defeat of the measure was an expression of the people against what they term "militaristic" policies of Mayor Allen. Allen, a former colonel of infantry in the World war, is chairman of the trustee board of the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans Home here. His enemies say he is "hard-boiled" and that his administration of the judicial powers that go with the mayor's office is not tempered with mercy.

The other maintains that defeat of the levy can be laid at the doors of an element that voted only in the light of keeping down taxes and without heeding the possibilities of subsequent consequences. Many retired farmers who live in Washington are said to have opposed the increase and they are believed to have been partly influenced by rumors that the recent reappraisal has raised the assessed valuation of property $350,000 although the figures have not been officially announced.

Washington has a levy of 19.70 mills on a present valuation of $11,653,700 making for an annual per capita tax of $28.70 a thousand. Improvements voted in past years are now coming home to "root." It is said, with the result that obligations incurred years ago and not properly financed, must now be met and settled.

In order to meet the situation council introduced the extra levy measure and Mayor Allen told citizens that unless the levy passed, all city operations would cease. When the result showed the levy was defeated, Allen locked up City Hall, moved his office to his private law offices, dropped all police and firemen with the exception of the chiefs of each department and thus began a period of retrenchment.

Mayor Allen blames defeat of the measure partly on the apathy of some people who believed the city would get the money somehow and refused to consider the seriousness of the situation. Business men are quoted as saying that failure of the proposal was a rebuke to the policies of the mayor in administering the judicial powers of his office according to the letter of the law.

They point out that Washington is hailed as a speed trap and that tourists avoid the city to the detriment of business. They allege that Mayor Allen inflicts the maximum penalty in all cases without consideration of extenuating circumstances or evidence in mitigation. Jack Wm. police chief, denying that the mayor has operated a speed trap, admits that he collected $2,500 a month in fines and that this money staved off financial embarrassment for a time.

The customary fine for violation of the dry laws is $500. It is said, and pleas for mercy fall on deaf ears in the mayor's court. It is charged. All the influence one of the state's most powerful newspapers could muster could not save one of its executives a fine of more than $600 for liquor possession some time ago. The fact that Myers Y. Cooper, recent gubernatorial candidate, was a passenger in an automobile said to be speeding did not save the chauffeur being heavily fined.

When money gained by transfer of funds has been exhausted, the only hope for relief is in a special legislative act permitting the levy to be put to a second vote soon, it is said. In the meantime police and firemen are loafing and the light and water companies are philosophically furnishing service for the present in the belief that the city will pay its bills when it again becomes affluent—if ever.

American Legion members have volunteered to police the city in the emergency and it is expected that police and firemen will also continue their duties insofar as they are able. Washington council faces this problem:

The amount raised by taxation is $61,181.93.

Interest and sinking fund requires $41,953.32.

The balance is $19,228.61 and other obligations which must be met reduce the sum to $8,400 which must provide for police, firemen, water and electric light service.

This city service requires $94,638 a year and the problem is to stretch $8,400 so it will cover the larger sum.

While Washington council is debating this question Xenians recall one other evidence of unusual voting in Washington. The city did not advance its clocks to conform with daylight saving time during the summer months but when autumn arrived moved up on fast time, which is now in effect there.

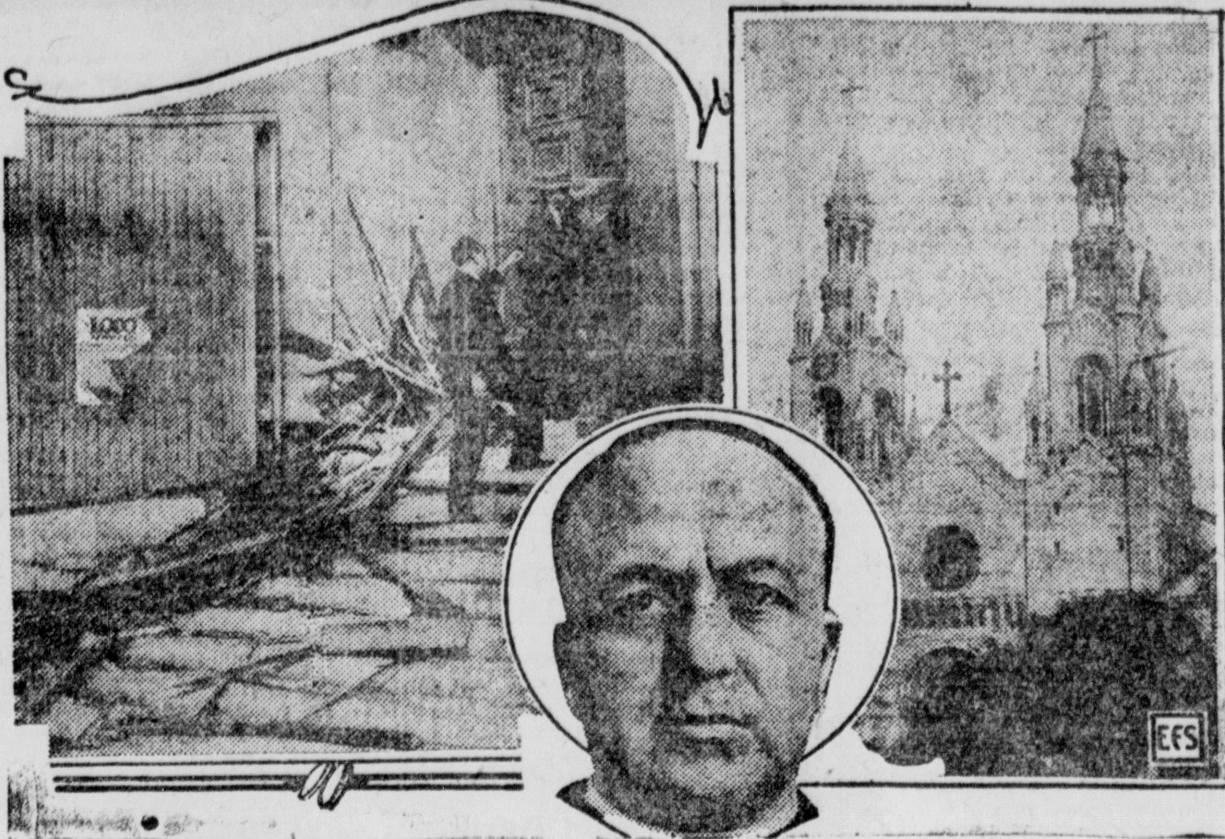

And Xenia, with its efficiently operated government, its economical administration, its well-manned police and fire departments, its miles of paved streets, its municipally owned water works and sewage disposal plant and its elaborate sewer system and extensive street lighting service in addition to an efficiently operated interest and sinking fund, may be pardoned a smile.

Mystery Boy

Joseph Reilly, fifteen, once employed by Mrs. Jane Gibson, "pig woman" and principal witness in the Hall-Mills case, was a surprise witness for the defense of the three persons on trial for the crime.

CATHEDRAL, IN FILMS, BOMBED THREE TIMES

The Church of Sts. Peter and Paul, its pastor, and damage done by most recent blast.

By J. S. PHILLIPS

Exclusive Dispatch, Copyright 1926 SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—Is a "movie jinx" operating against the beautiful church of Sts. Peter and Paul?

That is the question in the mind of the local Italian colony, following the third dynamiting of the $500,000 edifice within nine months. Construction of the big church came to wide notice when a huge cast of motion picture actors drafted the church construction as an important part of a huge De Mille movie spectacle, "The Ten Commandments."

The work on the church coincided exactly with the progress of the movie story. When artisans were not working on the scaffolding and at the holists, movie actors were simulating their work for the camera.

The motion picture utilized a "trick" shot of the huge towers of the edifice crumbling and collapsing, to spread ruin and death. It was this, the superstitious say, that hoodooed the church.

Three times within the last few months, Sts. Peter and Paul church has been the object of a bombing attack. One of these occurred during a Sunday morning mass. Another occurred during a weekday mass. In no case was a worshipper injured, and in every case, the pastor, Father Oreste Trinchiera, continued with his sermon.

Special detectives have been put to work on the case, seeking black hand or other possible motives. A notice of a reward of $1,000 was posted on the ruined door, and the church on two occasions went about repairing the heavy damages caused to the interior and exterior by the early morning blasts.

Now the attacker has struck again. In the latest explosion, the massive doors were blown to splinters—some of these splinters nearly ripping the $1,000 reward placard from the wall. Big slabs of marble and concrete blocks shattered by the explosion, which broke windows, not only in the church but over a wide area.

Father Trinchiera is inclined to scoff any anti-Catholic motive.

"It is just some unbalanced person, who watched with interest, the filming of the movie, and then, seeing the collapse of the dummy church building in the picture, has been obsessed with a morbid desire to see such a collapse in reality. "All of the blasts have been placed in front of the church. This may be taken to indicate a hope that the huge towers would be blown down—as a spectacle to behold—and also that the person meant no harm to the worshippers in the interior of the church. Each blast has followed by a few days some unusual big ceremony in the church.

But movie jinx or not—the repeated bombings have aroused all of San Francisco.

PUBLIC SALE

Thursday, November 18th, at 10 a. m.

At my residence 1 mile north of the Massies Creek Cemetery, Cedarville, Ohio, the following items.

5 HEAD OF HORSES—4 good work horses, 1 driver.
20 HEAD OF CATTLE—9 milch cows, 10 Shorthorn steers, high grade, weight 500 lbs. 1 Holstein yearling bull.
60 HEAD OF HOGS—All improved.
40 SHEEP—Shropshire and Delaine breeding ewes.
A complete line of good farming implements.
550 shocks of extra good corn. Some household goods.

J. B. JOHNSON

Kennon Bros., Auct.

C. H. Crouse, Clerk.

WESTINGHOUSE BATTERIES

JUST A GOOD RELIABLE BATTERY AT THE RIGHT PRICE

DENATURED ALCOHOL

For Your Radiator

XENIA AUTO NECESSITY CO.

TOM AND DICK—THE TIRE BOYS

Is your appetite gone?

REMEMBER, how it used to be when you could hardly wait for mealtime? And then, sit down and eat several helpings of everything—enjoy every morsel and get up from the table feeling satisfied with the World, happy with everybody and ready for anything.

But what a difference in living when even the sight and smell of food sickens you! Never hungry—no matter how tempting the food is—nothing tasting right. And then, after nibbling at a few bites, feeling worse than ever.

Oh, life is hardly worth living this way. And yet, all in the World the matter with you is that you are starving for rich, red blood. It is acknowledged everywhere that S. S. S. helps Nature build these healthy red-blood-cells by the millions!

All you need to do to get back that wonderful appetite is to build rich, red-blood-cells with S. S. S. It's simple. Just try it, like thousands are doing every day. See for yourself what S. S. S. will do.

S. S. S. means blood with a punch—brimful of new life and energy. Get your S. S. S. at any good druggist. The larger size is more economical.

Vogue! Variety! And Value!

All three are combined in our cleverly styled shoes for young women which include all the newest and most approved fashion trends.

New three eyelet ties, plain pumps and straps also sport oxfords in black and tan.

$5.00 and $6.00

Frazer's Shoe Store

E. Main St.

Xenia, O.

"CAP" STUBBS—Another Opportunity Lost

(HELLO CAP)

H'LO SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

SAMMY

Hunting Prohibited

ON

City And Bankard

Farms

Towler Road

R. C. Jenks

what would have happened had he been known to the voters of the county in general. Both precincts are strongly Republican.

Clifford Maxwell, who for several weeks had been unable to walk on account of an infection of the leg, was able to be down town this week.

Lawrence Anthony, of Springfield, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Anthony.

On last Sunday a large gathering of relatives from this neighborhood and from a distance surprised Harry E. Gibson at his home in Bellbrook, the occasion being his forty-first birthday anniversary. The following parake of the day's festivities: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gibson and children, Rowena, Kathryn, Margaret and Helen May, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rogers, Mrs. Emma Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith and children, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Poff, Mrs. Enis Anten, Mrs. Mae Anten and sons, David and John, Miss Philma Huston, John Roff, James Miller, Hiley Gibson and family and Floyd Trousen.

WINTER NECESSITIES PHILCO BATTERIES

For Heavy Duty Service This Winter Our Battery Department is ready and willing to serve you in either charging or repair.

HOW'S YOUR RADIATOR, NEED ALCOHOL?

Xenia Vulcanizing

Company

Phone 1098

Winter Necessity SALE

Saturday, Nov. 13th And All Next Week

Men's Fleece Lined Union Suits. Heavy weight.

A Real Bargain 98c

Men's Ribbed Union Suits.

Of quality 95c

Men's Canvas Gloves.

3 pair at 25c

Ladies' Knit Princess Slips.

Extra 98c

Special

ALARM CLOCKS

Guaranteed 1 year 89c

Ladies' Bloomers Jersey Silk 98c

China Salads.

New and beautiful patterns 25c and up

LADIES' HOSE

Wool and Silk and Wool Pair 79c

Ladies' Fleece Lined Hose Pair 25c

Outing Flannel. 36 in

HONEY LOU by Beatrice Burton

© JOHNSON FEATURES INC., 1926

"SOMEBODY ONCE CALLED THEM 'DAYTIME WIVES,'" ANGELA SAID IN HER ANGELIC VOICE

CHAPTER XI

Honey Lou felt the eyes of Jack Wallack's "crowd" on her as she and Donegal swayed and dipped past their table in the corner.

People always looked at Honey Lou. She attracted the eye the way a dancing flame will catch hold of it—because she was all sparkle and light and motion.

"Atta girl, Red Heels!" a stout, settled-looking man muttered to her as she and Donegal broke into a double-time tango beside his table. "Stomp your boot!"

He clapped his fat hands in time to the sobbing rhythm of the saxophone.

Honey Lou frowned at him. The next minute she forgot all about him in the utter joy of dancing.

The music seemed to throb within her, to the very tips of her toes. She loved it.

Tim Donegal, like most worthless young men, was a "dancing fool."

A giggle.

Honey Lou had never known what it really was to dance until she slipped into Donegal's arms and began to dance with him one night a few weeks before. Since then they had danced together two or three times every week. On Saturday nights they usually drove down to Crescentville to have dinner at the quaint little inn. And Donegal always left Honey Lou alone there while he went out into the town for a quarter of an hour or so.

Honey Lou had asked herself again and again where Donegal went when he left her. She had tried to ask him several times, but somehow she had not the courage to do it.

Another queer thing was that there were always two leopard-skin rugs in the car when they started out and only one on the homeward trip. It was very puzzling. Very.

But the mystery of Tim Donegal was nothing compared to the mystery of Jack Wallack. Honey Lou actually lay awake nights wondering why he had kissed her the night of Angel Allen's party—and then dropped her cold.

She found herself puzzling her head about it now as she swept around the floor of the Magic Lantern to the soft and haunting melody of "The Countess Maritza."

"Play, gypsies! Dance, gypsies! Play while you may—We're gypsies, one and all."

"I say—"

The music stopped on a lovely golden note and she and Donegal went back to Margaret and Steve Mayhew.

Honey Lou's chair faced the room. As she dropped into it, she saw Angela Allen and Jack coming across the dance floor toward her. The smile froze on her lips and the laughter and light died out of her eyes. Nervously she reached for her vanity case and began to powder a nose that needed no powdering.

"Look who's here," she said under her breath to Margaret. She wished she had stayed at home tonight. It made her ache all over to see Angel Allen and Jack walk across that floor together, arm in arm like lovers. Close and intimate—almost like a husband and wife.

Donegal and Steve Mayhew shoved back their chairs and got up as the two came up to the table.

"How nice to see you, Dr. Mayhew! I thought you were too serious-minded to come to a jazy place like this," Angela laughed up at Steve as she shook hands with him.

Then she came around the table to Honey Lou, filling the air in that corner with the delicate fragrance of valley lilies. Her white chiffon draperies fell around her in straight lovely lines, and she looked like the figure of a saint in a stained-glass window as she stood there, bending over Honey Lou.

"We haven't had a chance to have our luncheon together, have we, Miss Honey Lou?" she asked in her gentle voice.

"Won't you sit down?" said Honey Lou.

Donegal brought two chairs from a nearby table and she sat down. "Have a chair, old man," he said to Jack, and Jack sat down, too.

"You know my sister, Margaret Moody, don't you?" asked Honey Lou. "She's down at Holy Cross hospital, too."

Angela shook her head with its golden hair and smiled like an angel.

"I'm sorry. I don't know Miss Moody," she answered, and held out her hand.

Margaret barely touched it.

"I go down to Holy Cross every Friday to tell stories to the little children in Ward A," Angela went on in her soft, sweet way. "I look forward to it so. They're so sweet. Poor little kiddies!"

Margaret gave her a level stare.

"I've been telling them their Friday afternoon stories for the last three weeks," she said clearly. "When you failed to come clearly room to Honey Lou's desk.

The windows of the big room were open and the air came through them, laden with the smell of wool and grease. She had on a flannel suit and hat that were just the color of a daffodil; and the valley-lily perfume she used came to Honey Lou's nostrils like the breath of spring itself.

"Hello, my dear," she said. "I came to make good my promise at last. I came to take you to tea."

(TO BE CONTINUED)

Why did Angela come to the office? Did she want to take Honey Lou to tea because she was her friend—or because she had something to tell her? The answer is in tomorrow's chapter of HONEY LOU.

LECTURER WILL BE HEARD MONDAY ON COMMUNITY SERIES

Patrons of the Community Lecture Course, will enjoy the first number at the Presbyterian Church, Market and King Sts., next Monday evening, November 15, at 8 p. m., when Dr. Norman H. Barr, Chicago, will speak on "The World's Greatest Problem."

The general public is invited to hear the speakers on the series, men of reputation, acquainted with life subjects. Dr. Barr is head of Olivet Institute, Chicago, one of the largest social settlement enterprises in the city, with a budget of $75,000 a year. Dr. Barr is also chairman of the "World Fellowship Committee" of that city, according to the Rev. W. H. Tilford, pastor of the local church.

The lectures are free. A free will offering will be taken during the service to assist in defraying the expenses and the public is urged to attend.

Other numbers on the course are: December 1, Dr. R. H. Martin, Pittsburgh, "Undermining Foundations"; January 21, Dr. J. W. Claudy, Pittsburgh, "How to Train a Boy Down"; March 1, Prof. J. H. Dickason, Wooster, "Young America's Tomorrow."

Pimples On Face Neck and Shoulders Cuticura Healed

"My face began to break out with small, itchy pimples in great numbers. They were hard and red and festered and scaled over. The pimples spread to my face, neck and shoulders and itched and burned something awful so that I could hardly sleep at night. My clothing irritated the breaking out on my shoulders, and my face was disfigured. I had the trouble about two years."

"I was told about Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. After using it I got relief so purchased more and in about two months I was completely healed." (Signed) Winfred Chambers, R. 4, Box 191, Bedford, Ind.

Cuticura Soap to cleanse and purify, Cuticura Ointment to soothe and heal and Cuticura Talcum to powder and refresh are ideal for daily toilet purposes.

Small boxes, 25c each. Large boxes, 50c each. Address: Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. B, Malden, Mass.

Eat More Meat And Be Healthy

We have a great variety to choose from—

Any of our best choice Steaks only 29c lb.

Pure Ground Beef, only 15c

Pure Pork Sausage, 2 lb. for 45c

Little Pork Chops now 33c

Fresh Cala Hams 20c

Pure Lard, 2 lbs. for 35c

Sugar Cured Bacon, 35c value 28c

Spare Ribs, Liver, Pigs Feet, Pudding, Brains Cheese,

Lunch Goods, Fresh Dressed Chickens, Fresh Dressed

Fish, Full Line of Bakery Goods.

FAVORITE MEAT MARKET

Bakerite Bakery

113 E. Main. J. R. Derrick, Prop. Grottenick Bldg.

Shoot!

WESTERN "SUPER X"

—OR—

PETERS "HI VELOCITY"

$1.25 a box

Remington, Western Or Peters Shells In Your Favorite Load

80c to $1.25

Famous Auto Supply

The Yellow Front

37 West Main St.

GAS BUGGIES—The Tent Turns Up

AFTER MANY AGGRAVATING DELAYS WITH A BALKY MOTOR, HEM AND AMY ARRIVE AT A SMALL TOWN HOTEL IN SEARCH OF A GOOD NIGHT'S REST. WHEN THEY MAKE A DISCOVERY THAT CAUSES THEM TO FORGET ALL ABOUT WHAT THEY CAME FOR.

HERE'S A HOTEL AT LAST. I'M SO ALL IN I CAN HARDLY DRAG MY DOGS UPSTAIRS TO BED. I'LL MAKE OLD RIP VAN WINKLE LOOK LIKE A PIKER WHEN IT COMES TO LONG-DISTANCE SNOOZING.

HEM!! LOOK ON THE BACK OF THAT CAR! ISN'T THAT OUR LOST TENT? IT LOOKS LIKE THE CAR WE TRIED TO CATCH...

"No, thanks," she said aloud, and let it go at that.

He stayed there for a minute more, looking down at her as if he were going to speak. Then he shrugged his broad shoulders under the blue shirt he wore and stalked away.

Honey Lou's heart ached as she watched him go. But her pride would not let her call him back.

After that he seemed to keep out of her way, purposely. If she went down to the weaving room, with its whirling machinery, he walked out of it. If they met on the stairs or in the courtyard, they nodded and passed each other without a word or a smile.

Then on the first warm night in May he called Honey Lou up at her own house.

"I'm coming over to see you," he said. "This can't go on."

Honey Lou groaned inwardly. Donegal was on his way to the flat to take her to a moving picture show.

"I'm so sorry," she answered. "I'm going, out. But—will you come tomorrow night?"

"I'll come any time you say I may."

"Tomorrow night, then," Honey Lou answered. Her voice was low and even. But her heart began to sing like Miss Macomber's canary when Miss Macomber uncovered its cage in the morning.

The next afternoon Angela Allen came down to the mills. She came running up the steps to the office and walked straight across the

Sayre's Drug Store

How's Your Gas Line?

No, INDEED, we're NOT talking about an automobile! NUS-SIR! We are referring to the alimentary tract and the ease with which we can put it in shape for Thanksgiving stresses and strains. It's pretty fine to have a clear, pure receptive system to handle a job of this kind. Ask for Rexall Orderlies, 25c, a splendid laxative and conditioner!

They're MADE TO Dazzle MEN!!

So why let them grow dim and scuffy when for 25c you can get Rexall Eye Drops and make ALL of 'em sit up and take notice! And by the way, this is just as good advice for you men folks!

We Should Have Mentioned This!

Would you mind traipsing upstairs and looking at the Hot Water Bottle you NOW have in order to see whether you need a NEW one? Maybe the Tubing is worn some—Look carefully at that too! Our reason for this is that we have a $1.50 H. W. Bottle down here we're able to sell this week for $1.00. Tubing comes separate at 30c regular length.

Just a Little At a Time!

THAT'S the way we buy our CANDIES! It's foolish to lay in a great big stock of them and then find that they have gone stale on you. Our lines this year are probably the best we've EVER carried—several new ones having been added. Listen at these names! Huyler's, Candy Crabs, Maxixe Cherries, Town Talk, Jontee, Hotel Sinton.

HOLD EVERYTHING!!

Don't buy anything this week! SAVE your money! HOLD TITE! Watch your step! Be careful!

On Wednesday grab a copy of this paper and read the BIG ad we will have on one of the inside pages! Get all the members of the family together! Inspect the Medicine Chest! Draw your money outta the bank! March down here!

For folks on WEDNESDAY we will carry the announcement of our annual ONE CENT SALE! The biggest and most famous sales event in Greene County! The sale itself will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week when you will THEN be able to make a CENT do more gymnastics, get more ACTION, buy more GOODS and act more important than at any OTHER time in the entire twelve months of the year!

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday (Nov. 18, 19, 20) you can buy HERE for ONE CENT articles worth from 25c to $1! All you are required to do to get a bargain like this is to buy the FIRST article at the regular price. The SECOND ONE costs you only ONE CENT!

The REASON we're making this so plain to you and are advising you well in advance is that LAST year AFTER THE SALE WAS OVER a whole slew of folks gave us thunder because we haven't TOLD them! There'll be no mistake THIS year like that! If WE can help it!

Shorty Says:-

If Doc thought for one holy minute that you would hold out on your purchases THIS week in order to buy something NEXT week believe me he'd never talk like he did up above here! He knows just as well as I do that you'll be bustin' in here for what you want whether you get it for 50c or whether it costs ONE CENT.

"Oh, It's Just a COLD!"

And then "just a cold" develops into sore joints finally slipping down into the lungs and before you know it you're having what is known as Pneumonia and darn near ANYBODY knows the trouble you're in THEN! Our Rexall Cold Special Remedy "breaks" a cold before it has a chance to get ruff. Costs 25c the "break."

We Bow Deeply

TO OURSELVES!

Once in a while a fellow has a right to pat his own back—don't you think so? Not TOO often but just occasionally! Now that the open season for dangerous ills is upon us and doctors busier than at any OTHER time of the year, our PRESCRIPTION COUNTER and the confidence you folks have shown in it gives us a great big fine glow of satisfaction.

Police and Fountain News!

Take a little smidgin of Nectar or Grape. Add a bit of Cream just ANY ole shape—Dash in some Soda with splash and vim. Force the foam up above the rim AND YOU GOTTA SODA WATER! A little Ice Cream laid flat on its back. Covered with Chocolate till it looks kinda black; Whipped Cream then goes right on the top; Then start in eatin' till you're ready to pop! You had a SUNDAE!

ONE CENT SALE NOV. 18-19-20

THURSDAY! FRIDAY! SATURDAY!

Mince Meat—Nonesuch 15c
Currants—Pound 19c
Pitted Dates—Pkg. 25c
Sweet Cider—Gallon 40c
Figs—Box 10c

Dunkel's

PURE FOODS AT CUT PRICES

CLUSTERS

Chocolate Covered Peanuts, with a cream center. They're delicious. 29c Pound

BUTTER

J. O. W. SPRINGFIELD DAIRY MAID.

DUNKEL'S. OUR LOW PRICE. POUND

49c

POTATOES

Home Grown Potoskeys
15 lb. peck 53c

PEACHES

In Syrup
Big Can 17c

BEANS

Marrow Fat Fine Flavor
3 lbs. 29c

RAISINS

Sunmaid Seedless
2 Pounds 23c

SOAP

P. & G.
10 Bars 39c

MILK

Carnation, Wilson
"E" Brand, Tall Can 10c

MATCHES

Double Dip
Full Count
6 boxes 19c

CHEESE

Finest in Town
Pound 32c

SUGAR

JACK FROST PURE CANE.

BUY ALL YOU WANT, 25 POUND BAG

$1.55

FLOUR

SILVER STAR, FINEST OF GENERAL PURPOSE

HOME BAKING FLOURS, 12 1-4 lb. bag 49c.

24 1-2 lb. bag

97c

WE DELIVER YOUR ORDER FOR THREE DOLLARS OR MORE.

By Beck

AFTER MANY AGGRAVATING DELAYS WITH A BALKY MOTOR, HEM AND AMY ARRIVE AT A SMALL TOWN HOTEL IN SEARCH OF A GOOD NIGHT'S REST. WHEN THEY MAKE A DISCOVERY THAT CAUSES THEM TO FORGET ALL ABOUT WHAT THEY CAME FOR.

HERE'S A HOTEL AT LAST. I'M SO ALL IN I CAN HARDLY DRAG MY DOGS UPSTAIRS TO BED. I'LL MAKE OLD RIP VAN WINKLE LOOK LIKE A PIKER WHEN IT COMES TO LONG-DISTANCE SNOOZING.

HEM!! LOOK ON THE BACK OF THAT CAR! ISN'T THAT OUR LOST TENT? IT LOOKS LIKE THE CAR WE TRIED TO CATCH...

IT SURE IS THE CAR. I REMEMBER THE LICENSE NUMBER. YOU STAY HERE AND WATCH IT WHILE I GET THE GUY. HE MUST BE IN THIS HOTEL.

WELL... I DECLARE. I HAD KISSED THE OLD TENT GOODBYE.

NO, SIR, I DON'T REMEMBER EXACTLY WHICH GUEST THAT CAR BELONGS TO, BUT YOU COULDN'T SEE THEM NOW ANYWAY. IT'S TWO A.M. AND EVERYONE'S IN BED. PERHAPS IN THE MORNING...

MORNING, MY EYE! I'M GOING TO SEE 'EM RIGHT NOW. IF YOU DON'T WANT ME TO WAKE UP EVERY GUEST—THINK FAST!

"No, thanks," she said aloud, and let it go at that.

He stayed there for a minute more, looking down at her as if he were going to speak. Then he shrugged his broad shoulders under the blue shirt he wore and stalked away.

Honey Lou's heart ached as she watched him go. But her pride would not let her call him back.

After that he seemed to keep out of her way, purposely. If she went down to the weaving room, with its whirling machinery, he walked out of it. If they met on the stairs or in the courtyard, they nodded and passed each other without a word or a smile.

Then on the first warm night in May he called Honey Lou up at her own house.

"I'm coming over to see you," he said. "This can't go on."

Honey Lou groaned inwardly. Donegal was on his way to the flat to take her to a moving picture show.

"I'm so sorry," she answered. "I'm going, out. But—will you come tomorrow night?"

"I'll come any time you say I may."

"Tomorrow night, then," Honey Lou answered. Her voice was low and even. But her heart began to sing like Miss Macomber's canary when Miss Macomber uncovered its cage in the morning.

The next afternoon Angela Allen came down to the mills. She came running up the steps to the office and walked straight across the